ANTI-SALOON POLITICIANS HIT BY DRY PROSECUTOR

Ex-Official Tells of Offers to Trade Appointments for Information on Government Activity

HOOVER TO DELAY TRIP TO MEXICO

President Unable to Leave Washington Until After Next Congress Session

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—President Hoover has no plans to visit Mexico in December, although he does hope at some future date to go to that country. This announcement was made at the White House today in reply to inquiries concerning reports from the Mexican capital.

Just when he will be able to do so, however, is wholly problematical as Congress reconvenes next month and the present outlook is that it will be in session for months.

During this period the President does not wish to absent himself from Washington for any appreciable length of time.

It is expected that he will go to Cincinnati, about the middle of October to attend the celebration incident to the opening of the improved waterway on the Ohio River.

After speaking there his program calls for a trip to Louisville, Ky., on a river steamer passing through the newly constructed locks.

Britain Tests World's Fastest Fighting Plane

LONDON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—It is learned that Air Ministry pilots now are secretly testing the new Hawker Rolls-Royce "Hornett" asserted to be the fastest fighting aircraft in the world. It is designed as an intercepter fighter, to climb at great speed to a high altitude and attack enemy raiding planes.

The 500-horsepower Rolls-Royce engine is specially supercharged to enable it to maintain its power in the rarified air at high altitudes. The pilot is equipped with oxygen breathing apparatus and electrically-heated clothing.

MOTOR ACT IN EFFECT

Radical Changes Enumerated

Damage Liability Provided; Driving Licenses Voided; Brake Standard Set

Windshield Stickers Taboo; Other Rules Established to Promote Safety

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13. (AP)—California's new Motor Vehicle Act, carrying scores of changes vitally affecting every motorist in the State, goes into force tomorrow.

Creation of a highway patrol centrally controlled by the State instead of by counties is one of the outstanding changes provided by the new law. This plan of complete jurisdiction over highway traffic men is to be put into practice at once under the supervision of Eugene Biscailuz, former undersheriff of Los Angeles county, who recently was named chief of the enforcement unit. Biscailuz will work under the guidance of Frank G. Snook, chief of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

MAJOR CHANGES

Following are some of the major changes in the new act:

Requires that every person against whom judgment has been entered for damages involving negligence in an accident shall pay the judgment or have his license revoked. Requires that such person shall obtain liability insurance to the amount of $5000 for one person injured or killed and $10,000 for two and $1000 property damage.

Requires that license plates shall be displayed at least twenty-four inches above the ground.

Requires persons whose licenses have been revoked or suspended to forward license plates to Division of Motor Vehicles.

Cancels all operators' cards issued two years or more ago and requires that all such licenses shall be renewed hereafter every two years.

Sets up a standard for brakes and makes it unlawful to operate a vehicle that cannot comply with the standard.

Makes it a misdemeanor to drive with glaring headlights and requires court appearance in such cases.

OTHER REGULATIONS

Provides that failure to appear in court within fifteen days after citation to answer to violation will result in cancellation of operator's and registration licenses.

Requires drivers who strike unattended vehicles to leave identifying notice on such vehicle and notify police authorities as well.

Cuts transfer fee from $2 to $1 where the transfer is made simultaneously by legal and registered owners.

Makes it unlawful for a nonresident to operate a car in California for more than thirty days if he comes from a State not requiring an operator's license. Also relieves nonresidents whose visitors' permits expire in December from registering until the following January.

Cuts chauffeurs' fees from $2 to $1 annually.

Makes it unlawful to decorate windshields with stickers and posters.

Requires that a driver entering an intersection shall yield to a vehicle that already has entered intersection. When both enter simultaneously the left yields.

Relieves driver of responsibility for injury or death to riding guests except where intoxication, willful misconduct or gross negligence can be shown.

NEW DEPARTMENTS

Four new departments of the California State government are to become realities at midnight tonight, when laws passed by the last Legislature creating the departments of penology, investment regulation, military and veterans' affairs and professional and vocational standards go into effect.

Gov. Young has called a special meeting of his executive council for consideration of the men he suggests to head these new units.

Here is the way the new departments are to be constiuted:

Penology: Composed of six divisions, to wit: Prisons and paroles, embracing the board of prison directors, San Quentin and Folsom prisons; women's institutions, embracing the board of trustees of the California Institution for Women; criminal identification and investigation and its board of managers; criminology and the crime commission; narcotics and the division of pardons and commutations and its advisory pardon board.

Investment: Composed of five divisions, to wit: Banking, insurance, real estate, building and loan, corporations.

Ford Asked to Help With Problem of Disposing of Abandoned Cars

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Henry Ford, as the man most responsible, has been asked by Borough President Harvey of Queens to help solve the problem of disposing of abandoned cars.

Professing to see a situation which in time will tax the resources of the nation for its elimination, Harvey requested Ford to lend his automotive genius to abating the nuisance of streets and vacant lots littered with discarded automobiles, a large proportion his own product.

"We have yet to find an effective method to combat this Frankenstein monster," Mr. Harvey wrote.

"You have personal knowledge of the conditions caused in most of the nation's towns and cities by the promiscuous discarding of old cars. As the most prolific producer of automotive equipment in the world, I think your company should bear a large part of the responsibility for the elimination of the abandoned-car problem."

AGREEMENT NEAR AT HAGUE

British Welcome Proposals for Revised Plan of Payment as French Talk of Evacuation

THE HAGUE, Aug. 13. (AP)—Making rapid progress in private talks, the powers at The Hague reparations conference seem tonight on the verge of a satisfactory compromise for both the political and financial aspects of the Young plan.

Evacuation of the Rhineland by Christmas to satisfy Germany and exchange of part of the conditional annuities for unconditional ones to meet the demands of Great Britain were the bases for the compromise discussed in the private apartments of the different delegations today.

With delegates retiring from the conference floor to the seclusion of small gatherings and personal contacts, the quietest day of the conference in outward appearance promised far-reaching results. Important negotiations went on behind closed doors.

FINANCE SKY CLEARS

Propositions made to Philip Snowden, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, by the French, Belgians and Italians were admitted by the British delegation to be well worth considering and notably relieved tension of the financial deadlock.

Meanwhile, Premier Briand of France showed so much good will with reference to the evacuation of the Rhineland that actual dates for beginning the movements of troops were discussed.

A committee of jurists, set up last week to consider the legal aspects of instituting a control commission to verify armaments in the Rhineland after evacuation, met today. The jurists will report to the political committee at the first meeting of delegates from the powers directly interested in evacuation.

EVACUATION ISSUE

Evacuation at a date very near at hand now depends on agreement in the financial committee on the distribution among the Allies of the Young plan annuities and on the debated question of German deliveries in kind. Great Britain has raised objections to the treatment of both these subjects in the plan.

The offers made Chancellor Snowden by the French are supposed to involve abandonment by the latter of part of their share in the conditional German payments, which Germany will be asked to add to its unconditional payments.

This will leave France with her present share of annuities that can be commercialized, while making up at least half of the £2,500,000 needed to make the annuities satisfactory to the British. The British will

Iowan Reported to Have Accepted Position of National Secretary

DAVENPORT (Iowa) Aug. 13. (AP) A special dispatch to the Daily Times from its Washington correspondent today says former Representative Dawson of Davenport has accepted the post of executive secretary of the Republican National Committee offered him recently by President Hoover.

Dawson would not confirm the report.

Dawson, Davenport investment banker, is a personal friend of Secretary of War Good, who was western campaign manager for President Hoover last year. He was born at Spragueville, Iowa, in 1872. His experience as a newspaper man at Preston and Clinton, Iowa, was followed by service as a private secretary to the late Senator Allison of Iowa.

STRIKE RIOTS TO BE CURBED

New Orleans Takes Steps to Put Down Lawlessness After Battle in Council Chambers

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13. (AP)—After being attacked by an angry mob in the Council chamber, the City Commissioners late today took steps to curb a wave of wild disorders which swept through the city in a renewed outburst of rioting by street-car strike sympathizers.

Four City Commissioners were set upon by groups of a mob of 500 or more persons in and about the City Hall, a dozen policemen assaulted, four persons shot and a number of disturbers arrested on Federal and State charges before sufficient policemen arrived to quell the fury

DETERMINATION SHOWN

The Council calmly pursued its duties after the riot and announced its intention to preserve law and order in the strike, and a determination to "see that lawlessness is outlawed and the guilty brought to justice."

For an hour shouting men and women surged within the corridors of the building, where a delegation of 200 union men met with the Council to demand continuance of bus operation, and fought and swung blows until driven out at the point of police guns.

A second rush on the municipal building was halted by police with drawn guns and tear bombs, and the violence then settled into group attacks on street cars operated by nonunion workers.

STATE AIDED BY HOOVER

Water Problem to be Studied

President Also Plans Group to Get Together on Bay Bridge Building

To Join Governor in Naming Commissions to Hasten Both Projects

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—Two great problems of tremendous future value to the State of California are to be solved by Federal and State co-operation, President Hoover announced today at the White House. The first is to make a comparative study of the entire water possibilities of the State by a commission of Federal and State experts on the best conservation of all waters in California for domestic use, irrigation, power, navigation and flood control.

The second project is the final agreement between Federal and State experts for a great bridge connecting San Francisco and Oakland and other communities across the bay. This controversy has been up for many years and recent legislation by the State Legislature has provided laws and appropriations for State participation in these two commissions to bring the California and government authorities into definite agreement on two of the most important economic problems in the State.

REQUA SLATED

Mark Requa is slated as one of the commissioners to settle the bridge controversy and it is expected he will accept the appointment to be made by President Hoover.

In discussing this matter today in his regular newspaper conference he made this statement in response to an inquiry:

"I have some matters of interest to the State of California—perhaps not so much of general interest. I have been engaged for some time, in collaboration with the Governor of California, in the development of two problems in that State. One is the co-ordination of their State and Federal water development in that State. The other is over the San Francisco-Oakland, or Alameda bridge.

"Some years ago I advocated the co-ordination of the Federal and different State agencies in the determination of the fact and the development of water supply in the State of California. There are some nine different independent agencies that have a relationship to that problem.

DETAILS PLANS

"The Governor of California in the last session of the Legislature arranged for an appropriation from the State government to carry out an investigation of water-supply problems. And we have agreed to the appointment of a commission on which the Federal government will be represented by a delegate from the War Department, one from the Power Commission and one from the Department of the Interior. The Governor will appoint representatives of the different departments in the State government and some leading citizens. The purpose of that commission is to determine the fact and to develop some co-ordinated policies with regard to the development of the water resources of California in connection with irrigation, navigation, flood control and power.

"The other question is the San Francisco bridge, a matter that has agitated that community for years. The Legislature of California at the request of the Governor made certain authorizations in that matter and we have agreed on the appointment of that commission to comprise two representatives of the Navy Department, two of the War Department, one from each of the communities on the two opposite sides of the bay, two from the State of California and one further citizen of the West whom I shall appoint and who will probably be Mr. Mark Requa.

AGREE ON LOCATION

"The purpose of that commission is to see if they can determine the proper location and to secure the assent of the different Federal and State agencies and the local community to the proper location of

Entire Village Swept Away

Crews Fight Desperately to Save Large Area from Rio Grande Peril

SAN MARCIAL (N. M.) Aug. 13. (AP)—The towns of San Marcial and San Acacia are under water tonight while relief crews fight to stem the flood waters of the Rio Puerco and are piling sand bags high on the levees as a safeguard against the river which is tumbling swiftly toward Elephant Butte Lake, only a few inches below the top of the dikes.

Two hundred refugees from San Marcial and vicinity left the town and went to Las Cruces to escape the flood. They estimate that damage totaling more than $100,000 has been done by the flood waters today, and said further rises in both the Rio Puerco and Rio Grande are expected.

LOWER THAN RIVER

The village of San Acacia, which has a population of some 100 people, was swept away completely and live stock, poultry and farm animals were caught in the flood waters. W. E. West, secretary of the Socorro business men's clubs, appealed to the State Health Bureau for aid to check any epidemic which might result from the condition. An appeal was made to the American Red Cross. So far as learned tonight no people have been injured or killed.

The town of San Marcial is ten feet lower than the bottom of the Rio Grande and should a serious break occur in the levee there the entire town will be wiped out and thousands of acres of additional lands will be flooded. Most of the homes in San Marcial and San Acacia were made of adobe and they crumbled as the swirling waters caught them in the floods.

VENEZUELA RAID VESSEL HUNT MADE

Government Preparing to Push Piracy Charges as it Seeks Filibuster Ship

CARACAS (Venezuela) Aug. 13. (AP)—The government, determined to push charges of piracy against prisoners taken Sunday when a band of filibusters successfully attacked the city of Cumana, today sought to learn where and how they obtained the steamship from which they landed.

The vessel was described as an old German merchant steamer, the Falke, but the Ministry of Foreign Affairs said today that it has not been able to learn from what port it came. It apparently is without registry at present. A description of the Falke and a statement of the part it played in the raid on the capital of the State of Sucre was communicated to other governments through the legations here today. This will permit naval authorities anywhere to take such action against the owners or operators of the vessels they deem desirable.

Nearly all of the raiding party were wounded and captured but the Governor of the State and other Federals died in beating off the attack.

INDEPENDENTS GET FILMS

Association Makes Deal With R.-K.-O. Pictures for Five-Year Franchise at Lower Rates

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The Allied States Association of Motion-Picture Exhibitors, representing independent motion-picture theater owners, announced here today that it has negotiated an arrangement with R.-K.-O. Pictures by which motion pictures will be supplied to independent picture houses under five-year franchises "at prices substantially lower than those now prevailing, and which will enable the independent exhibitors to remain in business."

It was stated the association is negotiating with another producer and hopes to announce a similar arrangement within a few days.

EQUIPMENT DEAL

In addition, an effort is being made to strike a deal with one of the manufacturers of reproducing equipment whereby sound apparatus will be supplied to independent exhibitors on terms which will permit them to compete with their larger rivals in the showing of talking pictures. A satisfactory arrangement with respect to this equipment, according to the announcement, "is awaiting only certain data as to cost and doubtless will be completed within a fortnight."

"Under this arrangement," the statement said, "the small independent theaters which have been threatened with extinction by the competition of theaters affiliated with certain of the producers, will be able to get talking pictures and sound equipment at prices which they can afford. It is the most constructive and far-reaching action ever taken by the independent exhibitors for their own protection."

MINIMUM FIXED

The announcement came from the office of Abram F. Myers, who several months ago resigned from the Federal Trade Commission to become president and general manager of the independent theater men's organization. His statement said that under the arrangement made with R.-K.-O., the Allied

LEAGUE FIGHTS TO DEFEND WET IN DRY'S CLOTHING

WET DRINKERS AND DRY VOTERS

Bootleggers in the halls and corridors of Congress and liquor in Congressmen's trunks are described by Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant United States Attorney-General, in charge of prohibition, in her eleventh article, when she asks, "Are Congressmen Above the Law?" appearing in tomorrow's issue of The Times.

pulpit roused the organized drys with a frenzy of protest. In spite of it, I insisted that the case, resting upon amply corroborated testimony of official misconduct, and bribery, should be handled just the same even though one of the defendants was an Anti-Saloon League official, as it would were the defendants known bootleggers.

DRYS FIGHT GOVERNMENT

Anti-Saloon League demands piled up on my desk to order a dismissal. Instead, I asked that the case be set for trial. The situation grew so hot in St. Louis that the local office called for help. I went out for the trial. A jury panel was called. The Anti-Saloon League officials spoke, wrote, pleaded, in an effort to stop the trial, and distributed literally thousands of the following documents printed on the official stationery of the Anti-Saloon League of Missouri, May 16, 1925:

"Dear Friend: The purpose of this communication is to appeal to all law-abiding citizens to join in an effort to obtain fair play and justice for those who have been the object of attack in their efforts to enforce the law.

"Heber Nations has led 100 raids on moonshine plants and illicit dives.

"Heber Nations's Jefferson City newspaper has been a fearless champion and effective medium for the agencies of law enforcement.

"Heber Nations procured the information with which his brother, Gus O. Nations, caught the Griesedieck brewery making beer.

"In revenge, Heber Nations has been indicted, charged with operating that brewery. Every asserted violation of the national prohibition laws is subject to investigation and prosecution under the laws of the State of Missouri.

"Heber Nations is to be taken away from Jefferson City and hauled up before a Federal court, which is to be held in wet St. Louis on Monday, May 25. You have read what the dry editors and law-enforcement advocates of the State have said about it. You know the story.

"The hour has come to strike—for you to strike. A special prosecutor is to represent the Department of Justice in prosecuting Nations for operating the Griesedieck brewery, notwithstanding the admitted fact that Heber Nations and his brother, Gus Nations, were responsible for raiding the Griesedieck brewery at the time it was caught making beer, and notwithstanding the fact that the local representatives of the Department of Justice turned loose all of the men caught at the Griesedieck brewery on two separate trials.

"Write to President Coolidge today, demanding an investigation of the prosecution against Nations and protesting against the trial of Nations, a well-known editor, dry leader and law-enforcement advocate, in wet St. Louis, on the testimony of interested bootleggers and brewers seeking immunity, whom Nations has raided.

"No favoritism is desired. All the advocates of law enforcement want is to prevent unjust and prejudiced action taken in the name of law enforcement by bootleggers and chronic lawbreakers under the guise of witnesses for the government and patriotic aids to the Department of Justice. If bootleggers are framing to railroad dry leaders under guise of prosecution, the facts should be known before it is too late.

"Write it today! Mail it today! The time is short!

"Please—Please—won't you please phone five of your friends today and urge them to do likewise?

"Sincerely yours,

"A. H. POST."

POLITICAL SHOALS

Some of these fell into the hands of prospective jurors. In addition to that appeal the league drew up a mimeographed brief entitled "Statement of Facts Concerning Nations Case and Law Enforcement," by A. H. Post, Superintendent, Missouri Anti-Saloon League.

It seems unbelievable that an organization pledged to obtain enforcement and obey law would resort to such tactics to prevent one of their members from facing trial and thus testing in an orderly and constitutional way the truth of the charges against him. It was obstruction of justice, bordering closely on contempt of court, and I condemn it as quickly and resist it as vigorously as when bootleggers' friends attempt the same interference with trials by different means.

Recently we have witnessed much attack on the Anti-Saloon League as an invisible government and political oppressor. In fairness, I must say, that the league's resort to tactics such as the Nations case is conspicuous by its rarity.

INFORMATION WANTED

Wayne Wheeler was an able lawyer. He was a determined, politically astute man. I always believe he guided the league into dangerous shoals by too much political activity. Early in my tenure he offered to help me if I wanted to obtain appointments and if for the "good of the cause" I would let him know of matters officially under consideration here. The latter, of course, I never could do—consequently my relations with the Washington office of the Anti-Saloon League remained distant, but always were cordial.

The real undying spirit which I do sense among the league's membership as a beneficent force in civic life is represented by the nonpolitical, quieter approach to the liquor problem by such men as Dr. Cherrington. The league will hold its place just in proportion as it relinquishes any disposition to name appointees, and develops a disposition to continual civic education on temperance and law observance.

NO DRY NOTES FOR WETS

That is the reason for the continued influence of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Their consecration is sincere, unwavering and utterly unselfish. You seldom find them voting for a carousing public official solely because he voted for a dry law.

In my judgment the Anti-Saloon League's political activity is one of several contributory causes to a very repulsive modern phase of public life. I refer to the political hypocrisy of drinking "drys." The league, I believe, would be stronger today had it been more reluctant to indorse a man who would compromise his courage and honest convictions just to vote dry while dealing blows in the back to the Eighteenth Amendment.

I look forward to the time when the powerful devotion to the cause of prohibition represented in the organization known as the Anti-Saloon League will become again a virile civic force to teach temperance and obedience to law. This will, of course, indirectly affect political results, but the approach will be educative and informative rather than political.

After the supreme effort put forth by consecrated "drys," with the Anti-Saloon League largely acting as shock troops, to procure the Eighteenth Amendment, these consecrated "drys" too often have developed "rocking-charities." They have leaned back in complacent enjoyment of the great victory the Eighteenth Amendment represents to them.

The Eighteenth Amendment is not nearly so much a victory as it is a challenge. One reason for the slough of despond many serious-minded citizens find themselves in over the Eighteenth Amendment—citizens who at first were enthusiastic about it—is because there has been a cessation of quiet, steady, forceful education on the value of temperance, community by community, throughout the country, which the dry-thinking, dry-living and dry-voting people maintained before the Eighteenth Amendment was obtained.

They never should have stopped it for a moment. The lull in their efforts along this line in the last five years, particularly, has given a great advantage to those conducting organized opposition to prohibition. The opportunity before the Anti-Saloon League and its challenge is to get out of rocking-chairs, and roll up their sleeves, State by State, county by county, and community by community, and revive interest in the desirability and economic advantage of obstinence, and the civic obligation of la wobservance.

CRATER SCANNED IN PLANE HUNT

But Army Pilot's Search for Dole Race Entry Fails to Yield Results

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—To prove or disprove a rumor that one of the ill-fated planes lost in the Dole derby was in the wild, rugged territory over the crater of Mokuaweoweo, Hawaii, Lieut. J. H. (Jimmy) Hicks, Army Air Corps, accompanied by Technical Sergeant Arthur Stolte, recently flew an amphibian over the crater.

No trace of the lost plane was found. He succeeded in obtaining the first photographs ever taken of the mouth of the crater.

JUDGES CONSIDERED

With only one more day to elapse before the law creating another State district Court of Appeals goes into effect, speculation as to Gov. Young's selections to fill the three judgeships centered today on several prominent jurists in the districts affected.

The new district, known as the Fourth District Court of Appeals, was created by the 1929 Legislature and comprises the counties of San Diego, San Bernardino, Imperial, Riverside, Tulare, Kings, Kern, Inyo and Orange.

It has been tentatively ascertained that Gov. Young will appoint judges from San Diego, San Bernardino and San Joaquin Valley to fill the offices as it has been his desire to have various sections well represented.

Friends of Superior Judge S. L. Strother, Fresno county, have been advocating him to the Governor for the San Joaquin appointment, while friends of Superior Judge Erwin W. Owen, Kern county, have been boosting him for the office.

Among the most prominently mentioned in the San Bernardino district is Superior Judge Benjamin F. Warmer. Former Justice Sloane of the Supreme Court has been advocated to fill the office in the San Diego district.

MILLION DRIVING CARS ILLEGALLY TODAY

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—More than 1,000,000 California motorists will be operating automobiles illegally tomorrow due to the fact that their drivers' licenses were made obsolete by the new law effective at midnight tonight which canceled all licenses issued prior to January 1, 1927.

Frank Snook, head of the State Division of Motor Vehicles, estimated today that when the law was passed by the last Legislature there were approximately 1,750,000 of the now-obsolete licenses in the possession of motorists. Since that time 700,000 have obtained new licenses.

Snook declared that automobile owners will be given a reasonable time in which to procure driver's licenses before traffic officers are instructed to arrest those who have failed to comply with the 1929 act.

Examinations are being given throughout the State by Motor Vehicle Division branch offices, peace officers, automobile clubs and other agencies, at the rate of between 30,000 and 40,000 daily.

GOV. YOUNG APPEALS FOR PUBLIC CO-OPERATION

Taking the occasion of the start in service of California's new motor patrol to initiate a strenuous drive against the reckless and the criminally careless, the drunken and the grossly incompetent motor vehicle operator, Gov. Young yesterday appealed for State-wide co-operation with the California Committee on Public Safety and the State highway patrol toward minimizing traffic accidents which last year killed 1876 and injured nearly 50,000 men, women and children in the State.

Declaring that 99 per cent of California's motorists are careful and law-abiding, Gov. Young advised the members of the new highway patrol that their job is to "be friends and allies" of this majority. He ordered that the remaining 1 per cent must be reformed or forever eliminated from the highways of the State.

TEXT OF MESSAGE

The message of Gov. Young follows:

"It is a duty incumbent not only on public officials but on all citizens of the State to co-operate in the prevention of motor accidents. Safety laws, even with continuous enforcement will not minimize accidents unless indorsed by public opinion and supplemented by safe practices on the part of individuals. There is, therefore, necessity for a well organized educational campaign designed to reach each citizen and appeal to every group.

"Such a campaign has been inaugurated by the California Committee on Public Safety, an organization embracing in its membership public officials and groups representing all phases of community life throughout California. As Governor of this State, I earnestly appeal to all citizens to co-operate with the Committee on Public Safety in the splendid campaign of education which it is undertaking. I also urge that they stand back of our new highway patrol, as well as all other State and local authorities, in the efforts which are being made to bring about a saner and safer use of California highways."

CAMPAIGN OPENS

A thirty-day educational campaign on safe driving is being opened today by the California Committee on Public Safety, to be followed by eleven months of co-operative education and enforcement activities, with special emphasis being placed on the worst driving hazards of each season.

The committee represents forty State-wide groups concerned with traffic problems. Its officers are Senator Arthur H. Breed, chairman; Mrs. R. L. Cardiff, president of California Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations, vice-chairman; Edward D. Lyman, president of Automobile Club of Southern California, vice-chairman; and D. V. Nicholson, assistant secretary of California State Automobile Association, secretary.

NEW WIG-WAG LAW PRAISED B YOFFICIAL

Praise for the new State law, effective today, which says to motorists "Stop for the wig-wag at the railroad crossing," was given yesterday by A. G. Mott, chief engineer of the State Railroad Commission.

Mr. Mott pointed to statistics compiled by the commission for the first six months of 1929 to show that, during that period there were 1209 grade crossing accidents in the State, resulting in death to ninety-two persons and injury to 421 others. These figures, Mr. Mott pointed out, have particularly serious significance because there were 47 per cent more accidents in the period than for the corresponding period of 1928.

MANY CARELESS PERSONS

That many accidents occured when motorist failed to heed the warning of the wig-wag or human flagman is shown by the fact that 547 of the 1209 accidents occurred at crossings protected by special devices, maintained at a large annual cost. While only 25 per cent of the crossings are specially protected, these crossings, for the most part, are heavily traveled thoroughfares.

The new law, Mr. Mott pointed out requires drivers of motor vehicles to stop before crossing the railroad where wig-wags, gates or human flagmen indicate the immediate approach of a train. Further, where human flagman are on duty, the motorist must not proceed so long as the watchman continues to signal the approach or passage of a train. Observance of this law by the motoring public, Mr. Mott predicted, materially will reduce the number of casualties at grade crossings.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN

Under an order issued by the State Railroad Commission under date of February 1, 1927, the railroads in California have been improving wig-wag installations so that, by December 31, next, the time limit of the order, all wig-wags will comply with the high standards set forth by the commission, Mr. Mott said.

GREATER MARKET

The introduction of sound pictures into Latin-American countries is expected to greatly stimulate the sale of American-made motion-picture equipment, according to a trade bulletin just issued by the motion-picture division of the Commerce Department. Theater building in those countries, it is pointed out, is proceeding rapidly, especially in the larger commercial centers, and most of these new theaters are installing the latest type of projection equipment, as well as up-to-date ventilating and heating apparatus.

Latin-American countries last year, the report shows, bought approximately 600 motion-picture projectors, valued at $112,000. This was about double the figure for the preceding year. Mexico appears to be the largest Latin-American market for American projectors, followed by Colombia, Cuba and Argentina in the order named.

the bridge, which has been subject to contention now for as far back as I can recollect."

The decision of President Hoover to make these Federal appointments to both commissions followed a conference at the White House recently with R. B. Meek, who came here as the representative of Gov. Young of California. The announcement of both the State and Federal members of these two commissions will be made in a few days.

GOV. YOUNG GRATIFIED AT ANNOUNCEMENT OF HOOVER

Gov. Young yesterday expressed gratification over published reports from Washington that President Hoover has decided to designate two joint commissions, composed of Federal and State representatives, to work out two problems of great importance to California. Reports declared that the President has signified his intention of naming army and navy representatives to meet with others appointed by Gov. Young, to work out a settlement of the San Francisco Bay bridge controversy. Another joint commission, composed of officials of the War Department, Interior Department and the Power Commission, as well as California State officials, will be named, according to the President's announcement, to deal with reclamation and irrigation problems in the State.

"I am very glad to learn that President Hoover has displayed this interest in the California water problem," Gov. Young said here yesterday.

TALKS WITH HOOVER

"The water problem in Northern California is similar to that confronting the south," the Governor said. "Perhaps the situation up there is not quite so acute, but, nevertheless the water table is growing constantly lower and it is becoming more expensive to pump water. I discussed the situation with Mr. Hoover three years ago when he was Secretary of Commerce. He indicated at that time that the government naturally would be deeply interested in the question of reclamation and irrigation in California, as it was in the Boulder Canyon dam problem.

"Through the adoption of a law by the Legislature, we were able to name a commission to study the entire question of water resources in California and, as a result of that study, it was recently arranged for Director Meek to go to Washington to lay the matter before the proper authorities. He has just returned and it is apparent that he has been successful in his mission."

VIEWS ON BRIDGE

Gov. Young declared he knows very little about the San Francisco bridge question but expressed gratification over the announcement that the President has seen fit to act in the matter. "I am personally in favor of publicly owned brides," the Governor said. "There is no reason that I can see why the State should not build important bridges instead of private companies. The State builds costly highways up to either bank of a stream, let us say, and then a private company steps in and completes the link by means of a bridge for which a toll charge is made to users."

Gov. Young, accompanied by John R. Quinn left Los Angeles for Sacramento for a two-days' session of the "department heads council" yesterday. The meeting in Sacramento pertains to a reorganization of the Council of State Executives which has been a regular monthly feature of the regime of Gov. Young.

The new motor vehicle laws and several other important enactments of the recent Legislature are scheduled to go into effect today. The new laws necessitate a reorganization of several departments, such as the highway motor patrol, the license department and the war veterans' division.

Mr. Quinn, who is interested in the war veterans' division, probably will remain in Sacramento a week. Gov. Young will attend the two days' session of the "council" and will then go to Santa Barbara on Thursday to attend the fiesta. On Friday night he expects to return to Los Angeles.

EXPLORER FIGHTS ICY

MacMillan's Ship Squeezed in Pack, Huge Bergs and Almost Annihilated

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The following been received from Commander Donald B. MacMillan Bowdoin at the entrance to Kane Channel, Baffin Land.

"We are still blocked by drift ice coming down from the north. It extends in solid pack as far as the eye can reach. On Wednesday, the 7th inst., we tried to get around Loks Land into Cyrus Field Bay and were carried back by the Arctic current seventeen miles.

"The Bowdoin was caught between two packs of ice, badly squeezed and lifted out of the water about six feet.

DANGER FROM BERGS

"Realizing that we were in danger of being carried off by the pack, we fought all day Thursday with electric winch and engine to penetrate 100 yards of heavy ice between us and the land, but were compelled to give it up as darkness came on.

"At midnight came the change of tide. Everything started. Our ice anchors were ripped out and away we went into a swirling mass of ice, buffeted first on one side and then the other. We started our engine and in the dark tried to avoid huge icebergs rushing down on us at four to nine miles an hour.

"Finally we were helplessly caught right in the path of a big berg. It looked as if there was no escape at least from a badly damaged ship. All hands were ordered on deck fully clothed and ready to abandon the Bowdoin if necessary. With engine running full speed astern the Bowdoin drew in her nose to avoid the berg by about ten feet. How she did it we don't know.

BATTLE GOES ON

"We immediately went full speed ahead and followed in the path of the big berg, plowing through the pack, and pivoted her toward land against a mass of ledges and held on until daylight. In the morning we put her into a rocky bight twenty feet wide and 100 feet long and held on with anchor and three lines.

"Yesterday we brought her up into a little harbor out of the ice and last night ran her over to the entrance to Kane Channel, hoping to get through into Cyrus Field Bay on the next tide tonight.

SENATE LEVIES DUTY ON SHOES

House Tariffs on Footwear and Hides Accepted

Rates on Leather Juggled in Compensation

Diamonds Put on Free List to Curb Smuggling

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Retention of the duties of 10 per cent on hides and 20 per cent on shoes proposed in the House tariff bill was approved under an agreement reached today by the Senate Finance Committee Republicans engaged in revising that measure. These articles now are on the free list.

The committee's majority, however, sanctioned a number of changes in the measure, the proposed levies on various types of leather to compensate for the hide rate being both raised and lowered.

UPS AND DOWNS

The proposed amendments were:

Raise the House duty of 12½ per cent on sole or belting leather to 15 per cent.

Increase the House rate of 12½ per cent on leather to be used in the manufacture of harness or saddlery to 14 per cent.

Raise the House duty of 15 per cent on side, upper, patent and leather made from calf or kip skins suitable for conversion into footwear, to 17½ per cent.

Reduce the House tariff of 25 per cent on leather made from hides and skins from animals of other than the bovine species to 17½ per cent.

Reduce the House rate of 30 per cent on ornamented leather to 20 per cent.

GLOVES REDUCED

Under another amendment approved the House rates of $5.50 a dozen pairs for women's leather gloves and $6.50 for men's would be changed to $5.50 for both men and women's.

The committee also agreed upon retention of the House rate of 20 per cent on upholstery, collar, bag, case, glove, garment or strap leather.

GEM DUTIES CUT

As a step to discourage smuggling of precious stones the Republican committeemen approved the transfer to the free list of rough and uncut diamonds, which would bear a 10 per cent duty under the House bill. The House bill duty of 20 per cent on cut diamonds and pearls would be reduced to 10 per cent under another amendment.

They also agreed to the proposed increased tariffs on matches, but approved another cut in the bill in the restoration of the present duty of 70 per cent on dolls, which the House had raised to 90 per cent.

FEDERAL HELIUM COSTS DECLINE

New Plant in Texas Produces Gas at Price Lowest Ever Recorded

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The new government helium plant located at Boncy, near Amarillo, Tex., produced during July 648,850 cubic feet of helium, of an average purity of approximately 97 per cent, the United States Bureau of Mines announced today.

The first shipment of helium from the plant was made on May 6, and production has been steadily increasing since that date.

It is believed that production costs at the new plant will be well within the previously estimated figure of $20 per 1000 cubic feet of helium. This is the lowest figure at which helium has ever been produced, so far as is known to the Bureau of Mines.

SKIES AT HAGUE BRIGHTER AGAIN

NOTABLE EFFECT

The tentative agreement in the political committee has had a considerable effect on the progress of the financial negotiations.

William Graham, president of the Board of Trade in the Labor government and a delegate at The Hague, told the press today proposals to modify the system of deliveries in kind to meet British objections are under discussion.

The transformation which the conference has undergone since Saturday, when it was threatened with a complete breakdown, was very clear today. Everybody talked not of firm stands, unflinching determinations or uncompromising demands, but of how different viewpoints will be brought together.

POLITICS INSTITUTE HEARS SNOWDEN BACKED

WILLIAMSTOWN (Mass.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Further defense of Chancellor of the Exchequer Philip Snowden's demand for a larger British share of German reparations than that allotted in the Young plan was made by Prof. Herbert Heaton, economist of the University of Minnesota and a native of England, before members of the institute of politics today.

Snowden was justified in his objections to the desertion of the Spa percentage and the distribution of unconditional German payments, Prof. Heaton declared. In his demand for the abolition of payment in kind, however, Dr. Heaton believes the British spokesman at The Hague conference is "on less firm ground."

WISHES DISCLOSED

"Snowden's demand for the restoration of the Spa percentage involved an additional payment to Great Britain of about $12,000,000 a year," he said.

"In making this demand Snowden merely wished to get the money which would recoup England for the sums which she had already paid America; the sums still owing were provided for in the Young report.

"Mr. Snowden's demand for a larger share of the unconditional annuities also seems justifiable. If it should happen that Germany was unable to pay her annuities in full in any year, surely all the creditors should suffer equally in that event. If, on the other hand, Germany should prove able to pay regularly and in full, France would lose nothing by admitting England's right to a larger share of the unconditional payments.

PAYMENT IN KIND

"In his demand for the abolition of payment in kind Mr. Snowden was on less firm ground. He wished to see these payments in goods reduced or abolished because he felt that such goods cut into the English export market; but the effect of these goods was exaggerated and, in any case, Germany would have to pay her annuities either directly in goods or indirectly by credits.

"Britain's criticism was not directed against the two really important contributions of the Young committee, which were the fixing of the total payment and the design of machinery for payment. There was no quarrel with the Allies or with Germany on either of these points."

Dean P. E. Corbett, dean of the law faculty of McGill University, discussing the proposed St. Lawrence waterway, reviewed the negotiations between the American and Canadian governments on the project.

"The Canadian government in its correspondence with the American government has suggested that, if the scheme is proceeded with, the national section of the St. Lawrence should be developed first and the international section should not be developed until Canada has had time to absorb the new power produced in the national section," he said.

"A matter which has caused Canada to hold back in the negotiations is the uncertainty regarding the respective powers and rights of the Federal and provincial governments in regard to waters."

Another factor which has delayed negotiations somewhat, he said, is the Canadian government's reluctance to commit the country to heavy expenditures before it has recovered fully from the cost of the World War.

SOUTH AFRICANS LAUD SNOWDEN STAND

CAPE TOWN (Union of South Africa) Aug. 13. (AP)—Joining the general approval of the Dominion press for Great Britain's demands for an increased percentage of German reparations at The Hague, the influential Cape Times today said South Africa thoroughly applauds the firmness of Chancellor of the Exchequer Philip Snowden.

The Times thinks Mr. Snowden's attitude will lead to better understanding between Great Britain and Germany.

Radio Men Busy Preparing for Flight Tomorrow

Plan to Try Communication With Many Stations

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN (Germany) Aug. 13. (AP)—With preparations for the Graf Zeppelin's flight to Tokio, the second link in its round-the-world route, virtually completed for early Thursday morning, Dr. Hugo Eckener today found time to indulge in social relaxation which necessitated hobnobbing with royalty.

At a beautiful Kasserberg summer chateau the Zeppelin's commander was guest at a luncheon to which King Gustav of Sweden was invited. The party of eleven included Claudius Dornier, constructor of the super-airplane "Do-X" Ulrich Raucher, German Minister to Poland, Heinrich Sahm, president of the Free State of Danzig; Ludwig Duerr, Zeppelin constructor, and several Swedish officials on the staff of the Swedish monarch, who is summering on the Island of Mainau in Lake Constance.

TELLS ADMIRATION

King Gustav expressed to Dr. Eckener and also to Dornier and Duerr his great admiration of their work for the science of aviation.

Two men who will be exceedingly busy on the coming flight to Tokio are Radio Operators Dunke and Spech, one of whose tasks will be to determine just what wireless stations really can be worked with during the trans-Asian flight.

During the Zeppelin's flight to America this problem relatively was simple in that the dirigible communicated with Norddeich and Cotham. All they know this time is that they will stick to Norddeich as long as possible.

NO CHANGES PLANNED

"We'll even try during the entire journey to reach Norddeich during the night with short-wave length," said Spech, "as for the rest of the journey we'll try as soon as possible to reach Tokio by wireless but we also will try Mukden, Irkutsk and Shanghai and such other stations as may respond."

There will be no changes made in the Zeppelin's wireless equipment which is considered as adequate as can be expected considering the circumstances and difficulties of the flight.

When You Over-indulge

Every man, woman and child will occasionally over-indulge. But don't suffer for all your indiscretions. It's folly to do so. You can so easily sweeten and settle a sour, upset stomach with a little Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

Hearty eaters have long since learned the quick comfort this perfect anti-acid brings. Smokers know how it neutralizes nicotine; brings back a sweet taste; guards the breath. Women know what it does for nausea—or sick headache. And when children have over-eaten—are bilious, constipated or otherwise upset—give them a little of the same, pleasant-tasting and milky-white Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

You'll be through with crude methods once you learn the perfect way. Nothing else has the same quick, gentle effect. Doctors prescribe it for sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, gas, nausea, headache. It has been standard with them for over 50 years. Insist on genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. A less perfect product doesn't act the same.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. registered Trade Mark of the Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—[Advertisement.

RHOADS SHOWS FAITH IN AIDE

Scattergood "Associate" to Indian Commissioner

Work Together on Problems Affecting Red Man

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Commissioner Rhoads of Indian Affairs and his assistant, J. Henry Scattergood, after a little more than a month in office, have become known in the Interior Department as "Those Indian Twins."

The title was applied after Mr. Rhoads and Mr. Scattergood placed their desks side by side and anyone wishing to discuss or otherwise deal with the Indian problem found himself talking to two smiling Quakers who did not address anyone as "thee or thous," but inevitably referred to themselves as "we."

WORKING TOGETHER

"Henry and I," Mr. Rhoads explains, "have been working together for years. So when we came here he became my associate, not assistant, and we intend to take advantage of each other's ability what little we have."

Neither he nor his "associate" knows as much about Indian affairs as they would like to, he confesses, but they are "learning very rapidly from a great many sources."

The new Indian head does not believe that the Indian problem can be settled in a day. He holds that it is a long series of individual problems that should be settled as they arise, with the policy ever in mind that the Indian should be made self-supporting and a responsible citizen as soon as possible.

LOT OF WORK AHEAD

"Associate" Commissioner Scattergood, who believes with his chief that the Indian problem deserves "a lot of work and study over a considerable period of time," does most of the questioning when there is a hearing in the commissioner's office. He knows what Mr. Rhoads wants to find out, so he devotes his time to bringing out those points while his "twin" carefully listens or makes notes.

"Charlie and I have been associated together in a good many ways," Mr. Scattergood recalls.

UNIONS IN SPAIN RAP DICTATOR

Convention Also Strikes at Proposed Constitution as Pernicious Document

MADRID, Aug. 13. (AP)—A manifesto to the Spanish people strongly attacking Premier De Rivera was issued by the General Labor Union in session here after the convention had refused to accept the government's invitation to send five representatives to the National Assembly.

The vote was overwhelmingly against accepting the government's invitation. Observers attach much political significance to the labor union's action. The manifesto opposes and severely criticises the proposed new Spanish constitution.

"The Spanish people, thirsting for liberty and justice, will not be deceived by false promises of social reforms in the new constitution," the manifesto declares.

The Spanish working classes are becoming stronger and better organised constantly, says the document, and will not forget "our goal is socialization of the country's resources. We aspire to free democratic Republican government."

The manifesto says the new constitution gives excessive and arbitrary powers to the King.

It says every Spanish constitution has been bad, but this is the worst of all.

"Under the new constitution the government at any time can annul the few liberties it still gives the country," says the manifesto. "There never has been conceived a more complicated and impractical system of greater absolutism than conceived by this new constitution."

British Textile Skies Clearer

MANCHESTER (Eng.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Prospects for negotiations to settle the dispute which has resulted in almost complete stoppage in the Lancashire cotton industry for more than two weeks seemed more hopeful tonight.

Two of the chief employers' associations, representing 1350 mills employing nearly 500,000 workers, met today and decided hereafter not to exclude the principle of arbitration, which has been one of the chief stumbling blocks in the way of those seeking to restore peace in the industry. Both organisations placed further negotiations in the hands of wage commissions, which will hold a joint meeting tomorrow to decide on their policy.

Bay Phone Case End in Sight

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The end of the San Francisco and East Bay telephone case, being heard before the Railroad Commission, is in sight. Following the cross-examination of witnesses heard today in rebuttal, the commission set a date for the surrebuttal and cross-examination and discussed tentative dates for the filing of briefs and oral arguments with the attorneys representing the various parties in the case. The original case was filed in May of 1927.

The case involves the question of increased rates, estimated to yield additional revenue to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company of approximately $7,000,000.

MARINES LEAVE FOREIGN POSTS

More Than Half of Strength Ordered Home

Forces in Nicaragua Cut to 1800 Men

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—For the first time in more than two years, half the enlisted strength of the Marine Corps is in the continental limits of the United States or homeward bound from duty in foreign lands.

Disturbances in China, Nicaragua and other lands have kept more than two-thirds of the enlisted personnel of the 18,000 in distant lands for a long time to fight bandits and otherwise protect American interests.

Of the 1200 recently ordered withdrawn from Nicaragua by President Hoover, 800 are due to arrive aboard the transport Henderson at the marine base, Quantico, Va., September 2. The remaining 400 are to be taken to the Pacific Coast by the Henderson on her return to China with 500 replacements authorized to relieve men there whose enlistments have expired.

A year ago there were more than 6000 marines and bluejackets in Nicaragua. The recent withdrawals will leave 1430 officers and men, an aviation detail of 200, and 200 with the Guardia Nationale.

During the revolution in China, nearly 5000 marines were on duty, but the Fourth Regiment has been reduced to 1300, while the legation guard at Peiping remains at 470.

On the Island of Guam there are 400 marines; in the Philippines, 300; Haiti, 900; Virgin Islands, 100; Cuba, 130; aboard battleships and cruisers, 2000; in Atlantic and Pacific Coast navy yards, ammunition depots and other marine stations, 8150, and small detachments are in American Samoa, in the Canal Zone and at headquarters in Washington.

OLACHEA TO RULE SOUTH PENINSULA

New Governor of Lower California District to Build Up Section, He Says

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive) Appointment of Gen. Augustin Olachea as Governor of the southern district of Baja California, word of which was received here today, means that this huge, practically virgin territory will be developed in a manner similar to the northern half of the peninsula, it is indicated.

Gen. Olachea replaces Gen. Amado Aguirre as Governor of the southern district. Its capital is at La Paz.

The new Governor today issued the following statement:

"In assuming the duties of Governor of the southern part of the California Peninsula I have already been elaborating plans for substantial extension in agricultural activities, purchase of farm and road-building machinery, development of mining and water transportation from Upper California around the cape up to Santa Rosalia.

"I am particularly interested in assisting the tomato growers in the region, who perhaps produce the finest winter tomatoes known within two days of delivery from the most important market they can have."

It was learned unofficially that Gen. Olachea has succeeded in obtaining a large sum for road building. Important construction work will begin in the near future, it was stated.

Bridge Diver Electrocuted

DAMARISCOTTA (Me.) Aug. 13. (AP)—The attempt of Loring Burnname. The national Klan had apthrill a crowd of spectators cost him his life.

After making several dives from the top of an iron bridge here into the river, Burnham, although warned, started to strip off insulation on a high-tension line running the length of the span. He lost his balance and grabbed the almost-bare wire. The force of the current held him until the high voltage, short circuiting through his body, melted one of the strands and he dropped into the river thirty feet below.

New Embalming Board Formed

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Appointment of the State Embalming Board was announced at the Capitol here today. Lawson F. Utter, Los Angeles; Grant Miller, Alameda county, and Lewis H. Turner, Los Angeles, are the new members appointed by Gov. Young. J. R. Keaton, San Rafael, and John T. Skelton, Sacramento, were reappointed. The new appointees will succeed John Brunner, Los Angeles, and Nicolas Meinert, Oakland.

Two Killed on Roller Coaster

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13. (AP)—A 15-year-old girl and a man, 23 years of age, were killed instantly in an amusement park here last night when they were thrown from a car on a roller coaster as it made a turn at the top of an incline, forty feet above ground.

Two employees of the device were arrested for the Coroner.

COGSWELL GIRL BROKE IN RUSSIA

Series of Adventures Ends in Moscow

Tour Provides Many Tilts With Officials

Was Halted in Attempt to Climb Mt. Ararat

MOSCOW (U. S. S. R.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Miss Mary Van Renssaeler Cogswell, New York society girl, has arrived here temporarily penniless and in borrowed clothing after a series of adventures in which she tilted with European officialdom and red tape with true American abandon. With her was Mrs. Mabel Ingalls, also of New York, who had shared most of the adventures.

The climax came when Miss Cogswell was thrown into jail as a spy.

At the start of the recently concluded American tour of the soviet union, Miss Cogswell gained a small niche in the fall of fame by being the first person ever to pass openly the frontiers of the union without a Russian visa. She had started without going through this formality rather than miss the tour and succeeded in wheedling entry out of border officials.

Both women left the delegation at Tiflis, Georgia, and made their way into Armenia with the intention of becoming the first of their sex to climb Mt. Ararat, a 7000-foot peak that few men have succeeded in surmounting. They were saved their strength, however, by the flat refusal of both Turkish and Persian governments to permit them to try it.

They then attempted to make their way through the Ossetian Mountains, in the main Caucasian Range in Southern Russia, on horseback, but were arrested by the political police in Kutais for taking photographs without permission. They were detained two hours until the police established that they were members of the American party.

The only real tragedy on their odyssey came when they were journeying to Moscow on the regular railroad train from Vladikakas. Miss Cogswell's passport, jewels and several hundred dollars in currency were stolen.

'WARM' DAY LURES SHUT-INS

Antarctica Temperature Only 22 Deg. Below, So Byrd Party Explores Crevasse

BY RUSSELL OWEN

[Copyright, 1929, by the Los Angeles Times, the New York Times Company and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. All rights for publication reserved throughout the world.]

LITTLE AMERICA (Antarctica) Aug. 14. (Exclusive)—This seems a comparatively calm day. It was only 20 deg. below zero at breakfast time and no wind. Larry Gould decided to take pictures of ice crystals in the crevasse near the camp. This is the crevasse in which Commander Byrd found sea ice at the bottom when it opened last fall and which aroused our interest because of the disconcerting way in which it changed direction to a point midway between our own buildings. But it has shown no signs of coming any nearer and now is snow covered with a slight depression betraying its presence. Now and then some one sticks a foot through the snow bridge while out walking or exercising the dogs, but it is not wide enough to be dangerous in daylight.

Larry has coveted those crystals, some of them wafer-like disks nearly a foot in diameter, for a long time. Yesterday Arnold Clark rigged up some "dead men" and ropes and went down himself to test them. There were willing helpers and spectators with good advice to offer, the increasing light making anything taking place outdoors an engrossing incident. The sky was overcast and a gentle wind came up from the west, bringing with it more cold. Larry set himself in the rope sling and, checking his descent by a slip knot, let himself down into the hole amid derisive hoots.

FAREWELLS HURLED

"We will tell them you were looking well the last we saw of you," and similar cheering remarks were hurled after his retreating head. Clark watched the ropes, and Norman Vaughan, Jack O'Brien, Eddie Goodale, Fred Crockett and Dana Coman gave a hand when necessary.

"He looks like a blooming spider walking that wall," said O'Brien. Larry wore crampons, steel frames in which long spikes were fastened and by pushing these against the wall and leaning back on his rope he could almost walk along the crystal-studded side of the crevasse. Looking down at him was almost as odd a sight as the view up the side of the crevasse to the opening overhead, of which Larry took a picture when his camera had been sent down to him.

He descended about thirty feet, examining the crystals on the way down. Then he set up his camera, an operation which took some time. It was getting colder up above, although it was only 22 below zero where Gould rested and he was "comfortable."

IRONIC COMMENT

"Hey," yelled O'Brien down the hole, "don't forget the dog teams are leaving about October 15. What are you going to do—hire a flat down there?"

Those above had started jumping about to get warm as their toes and fingertips chilled in the increasing wind and the thermometer dropped to about 30 below zero. Even an imitation of a Maori Haka dance failed to warm the extremities thoroughly, although it added somewhat to the hilarity of the occasion as men tripped over the clumsy footgear.

Larry finally filled his plate box with crystals and called to be hauled up. He came up so fast he cracked his head on an overhanging cornice while protecting his precious crystals.

"It was beautiful down there," he said. "The most delicate blue and iridescent colors shining through the walls of the crevases and from the arch of snow overhead. The snow bridge from beneath had a gossamer-like appearance as if made of tiny tendrils. And look at these crystals."

They were of all shapes and formation and of extraordinary size, formed probably by the vapor which pours up from the warmer air below. He photographed them with a scale beside them to show their unusual size and in the photographs the delicacy of their formations is strikingly emphasized. But before that had happened everyone had gathered up loose gear and run for the house to get warm.

PRESS GIVEN PRAISE BY AD SESSION

Berlin Newspapers Print Account of Banquet as "Gastronomic Record"

BERLIN, Aug. 13. (AP)—The congress of the International Advertising Association today split up for discussions of subjects running the gamut of advertising mediums with much attention paid to the social effects throughout the world.

The American press and its representatives received eloquent tributes from their colleagues of more than a score of nations at the luncheon for the newspaper advertising group.

German publishers and editors also praised the American journals.

George M. Burbach of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch said that "The old theory that a newspaper's obligations ceased when the advertising was printed no longer prevails among the larger newspapers in the United States, who now assist the advertiser in every legitimate way to make the dollar invested bring the maximum return in sales."

German newspapers today feature the news of last night's banquet to the delegates of the International Advertising Association here as a "gastronomic record," with "4000 bottles of wine" consumed, 50 per cent of it by guests from the United States.

The 2500 guests were served by more than 400 waiters.

To furnish the veal, one of the items on the menu, 250 calves were killed. For relishes 35,000 crabs and other delicacies were supplied.

El Rey de Suecia Elogia al Doctor Eckener

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN (Alemania) Agosto 13.—Prácticamente han concluido los preparativos del Graf Zeppelin para emprender el jueves temprano su vuelo a Tokio, segunda etapa de su viaje aéreo alrededor del mundo. El doctor Eckener tuvo tiempo por lo tanto, de gozar de una reunión social, en la que hubo de codearse con la realeza.

En un hermoso castillo veraniego de Kässerberg, el comandante del zeppelin fue huésped del Rey Gustavo de Suecia, quien lo invitó a almorzar. Entre los once convidados allí presentes estaban Claudius Dornier, constructor del superavión "Do-X"; Ulrich Raucher, ministro alemán en Polonia; Heinrich Sahm, presidente del Estado Libre de Dantzig; Ludwig Duerr, constructor de zeppelines, y varios funcionarios suecos que forman comitiva al monarca de su país, que se halla veraneando en la isla de Mainau, en el Lago de Constanza.

El Rey Gustavo tuvo a bien expresar al doctor Eckener, y también a Dornier y a Duerr, la gran admiración que siente por sus labores en el campo de la aviación.

El Avión Ruso se Vió Obligado a Aterrizar

MOSCU, Agosto 13.—La agencia de noticias Tass ha comunicado esta noche que el avión militar soviético "Land", que había intentado el vuelo de Moscú a Nueva York, se vió forzado a tomar tierra en una comarca deshabitada, a 170 millas de Irkutsk (Siberia). El aeroplano había salido de Krasnoyarsk la tarde del domingo.

El Perú de Nuevo en la Sociedad de Naciones

LIMA (Perú), Agosto 13.—El Perú ha puesto fin a su larga abstinencia de participación en los negocios de la Sociedad de Naciones. Ayer tomó la determinación de reanudar su cooperación en todos los trabajos de dicho cuerpo.

El Perú se había separado oficialmente de la Sociedad en 1921, después de protestar contra la elección de Augustin Edwards, de Chile, para miembro del Consejo, en el que el Perú quedó sin representación.

De entonces acá, se ha resuelto satisfactoriamente la disputa entre los dos países por la cuestión de Tacna y Arica, y el Perú ha decidido reanudar sus pagos a la secretaría de la Sociedad. A tal efecto, le envió en Enero próximo pasado un cheque por $80,000, en pago de sus cuotas por 1928, y de un diez por ciento sobre cuotas atrasadas a partir de 1920.

NUEVA YORK, Agosto 13.—La Compañía Norteamericana de Teléfonos y Telégrafos ha anunciado hoy que cualquiera que posea una toronja con larvas de la mosca mediterránea, y quiera oirlas comer, puede hacerlo con la ayuda de un estetoscopio de modelo a propósito ideado or los laboratorios de los Teléfonos Bell.

Las larvas de la mosca frutera del Mediterráneo tienen colmillos semejantes a los de una morsa, si bien algo más equeños, y el frotamiento de dichos colmillos es lo que revela al oyente del estetoscopio que las larvas se han sentado a comer.

Han sido vanos, sin embargo, los esfuerzos para inventar un micrófono que registre perceptiblemente el ruido que hagan las larvas al caminar por lo interior del fruto dañado. Pero, como se deja dicho, ya puede escucharse su masticación.

Dos Niñas Aventureras Mandadas a su Casa

Las dos chiquillas que habían desaparecido, causando alarma entre su gente, y dando origen a serias pesquisas, han sido vueltas a sus hogares por la policía, ya satisfechos en parte sus anhelos de aventura.

Como no se presentara a la hora de cenar, sus parientes dieron parte a la policía, y ésta hizo vigilar todos los automóviles que pasaban por aquel barrio de Hollywood. María, sin embargo, no se había ausentado de su casa, sino para darse el gusto de dormir bajo un árbol del Perú, que crece a una cuadra de la casa de los Bradleys. Poco después del alba, el policía Scott la identificó: andaba vendiendo periódicos a los automovilistas en los bulevares de Cahuenga y Lankershim.

Thelma McCandless, también de 11 años, habitante en el 1100 de la calle de Marisal, fue conducida ayer a su casa por el teniente detective Hanson, del departamento juvenil. El 9 del actual avisó su padre que andaba perdida. Una automovilista recogió por la calle a la niña, y dijo a Hanson que Thelma le había contado que se había huído de su casa, del este del pas. Hanson no tardó en identificar a la precoz fugitiva, y la devolvió a su padre.

Girard, que tiene a su cargo la sucursal de Long Beach, que está facultado para aceptar, a partir del miércoles, las solicitudes de licencias matrimoniales, y que dichas licencias quedarán requisitadas cinco días después de la solicitud. Esta será enviada a Los Angeles, y de aquí se devolverá, ya legalizada, a Long Beach.

State University Directors Meet in Bay City

Faculty Vacancies Filled by Nine Appointments

Donations of $100,000 for Research Accepted

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The resignations of five members of the University of California faculty, the appointment of nine new faculty members and the acceptance of gifts valued at more than $100,000 were considered today at the first fall meeting of the board of regents of the university, held in Gov. Young's office here. All the gifts were accepted and the faculty changes given the regents' approval.

R. D. Sproul, president-elect of the university, was granted a six months' leave of absence beginning September 15, for the purpose of visiting and studying other institutions. He also was relieved of his duties as vice-president, comptroller and secretary of the regents.

The most important resignation accepted was that of Dr. E. D. Merrill, dean of the college of agriculture, who is leaving the university to take the position of director of the New York Botanical Garden, offered him several weeks ago. His resignation is effective December 31.

Other faculty resignations accepted were:

C. F. Dunshee, crop irrigationist at Davis; N. V. Russell, assistant professor of history, U.C.L.A.; J. F. Kessel, associate professor of zoology, U.C.L.A., and W. P. Duruse, assistant pomologist, Davis branch.

Leading the list of gifts in importance as well as size was the donation of $50,000 from the Rockefeller Foundation to further the researches of Dr. Herbert M. Evans, discoverer of two vitamins, who now is studying hormones and their relationship to human propagation and growth.

Youth and Girl Captured After Hold-up of Bank

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—A chase at breakneck speed through Oakland streets today resulted in the capture of a young man and a girl accused of participating, a few minutes before their capture, in the hold-up of the Elmhurst (Cal.) branch of the Bank of Italy. The chase ended with the collision of the suspected bandit's automobile with another car.

The arresting officers were in ignorance of the hold-up, but were pursuing the car because it was speeding, and because the driver had been seen brandishing a revolver.

The suspected bandit gave his name as Al Reed and said he is a soldier at the Presidio of San Francisco.

The girl gave her name as Lorraine Gordon, 19 years of age, and her address at Oakland. The girl had been released a few days ago from the Santa Clara County hospital, where she was treated for a broken vertebrae. In the collision she suffered a refracture.

RUSSIAN INVASION TOLD BY CHINESE

TOKIO, Aug. 13. (AP)—A Rengo News Agency dispatch from Manchuli, Manchuria, today said thirty Russian cavalrymen crossed the River Argun on the 11th inst. and plundered a village called Jarainor. Five inhabitants are said to have been drowned.

The Rengo dispatch added that sixty Russian employees of the Chinese Eastern Railway colliery at Jarainor were arrested Monday for having flooded the mines.

A dispatch from Manchuli to the Rengo also says that owing to the aggravation of the Sino-Russian situation the soviet Foreign Legion, said to be composed of 1200 Chinese, Buriat tribesmen and Magyars, has been ordered to proceed from Verkhne-Udinsk to Kerulur, a point further along toward Manchuria.

A Harbin message to Rengo states Chinese troops are being reinforced on the Chinese side of the frontier near Pogranichnaya, where it is believed they will spend the winter.

BOY SCOUTS BREAK CAMP IN ENGLAND

Fifty Thousand Youths Off for Homes All Over World as Meet Ends

ARROWE PARK (Eng.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Tens of thousands of boys trekked out of Arrowe Park today as camp was broken and the great world jamboree of Boy Scouts came to an end. Fifty thousand youths left for their homes in nearly fifty different countries.

The night was passed largely in leave-taking as contingents of boys toured the camp and bade their comrades farewell. At dawn they began passing through the park on their homeward journey.

"From now on the Scout symbol of peace is a golden arrow.

"From the Northlands, Southlands, Eastlands and Westlands you came at the call of my horn to this great gathering. Today I send you back to your homelands across the seas as my ambassadors of peace among the nations of the world."

Despite the rain and mud the jamboree was a success far beyond expectations. The total number of visitors was 314,422. The next jamboree will be held in 1933. The place will be determined at a conference to be held at Salzburg, Austria.

FAST SEA SLED TO DARE DEEPS

Designer Plans Crossing of Atlantic Ocean

Speed of 75 Miles an Hour Will be His Aim

Thirty Passengers Listed as Craft's Capacity

QUINCY (Mass.) Aug. 13. (AP)—A sea sled designed to cross the Atlantic Ocean at seventy-five miles an hour carrying thirty persons and their baggage is being built here by Paul Dudley, 19 years of age, of Fitchburg, assisted by E. E. Groswold of Quincy, naval architect.

The craft will be forty and one-half feet long, with a beam of nine feet. Above the sled is a single wing with a forty-two-foot spread, designed to give lift enough to keep the boat skimming along the top of the water. Three Gnome airplane motors totaling 365 horsepower will furnish the power, applied through standard airplane propellers. In the center of the boat is the pilot's cabin. The designer believes that when under full power the boat's keel will draw not more than three or four inches of water.

In addition to the airplane motors an outboard motor will be used to propel the craft in and out of the wharf and to act as emergency power unit.

The boat will cost $15,000, Dudley says, and will be completed in six weeks. He plans to drive it down the coast to Florida and give it a thorough testing before attempting a cross-Atlantic run.

ENGLAND ASKS CHEAPER AND EASIER DIVORCES

LONDON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Cheaper and wider facilities for obtaining a divorce in England were recommended today in the report of a government investigating committee.

Before 1922 divorces were granted only by the high-court division sitting in London, a procedure condemned by jurists for many years because in practice it limited divorce to persons rich enough to pay heavy legal costs and bring witnesses to London.

This difficulty was partly met in 1922 by allowing divorce proceedings of certain categories to be held in nineteen out of sixty towns having courts of assizes.

The government committee investigating divorce procedure today recommended that eight other assize towns be added to the nineteen already authorized.

The committee admitted that in principle there is no reason why divorce cases should not be held in every assize town, but feared that in practice there would be danger because of the inexperience of assize registrars, who undertake the preliminary work, in divorce law and practice.

FOREST FIRES KILL AND RUIN

Washington Fighter Perishes as Plane Sets Blaze

Condition of Northwest Area Grows Disastrous

Flames Race Into Canyons Near Santa Barbara

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Aug. 13. (AP)—One man was killed and another seriously injured early today fighting a fire that has been burning about a week in slashings south of Lake Samish, near here.

The body was taken to Sedro Woolley and the injured man was rushed to a hospital at Mount Vernon.

The dead man was reported to be C. S. Hutten, 35 years of age, of Sedro Woolley, a watchman. Frank Arnold, also of Sedro Woolley, received injuries to his right leg. A burning snag which they were guarding is said to have fallen on them.

The fire is reported to have been started by a backfire from an airplane flying low over the slashed area.

WIND SPREADS FIRE AND BALKS FI[illegible]TERS

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—Fanned by a north wind and swept out of Salisbury Potreros into the canyons of the headwaters of the Sisquoc River, the fire which started in the Santa Barbara National Forest Saturday afternoon thirty-one miles north of here had burned over more than 12,000 acres up to today according to reports received by Assistant Forest Supervisor Robinson.

Forestry officials do not expect to get a line around the fire before tomorrow because of its irregularity. It has penetrated into the numerous canyons in the upper Sisquoc Valley.

Burning on a six-mile front, the fire was thwarting all efforts of some 135 fire fighters to control it.

Seventy-five men were conscripted in Santa Maria last night to fight the fire. Additional men were requested from Bakersfield, but a fire in the Sierras east of that city has taken all available men, it is said.

According to Assistant Supervisor Robinson, the fire was started by careless hunters. Whether it was an unextinguished camp fire or cigarette has not been determined, he said.

More than 15,000 acres were burned over by the Rinconada fire in San Luis Obispo county, according to reports received here. The fire burned over 4000 acres inside of the Santa Barbara National Forest.

The fire was completely under control yesterday.

FIGHTERS CONQUER KERN COUNTY BLAZES

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—Two brush and timber fires which were raging in Kern county mountain districts were under control today after they had raced over hundreds of acres of grazing land. Three hundred and fifty men were kept on the front at the fire, which has been raging along both sides of Kern River near the mouth of Salmon, two miles south of Fairview, to prevent a fresh outbreak.

Fire Warden Farley reported that the blaze which burned over more than 100 acres in Kern and Tulare counties near Glennville is "all out due to the splendid co-operation of ranchers and others who fought side by side to subdue the flames."

PERFECT CONDITIONS CAUSE TERRIFIC FIRES

SPOKANE, Aug. 13. (AP)—Perfect forest fire conditions caused by high winds and low humidity today had urged old and slumbering fires into roaring activity and had started hundreds of new blazes throughout the Northwest.

In Canada, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana major conflagrations were eating rapidly through thousands of acres of merchantable timber, causing losses which may run into millions of dollars, and forest officials are unable to predict when the thousands of men fighting the blazes can get them under control.

Eight hundred men, including 300 Doukhobors rushed from Grand Forks, B. C., were working desperately to quell the Dollar Mountain blaze in North Central Washington. This conflagration, a crown fire roaring through an immensely valuable stand of yellow pine timber, had levelled nearly 12,000 acres. Aided by a stiff wind Sunday the fire ravaged 6000 acres in two hours and forced two contingents of fighters to abandon their camps and flee for safety.

Other fires in that region, some of which had been reported to be under control, flamed with renewed vigor today. The obstinate Chelan forest fire today had covered 1000 acres more, bringing the total to 12,000.

STORM STARTS BLAZE AND MAY QUENCH IT

SAN JACINTO, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—A severe electrical and thunder storm in the rugged and almost inaccessible North Fork watershed of the San Jacinto Mountains this afternoon started a forest fire and at the same time provided the ultimate means of checking it.

Started by lightning about 2 p.m., the blaze tonight was burning toward Indian Canyon, two miles away, which was drenched by rain this afternoon. By morning the blaze is expected to reach this soaked area and die.

Forty prisoners from a county road camp were taken into the mountains to assist in controlling the flames as much as is possible in the wild territory, which is penetrated only by ranger trails.

The fire was discovered by Miss Rita Morris, 20-year-old forestry service lookout on top of Black Mountain, and reported to District Ranger Cranston here. The fire fighters are in charge of Carl Record, lookout on Tahquitz Mountain.

It Took $158,200,000 Worth of Candy to Fill It in Last Six Months

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—More than $158,200,000 worth of candy, or approximately 95 per cent of the sales made during the first six months of this year, was disposed of by 466 manufacturers in the United States, according to a study made by R. L. Purdon, foodstuffs division, in connection with the Commerce Department's national survey of candy distribution.

This figure represents an increase of 3.32 per cent as compared with the corresponding period of 1928, when $153,188,070 worth was sold.

TWO HELD IN BOULDER FRAUD CASE

Indiana Doctor Said to Have Paid $176,000 for Desert Lands

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP) — Two men were held in $20,000 bonds today on charges of defrauding a Fort Wayne (Ind.) physician of approximately $176,000 in a California land scheme, in which the Boulder Dam development played a leading part.

The promoters, W. L. Irwin and L. C. Connor, were asserted by Dr. M. F. Schick to have induced him to invest in desert land by prophesying in glowing terms the benefits to be derived from the land in a few years from irrigation afforded by Boulder Dam. Dr. Schick later discovered, he said, that the land was too high to receive any benefit from the dam and that the sale was consummated through misrepresentations.

Dr. Schick said he bought 20,000 acres 200 miles from Los Angeles for $1 an acre, later finding that Irwin and Connor had purchased it from the Southern Pacific Railroad for 50 cents an acre. Later, the complainant said, he bought 28,000 acres in three parcels, paying $1.50 an acre for two tracts and $17.75 for the third. This land, in the Coachella Valley, was bought by Irwin and Connor, Dr. Schick alleged, for 50 cents and 75 cents, respectively.

In another purchase, Dr. Schick said, he bought a "townsite" for $50 an acre and $10,000 for "improvements." The town at present consists of a railroad shack and is known as "Durmid." Irwin and Connor were reported to have paid $15 an acre for this tract and nothing for "improvements," the doctor charged.

Irwin and Connor were arraigned yesterday before a United States commissioner for making misrepresentations by mail and ordered held in bonds.

ANCIENT RACE'S TRACES FOUND

Kentucky Excavations Show Vanished Tribes

White Civilization Prior to Indians Told

LEXINGTON (Ky.) Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—A site which apparently has been occupied at various times by two prehistoric races, one very ancient, which cremated its dead, and one more recent, which buried the departed ones in stone graves, has been discovered by Dr. W. D. Funkhouser of the University of Kentucky in Logan county, two and one-half miles from Lewisburg Settlement, a most isolated spot, it was learned today.

The finding of a communal crematory pit full of charred human bones, a sacrifical mound with altar and the remains of human sacrifices, the opening of five burial mounds and the locating of many skeletons has constituted Dr. Funkhouser's work in the Western Kentucky mound region. While reports reaching Lexington were meager, it is believed the discoveries made in Logan county will add more to the knowledge of ancient life in Kentucky than any explorations heretofore made.

HARD TO EXCAVATE

The burial field where Dr. Funkhouser is working covers three acres and is thickly covered with brush and second-growth timber. It is difficult to work because of roots of trees. There are sixty-seven mounds on the site, some of them very large, and important developments are expected before the return of Dr. Funkhouser to the university late in September.

In describing the find, Dr. Funkhouser says: "The place is a paradise for snakes, including some of the finest copperheads I have ever seen. There are also plenty of mosquitoes, armies of ants and battalions of chiggers—in fact, everything that an entomologist could desire."

Funkhouser will bring a number of the largest snakes to the university for experimental purposes.

Prof. W. S. Webb, who with Dr. Funkhouser has delved into the life of ancient man in Kentucky, went to Logan county to plot the ground. Immediately at the close of the present summer school term Prof. Webb will join Dr. Funkhouser in carrying out further research work.

UNIQUE FINDS MADE

The Logan county discoveries are the most recent by Funkhouser and other University of Kentucky scientists. Kentucky explorations within the last year have yielded hundreds of relics of various prehistoric races, including the earliest Indians. Discoveries have been made in every part of the State. Some of the relics are bronze and stone specimens and a sort of knitted stuff said not to have been found before in America.

Dr. W. G. Burroughs of Berea College has explored two huge prehistoric forts in Madison county. He, too, found valuable remains. These forts are believed to be those of a strange white race asserted to have antedated the Indians, and the forts are believed marks of the latter's stand against the advancing red man. Burroughs, Funkhouser, Webb and others will continue explorations until cold weather.

Baldridge Issues Western States Conference Call

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 13. (AP)—United States Senators and Representatives from all Western States were invited today by Gov. Baldridge to attend the conference of Western States Governors in Salt Lake City the 26th and 27th inst.

The invitation was extended with a view to starting action in Congress against any move leading toward cessation of Federal support for reclamation and irrigation projects.

Gov. Balbridge, as joint chairman of the conference with Gov. Frank C. Emerson of Wyoming, pointed out that Secretary Wilbur of the Interior has suggested that the surface rights to the remaining public domain in the Western States be ceded to the States.

He declared that "it is also becoming evident that an attempt may soon be made to change or altogether upset the present Fedral reclamation policies. These and other matters affecting the future of th Western States require immediate consideration."

Chicago Gunman Held for Train Robbery Inquiry

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP)—William (Baby Face) Doody, veteran of half a dozen recent gun fights and wanted in connection with two killings and several mail robberies, was arrested today.

He was caught in a third-floor apartment on the West Side without a struggle, although he was armed.

Among the things police wish to question Doody about is the hold-up last Friday of as Illinois Central train, when a guard was shot and killed and $4000 taken.

Doody was found in the company of a divorcee, known as Mrs. Taylor, and her 6-year-old daughter.

Donald H. Holt, a clerk in the City Water Department, also was arrested today in connection with the Illinois Central robbery. The Sunday following the robbery he reported to police the license plates of his automobile had been stolen. Police said they believed they were the plates on the automobile used by the bandits in their escape.

ON MARCH 26, 1918, AT THE REQUEST OF MARSHAL HAIG, THE ALLIED LEADERS HELD A SPECIAL CONFERENCE IN THE HOTEL DE VILLE (CITY HALL) OF DOULLENS TO DECIDE WHAT IMMEDIATE MEASURES COULD BE TAKEN TO REMEDY THE GREAT DEFEAT OF THE BRITISH ARMY ON THE SOMME.

IT WAS PLAIN THAT MANY OF THE ALLIED REVERSES HAD BEEN LARGELY DUE TO THE FACT THAT THE ALLIED ARMIES HAD BEEN OPERATING AS SEPARATE UNITS WITH DIFFERENT AIMS. THE DECISION OF THE COUNCIL WAS TO APPOINT A SUPREME COMMANDER TO CO-ORDINATE THE ACTION OF THE ALLIED FORCES.

FOR THE SUPREME COMMAND THE ALLIED CHIEFS CHOSE GENERAL FERDINAND FOCH, WHO HAD LONG ADVOCATED UNITY OF COMMAND AND THE CREATION OF A GREAT CENTRAL RESERVE FORCE THAT COULD BE SENT ON SHORT NOTICE TO REINFORCE ANY PART OF THE FRONT ATTACKED BY THE GERMANS.

TWO HELD IN BOULDER FRAUD CASE

Indiana Doctor Said to Have Paid $176,000 for Desert Lands

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP) — Two men were held in $20,000 bonds today on charges of defrauding a Fort Wayne (Ind.) physician of approximately $176,000 in a California land scheme, in which the Boulder Dam development played a leading part.

Dr. Schick said he bought 20,000 acres 200 miles from Los Angeles for $1 an acre, later finding that Irwin and Connor had purchased it from the Southern Pacific Railroad for 50 cents an acre. Later, the complainant said, he bought 28,000 acres in three parcels, paying $1.50 an acre for two tracts and $17.75 for the third. This land, in the Coachella Valley, was bought by Irwin and Connor, Dr. Schick alleged, for 50 cents and 75 cents, respectively.

In another purchase, Dr. Schick said, he bought a "townsite" for $50 an acre and $10,000 for "improvements." The town at present consists of a railroad shack and is known as "Durmid." Irwin and Connor were reported to have paid $15 an acre for this tract and nothing for "improvements," the doctor charged.

Irwin and Connor were arraigned yesterday before a United States commissioner for making misrepresentations by mail and ordered held in bonds.

ANCIENT RACE'S TRACES FOUND

Kentucky Excavations Show Vanished Tribes

White Civilization Prior to Indians Told

LEXINGTON (Ky.) Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—A site which apparently has been occupied at various times by two prehistoric races, one very ancient, which cremated its dead, and one more recent, which buried the departed ones in stone graves, has been discovered by Dr. W. D. Funkhouser of the University of Kentucky in Logan county, two and one-half miles from Lewisburg Settlement, a most isolated spot, it was learned today.

The finding of a communal crematory pit full of charred human bones, a sacrifical mound with altar and the remains of human sacrifices, the opening of five burial mounds and the locating of many skeletons has constituted Dr. Funkhouser's work in the Western Kentucky mound region. While reports reaching Lexington were meager, it is believed the discoveries made in Logan county will add more to the knowledge of ancient life in Kentucky than any explorations heretofore made.

HARD TO EXCAVATE

The burial field where Dr. Funkhouser is working covers three acres and is thickly covered with brush and second-growth timber. It is difficult to work because of roots of trees. There are sixty-seven mounds on the site, some of them very large, and important developments are expected before the return of Dr. Funkhouser to the university late in September.

In describing the find, Dr. Funkhouser says: "The place is a paradise for snakes, including some of the finest copperheads I have ever seen. There are also plenty of mosquitoes, armies of ants and battalions of chiggers—in fact, everything that an entomologist could desire."

Funkhouser will bring a number of the largest snakes to the university for experimental purposes.

Prof. W. S. Webb, who with Dr. Funkhouser has delved into the life of ancient man in Kentucky, went to Logan county to plot the ground. Immediately at the close of the present summer school term Prof. Webb will join Dr. Funkhouser in carrying out further research work.

UNIQUE FINDS MADE

The Logan county discoveries are the most recent by Funkhouser and other University of Kentucky scientists. Kentucky explorations within the last year have yielded hundreds of relics of various prehistoric races, including the earliest Indians. Discoveries have been made in every part of the State. Some of the relics are bronze and stone specimens and a sort of knitted stuff said not to have been found before in America.

Dr. W. G. Burroughs of Berea College has explored two huge prehistoric forts in Madison county. He, too, found valuable remains. These forts are believed to be those of a strange white race asserted to have antedated the Indians, and the forts are believed marks of the latter's stand against the advancing red man. Burroughs, Funkhouser, Webb and others will continue explorations until cold weather.

Baldridge Issues Western States Conference Call

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 13. (AP)—United States Senators and Representatives from all Western States were invited today by Gov. Baldridge to attend the conference of Western States Governors in Salt Lake City the 26th and 27th inst.

The invitation was extended with a view to starting action in Congress against any move leading toward cessation of Federal support for reclamation and irrigation projects.

Gov. Balbridge, as joint chairman of the conference with Gov. Frank C. Emerson of Wyoming, pointed out that Secretary Wilbur of the Interior has suggested that the surface rights to the remaining public domain in the Western States be ceded to the States.

He declared that "it is also becoming evident that an attempt may soon be made to change or altogether upset the present Fedral reclamation policies. These and other matters affecting the future of th Western States require immediate consideration."

Chicago Gunman Held for Train Robbery Inquiry

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP)—William (Baby Face) Doody, veteran of half a dozen recent gun fights and wanted in connection with two killings and several mail robberies, was arrested today.

He was caught in a third-floor apartment on the West Side without a struggle, although he was armed.

Among the things police wish to question Doody about is the hold-up last Friday of as Illinois Central train, when a guard was shot and killed and $4000 taken.

Doody was found in the company of a divorcee, known as Mrs. Taylor, and her 6-year-old daughter.

Donald H. Holt, a clerk in the City Water Department, also was arrested today in connection with the Illinois Central robbery. The Sunday following the robbery he reported to police the license plates of his automobile had been stolen. Police said they believed they were the plates on the automobile used by the bandits in their escape.

Sheriff Murder Contract Aired

GREENVILLE (S. C.) Aug. 13. (AP) Blair Roock, negro, today was held in jail on a charge of having shot and killed Sheriff Willis, two years ago, for which he said he was promised $500 by two local white men, but only received $50.

ON MARCH 26, 1918, AT THE REQUEST OF MARSHAL HAIG, THE ALLIED LEADERS HELD A SPECIAL CONFERENCE IN THE HOTEL DE VILLE (CITY HALL) OF DOULLENS TO DECIDE WHAT IMMEDIATE MEASURES COULD BE TAKEN TO REMEDY THE GREAT DEFEAT OF THE BRITISH ARMY ON THE SOMME.

IT WAS PLAIN THAT MANY OF THE ALLIED REVERSES HAD BEEN LARGELY DUE TO THE FACT THAT THE ALLIED ARMIES HAD BEEN OPERATING AS SEPARATE UNITS WITH DIFFERENT AIMS. THE DECISION OF THE COUNCIL WAS TO APPOINT A SUPREME COMMANDER TO CO-ORDINATE THE ACTION OF THE ALLIED FORCES.

FOR THE SUPREME COMMAND THE ALLIED CHIEFS CHOSE GENERAL FERDINAND FOCH, WHO HAD LONG ADVOCATED UNITY OF COMMAND AND THE CREATION OF A GREAT CENTRAL RESERVE FORCE THAT COULD BE SENT ON SHORT NOTICE TO REINFORCE ANY PART OF THE FRONT ATTACKED BY THE GERMANS.

M. CLEMENCEAU HURRIED FROM THE MEETING TO NOTIFY GENERAL FOCH OF HIS APPOINTMENT. FOCH WAS ANGRY BECAUSE THE COUNCIL HAD WAITED UNTIL THE HOUR OF DISASTER TO ASK HIM TO TEST HIS THEORIES, BUT ACCEPTED THE DIFFICULT POST.

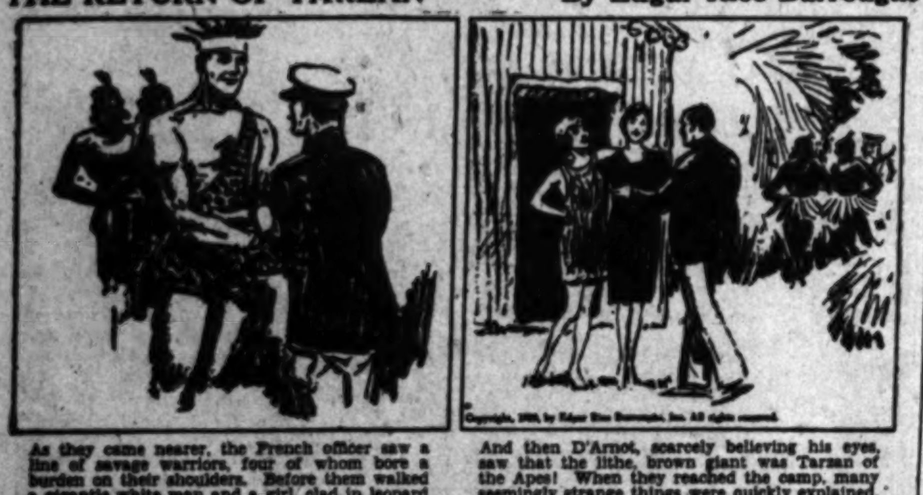
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

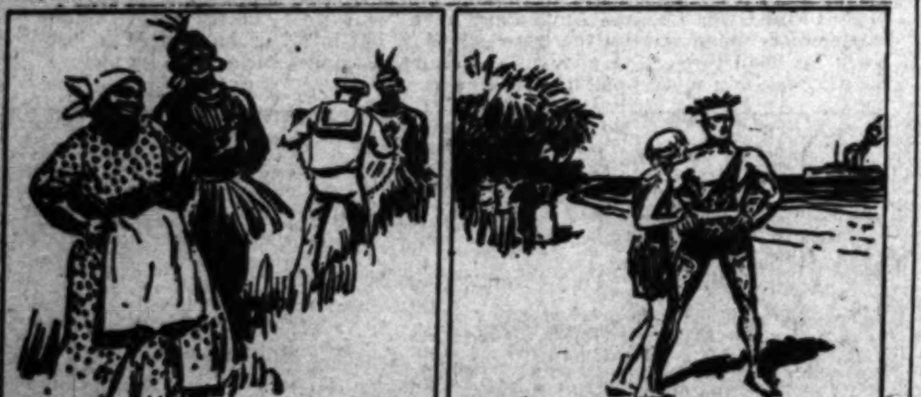
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Copyright, 1929, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

As they came nearer, the French officer saw a line of savage warriors, four of whom bore a burden on their shoulders. Before them walked a gigantic white man and a girl, clad in leopard skins. Now they suddenly stopped, and with amazement D'Arnot heard his own name called, as with outstretched hands, their leader ran toward him.

And then D'Arnot, scarcely believing his eyes, saw that the lithe, brown giant was Tarzan of the Apes! When they reached the camp, many seemingly strange things were quickly explained. Tears of joy streaming down his face, Jane's father enfolded his daughter in his arms. Black Esmeralda could hardly contain herself at the safe return of her "po li'le honey."



All agreed that nobody but Tarzan could have accomplished this miraculous escape. They loaded the uncomfortable ape-man with praise and attentions until he almost wished himself back with his ape tribe. Great interest was shown in his savage Waziri, and many were the gifts the black men received from these friends of their King.

As yet the newcomers had seen nothing of Lord Tennington and "Thuran." "How surprised 'Thuran,' or Rokoff, will be to see you," said Jane. "His surprise will be short-lived," said Tarzan grimly. Realizing his intention, she begged him not to wreak his vengeance upon the Russian, but to turn him over to the captain of the French warship.

POKER GAME MAY FIGURE IN MURDER

Grudge Due to Card Loss Believed Responsible for Jose Valencia Killing

VENTURA, Aug. 13.—The theory that a grudge due to a $125 loss in a poker game of a week previous may have been responsible for the murder of Jose Valencia, who was found dead in a Santa Paula gravel pit Saturday morning, has been advanced from various sources.

Three men, Isabel Cervantes, Ynaccio Fernandez and Jacinto Jimenez, are being held in the County Jail for investigation in connection with the case.

Two possible versions of the murder are still being considered. Blood spots leading in a northerly direction about thirty feet from the body of Valencia indicated that either he was stabbed and taken to the gravel pit, or that another person was injured in the fray that ended in Valencia's death.

MOTORIST IN JAIL AFTER COLLISION

Police Investigate Motor Crash in Which Two Persons Are Injured

ONTARIO, Aug. 13.—Two persons sent to San Antonio Community Hospital and one to jail today caused police to investigate an automobile crash at a sharp "S" turn east of here on Valley Boulevard last night.

Lily Gonzales, 10 years of age, of Los Angeles, suffered a fracture of the collar bone, deep cuts and abrasions, and Sisto Modrid, 34, Los Angeles, was badly cut and bruised, when the automobile in which they were riding with Dave Martin, 31, Los Angeles, and others, failed to make the curve and plowed into a walnut tree.

Martin was ordered held for police investigation after a doctor had pronounced him intoxicated.

New Fireproof Tourist Hotel on Pomona Site

POMONA, Aug. 13.—An eighty-room fireproof tourist hotel seemed a certainty today when S. J. Walling, veteran hotel man of Phoenix, Ariz., and formerly operator of the Avis Hotel in this city, announced that he had taken options on a building site adjoining the Edgar Hotel on South Garey avenue. Plans call for a six-story structure constructed of reinforced concrete and steel, the front being finished in white glazed brick. The lobby will be a duplicate of the Savoy Hotel in Los Angeles.

The building site is 80x165 feet and is owned by Walter M. Avis, local capitalist. According to Walling, the hotel will represent an investment of more than $200,000.

Capital for the enterprise is being furnished by the Royal Hotel Company of Phoenix, of which Walling is vice-president. Architects' plans have already been prepared and construction is expected to start about October 1, next.

Insurance Man Reported Lost

SANTA PAULA, Aug. 13.—Arthur Duncan, 27 years of age, insurance agent for Ventura county, disappeared from his home here last Wednesday, it was reported to the Sheriff's office today. When he left he is thought to have had approximately $50,000 in insurance policies in his coat pocket and for that reason it is feared he met with foul play.

According to his wife, there were no reasons why he should leave his home and she suggests that he had a mental lapse such as he had four years ago. He was last seen at a dance in Ventura, about 11 p.m. Wednesday.

WIFE BEATER SENTENCED

VENTURA, Aug. 13.—For having struck his wife, R. E. Carroll was charged with simple assault and pleaded guilty when he appeared before Police Judge Gabbert of Ojai, acting justice of the peace here. Carroll, who lives in the Avenue district, was given a sentence of $100 or 100 days, all of which was suspended on good behavior.

LAND PLANE IN AQUATIC FEAT

Flyer Makes Three-Point Landing on Sea

Intrepid Officer Stays Up Until Signals Seen

"Rescued Without Even Feet Getting Wet," Report

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 13.—Hundreds followed the aerial maneuvers of a crippled navy sky fighter today as the plane, piloted by Lieut. Henry T. Stanley, North Island Naval Air Station flyer, circled above San Diego Bay, seeking a safe landing place. The craft, a fighting land plane, had damaged a wheel in taking off from the island flying field and was compelled to alight on the surface of the bay.

Those who watched the crippled land plane as it successfully completed a "sea landing" praised Stanley. The flyer, who realized his predicament after taking to the air, sought to gain the attention of those on North Island. A series of zooms brought attention that something was wrong with the fighting plane. Harbor craft were ordered out and the naval wrecking barge, Mary Anne, was put on location near the naval air station dock.

Stanley did not land on the bay at once, however, after the "wrecking crew" was ready for him. He continued to circle the bay, dropped low a couple of times and skimmed the surface near the barge. Then, apparently satisfied that everything had been done to insure his rescue, the intrepid flyer shot his craft down to a watery landing alongside the barge. He jumped his plane and Capt. Frank R. McCrary, who commands the naval air station, reported that the flyer was "rescued without even getting his feet wet." The plane at once was taken in tow and successfully beached by harbor craft.

Lost Nimrod on Trail Saved by Hunting Party

INGLEWOOD, Aug. 13.—Fred R. Pardee, local sportsman, returned last night not only with the first buck taken out of the west end of the Frazier Mountain district this year, according to reports, but he also brought back a story of rescuing a lone and lost hunter from a neighboring city. The deer is a two-point buck with the horns still in the velvet.

L. A. Farnham, El Segundo restaurant man, according to Pardee, was found wandering in a canyon, as the local nimrod, accompanied by Police Chief Bert Bennett of this city, and the latter's brother, Tom Bennett, also of Inglewood, was returning from the successful hunt.

Farnham, who said he was on his first hunting trip, had lost his way, his canteen was empty, and he had completely lost his bearings. The more experienced woodsmen finally located his car for him, five miles from where he had strayed.

Cities' Gain in Valuation Seen

HUNTINGTON PARK, Aug. 13.—Huntington Park, in the past year, has shown a gain of almost $2,000,000 in the valuation of assessable property, City Clerk William H. Mahood was advised in a report from County Auditor H. A. Payne yesterday, announcing that the total valuation this year is $18,953,135, as against $16,981,420 last year.

SOUTH GATE, Aug. 13.—The city of South Gate shows an increase of almost $3,000,000 in assessable property during the present year, as compared with the figures of last year, according to a report received from the County Auditor by City Clerk Herbert C. Pieffer. The valuation this year has been placed at $14,504,840, as compared with $11,586,280 last year.

BELL, Aug. 13. — An increase of almost $100,000 is seen in the valuation of assessable property in this city this year, as compared with the valuation last year, City Clerk I. N. Vaughn stating that the County Auditor's figures show that the valuation this year is $4,348,175. The valuation last year was $4,248,980.

MAYWOOD, Aug. 13. — The total valuation of assessable property in this city is given as $4,006,795 this year, the figures last year showing a property valuation of $3,586,355.

AGED MAN INJURED IN FALL FROM ROOF

ONTARIO, Aug. 13.—Grave fears were entertained here today for recovery of R. C. J. Miller, 72 years of age, of 208 East F street. While repairing a roof a protecting board gave way, throwing Miller to the cement sidewalk. Both arms were broken and it is thought he has a fracture of the skull. He was taken to the San Antonio Community Hospital. Because of his age it is felt his injuries were considered critical.

GARAGE ON FIRE LIKE OIL BLAZE

ONTARIO, Aug. 13.—Residents of the south side thought they were viewing a flaming oil well late last night.

What they saw was a garage at the A. L. Rouse ranch, which went up in a sheet of flames at 9:50 p.m. The garage was used as a storehouse for gasoline and oil, which caused the flames to shoot high in the heavens.

It was thought a barn lantern had overturned and ignited the structure.

GALUSHA COLE, OLDEST TEMPLAR, BANQUETED

GALUSHA M COLE

PASADENA, Aug. 13.—The entire membership of Pasadena Commandery, No. 31, Knights Templar, attended a dinner tonight at the Masonic Temple in honor of Galusha M. Cole, this city's oldest and most revered resident, whose 103rd birthday will be celebrated Thursday with a city-wide demonstration of affection.

Perry M. Weidner, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Encampment, Knights Templar of America, presented Mr. Cole, the Knights' oldest living member, a black leather binder containing birthday letters from President Hoover and many other national figures.

Tonight's program began with the dinner at 6:30 p.m., followed by a public reception for "The Grand Old Man" in the commandery asylum. Prof. Robert L. Daugherty, chairman of the Board of City Directors, extended greetings to the centenarian.

Mr. Cole, after eating a hearty dinner, paid his respects to Masonry, his affiliation with which, he said, "has been a bright spot all along in my life."

The guest of honor revealed that for the last twelve years he has taken no medicine, or called a physician to his modest home at 306 South Lake avenue.

Others who took part in the program included Dr. James Leishman, assistant pastor of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church; Arthur Heimann president of the United Service Clubs Officers' Association, and Charles H. Prisk, newspaper publisher.

Prominent Knights Templar officials who were present included William D. Stephens, former Governor of California, and Oakley K. Morton of Riverside, Grand Warden.

GRADE SEPARATION FOUGHT

State Railroad Commission Order for Brand Boulevard Crossing to be Opposed

GLENDALE, Aug. 13.—Opposition to the proposed grade separations at Los Feliz Road and Brand Boulevard and the Southern Pacific tracks is to be organized by the Glendale Advancement Association in an effort to prevent the execution of the orders that have already been issued by the State Railroad Commission for the undertaking.

The last hearing on the subject, on July 31, was continued by the commission until October 31.

Objections to the grade separation are based on the claims that the work as proposed by the "gopher hole" plan of treating each crossing as a separate unit, would establish a precedent that would stand in the way of the adoption of a plan for lowering the railroad tracks as a means of solving the traffic congestion at street crossings. The question of the cost of construction and of the damage to adjoining property will also be considered by the association in presenting its case before the commission.

An alliance with Councilman Charles H. Randall of Los Angeles is also predicted by the sponsors of the present move, as Randall is also declared to oppose the grade separation as ordered by the commission. A letter will be addressed to Randall asking him to define his position exactly on the issue, and in the meantime the association will organize its forces to fight the orders of the commission and the separation of the grades.

ROAD PLANS ENCOUNTER OBJECTIONS

San Fernando Expenses Declared Inequitable and Outside Aid Demanded

GLENDALE, Aug. 13.—Property owners who will be affected by the assessments for the improvement of San Fernando Road, from Forest Lawn Memorial Park on the south, to the Burbank city limits, have been called to meet next Thursday night at Roosevelt school to prepare petitions protesting against the levying of the assessments.

The sponsors of the movement insist that not only are the levies "inequitable and unfair," but that San Fernando Road, as an important link in the county highway system, should be given both State and county aid both for the acquisition of property for widening and in the payment of the costs of improvement.

Much of the traffic on this road, it is contended, originates outside of this city and therefore the county should bear a share of the expense. Assessments for other improvements in the district are also cited as reasons for opposing the additional levies at this time.

E. D. Yard, chairman of the committee organized to prepare the petitions, asserts that the withholding of the assessment rolls at this time will not deter eventual completion of the project but may bring about a more equitable distribution of the costs and also obtain State or county aid.

Truckload of Fowls Vanish

ANAHEIM, Aug. 13.—Central avenue in Los Angeles simply is no place to leave an unguarded truckload of chickens. And what's more, the next time John King, local chicken buyer, has a truckload of birds to park in that section he is going to call no less than three uniformed policemen.

King's schooling in this matter came yesterday, when he left $200 worth of choice birds parked at the curb while he went into a store. A few minutes later he returned to find truck and birds gone. Later the truck was found in a near-by alley, but King believes, he says, that his birds are making a fair substitute for 'possum in the vicinity of the theft.

FIRE CHIEFS WILL MEET AT ARCADIA

ARCADIA, Aug. 13.—Fire chiefs of the entire San Gabriel Valley, numbering more than twenty, will be guests of the Foothill Breakfast Club Thursday morning. Fire Chief E. P. Coop of Pasadena, who was recently elected president of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association, will be presented with his badge of office.

Valley Police Like to Loaf in Libraries

VAN NUYS, Aug. 13.—Martin Hans Herlick, a patrolman with the San Fernando Valley Division of the Los Angeles police, holds down two jobs. When he isn't on his beat, he is off work, and when he is off work he is on the job writing stories for magazines—stories that sell. Herlick has just finished his second novelette titled "The Forged Print Mystery," which is to be published in one of the detective-story magazines.

The librarian of the local library says that about 50 per cent of the valley policemen are book-reading men and patronize the library regularly. Three of them, she says, are deep readers of poetry, while one is a poet, and contributes to several poetry magazines of the country.

BLACK WIDOW BITES

Huntington Park Oil Man Victim of Spider

HUNTINGTON PARK, Aug. 13.—While seated on the front porch of the home of his father-in-law, Fred Harris felt something bite his left leg and slapping the member, was surprised to see a dead black widow spider roll out of his pants leg. Within a few minutes the leg began giving him great pain, and a physician was called. Within five or six hours he was resting more easily, and after three days' treatment has about recovered.

Harris and his wife had been on a camping trip. Another black widow spider was killed on the premises the same day, and a day later two of the insects were killed at the premises adjoining. Harris resides south of this city and is employed in an oil field.

WOMAN HELD AS THIEF

Youth Also Arrested as Accomplice in Asserted Raids on Arcadia Chicken Pens

ARCADIA, Aug. 13.—At her preliminary hearing yesterday before Police Judge Horlock, Mrs. Dorothy Stewart, of 701 North Santa Anita avenue, charged with chicken stealing, demanded a jury trial, which was set for Thursday morning.

Appearing with Mrs. Stewart was her asserted son, who gave his name as David Stewart. He gave his age as 17 years, but police records show he is 20, Chief of Police Coberly declared. Mrs. Stewart said that she was between 40 and 45 but did know her exact age. She is also known as Mrs. D. Wilson, Mrs. Elsie F. Burbank, and by several other names, Chief Coberly said.

When questioned by officers, Mrs. Stewart denied that the boy is her son and declared that he is her nephew. Mrs. Stewart was arrested early Saturday morning by Coberly and Officer Haines, while assertedly carrying away chickens, from several ranches in the southwest section of the city.

Police charge that Mrs. Stewart would visit several ranches during early hours and would take from six to twenty chickens from each pen, according to the size of the flocks, then place the chikens in paper bags and cache them in one place until she completed her rounds of the ranches.

Chief Coberly arrested the woman at El Monte road as she was loading chickens into her car. The boy was arrested later at the woman's home.

The arrest resulted, Coberly said, from extensive police investigation following wholesale loss of chickens from many local ranches.

Mrs. Stewart and the youth were represented by Attorney William E. Fox, of Pasadena.

COINCIDENCE IN INJURY FATAL

Second Skull Fracture in Two Years for Dentist

Dr. Frederick Noyes Again Hit by Motorist

Victim Steps Into Side of Machine Near Tracks

SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 13.—Fatally injured this morning, when he is asserted to have stepped into the side of a moving automobile on Huntington Drive at Wayne street, Dr. Frederick C. Noyes, Alhambra dentist, died this afternoon at the Pasadena Hospital without regaining consciousness.

For several hours, the local police were under the impression that Dr. Noyes had been struck by a Pacific Electric car, but the accident was cleared up when James R. Champion of 6003 Mayflower avenue, Maywood, reported that the victim stepped into the side of his automobile after crossing the Pacific Electric tracks.

Champion told the police that after placing the injured man in an ambulance, he hurried to the police station to report the accident, but found the investigating officers had not returned from the scene.

At the hospital it was learned that Dr. Noyes was the victim of a similar accident two years ago. On August 6, 1927, he was struck by an automobile and, as in today's accident, incurred a fractured skull. His life was despaired of at that time, but he recovered after being a hospital patient for three months.

Dr. Noyes leaves a widow, Mrs. Katherine Noyes; a daughter, Louise, who is a teacher in the Santa Barbara schools, and a son, Frederick Noyes, Jr., now living in the Middle West, and three sisters in Atascadero. The victim was formerly a resident of this city, having moved to 814 Dos Robles street, Alhambra, four years ago. He maintained offices in both this city and Pasadena.

The date for the Coroner's inquest has not been set. Turner, Stevens and Berry Mortuary is in charge of arrangements for the funeral.

MEN LEAP FOR LIFE AS LOCOMOTIVE HITS CAR

POMONA, Aug. 13.—Leaping from their machine an instant before an oncoming Union Pacific freight train reduced the car to a mass of twisted wreckage, Vincent C. Webber, owner of the vehicle, and a companion, both of Hollywood, escaped with their lives at the Brea Canyon crossing early today.

The men were driving to Pomona, when Webber heard the warning whistle of the locomotive. The engineer of the train also acted quickly, setting his brakes, but too late to avoid a crash. The automobile was brought to this city where mechanics said that it was beyond repair.

Former City Official Tells Lumber Gift

PASADENA, Aug. 13.—S. Alfred Sorenson, suspended City Purchasing Agent, has admitted that he accepted as a gift a quantity of lumber from the same firm that sold the material for the city's Prospect Boulevard bridge repair job, it was announced today by Acting City Manager R. L. Daugherty.

"Mr. Sorenson told me," said Daugherty, "that by reason of his position as purchasing agent, he could, if he desired, obtain free merchandise from many firms with which the city does business. When I questioned him originally he stated he had never accepted any gifts. Then he called me and said he had accepted a quantity of lumber."

Pair to Face Murder Charge

SANTA ANA, Aug. 13.—A complaint charging murder of Roy Kirk, Huntington Beach oil company employee, was filed today against Allan Slater, 22-year-old Long Beach oil worker. Slater and his companion, Albert Nava, also named in a murder complaint for the death of Kirk, will be taken before Justice of the Peace Kenneth Morrison for preliminary hearing tomorrow morning. They are held in the County Jail without bond.

Kirk's body was found on the running board of his automobile on the State highway outside Huntington Beach three weeks ago. Nava and Slater, arrested at Long Beach, asserted they had found Kirk in the road suffering from wounds and had put him in the front seat of his automobile.

NEW RESIDENCE FOR COLLEGE PRESIDENT

CLAREMONT, Aug. 13.—Desire of Claremont colleges to provide a fitting residence for its president, Dr. James A. Blaisdell, has led to arrangements for construction of a new president's home at Ninth and Dartmouth avenues. A home is now being removed from the site and construction is to begin this week on the Blaisdell residence, which is to be of late Georgian style, a two-story structure of brick exterior on a lot approximately 140 by 150 feet. Ten rooms are included in the plans with a west patio opening on a garden. Contract has been awarded to Storm & Mahoney of Pomona. Architects are Marston & Maybury of Pasadena. The estimated cost of the residence is $27,500. It probably will be completed by November 1.

MAN'S HEAD REBUILT BY OPERATIONS

Medical History Made as Brain Specialist Performs Clinical Miracle

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 13.—Medical science today was thought to have reclaimed the life of Arthur G. Stromerson, 38 years of age, local motor officer, who was believed fatally injured Saturday, through one of the most delicate brain operations in medical history, performed at the Laguna Beach Hospital yesterday by Dr. M. A. Glaser, brain specialist, of Los Angeles.

Stromerson's head, terribly crushed when it struck against the steel axle of a parked car as he was hurled through the air from his skidding motorcycle, was literally rebuilt at the hospital yesterday, according to physicians.

The frontal bone over his eye which had been knocked inward nearly an inch by the impact, was restored to its normal position by the operation and the protecting membrane around the brain, which was torn, was sewed up. More than a score of tiny bone slivers were removed from Stromerson's head. His condition was greatly improved today and physicians gave him an even chance to recover.

VERDICT IN RANCH CASE CLEARS MAN

Jury Exonerates Lloyd H. Tutor; Long Ambulance Ride Explained

LONG BEACH, Aug. 13.—Jurors who heard testimony at the Charles Smith inquest this morning brought in a verdict that the Palmdale youth who was wounded at the Hoffman ranch, sixteen miles from Palmdale, Saturday afternoon and died at a hospital here that night, died from a gunshot wound in the abdomen, inflicted at the hands of Lloyd H. Tutor, also that the shooting was accidental, and exonerated Tutor.

Testimony presented at the Baker & West chapel was that Smith walked to the end of a table from a position opposite the door while the latter was unloading a shotgun. Tutor had turned the gun at right angles to both men and Smith walked in the line of fire just as a shell was discharged.

Relating the story of the 100-mile ambulance ride to this city, which was followed soon after arrival at the hospital by the death of Smith before an operation could be started, Dr. F. P. Brockett of Palmdale testified why he had made the long trip. He telephoned a Long Beach doctor asking him to meet the ambulance at San Fernando or Burbank for an operation. The surgeon was unable to make the trip and suggested that the wounded man be brought here. Dr. Brockett testified that the ambulance reached the hospital about 9:30 o'clock and that Smith died at 10. Police records show that they were notified about 10:45 o'clock.

PICKWICK ACQUIRES VENTURA LOCATION

VENTURA, Aug. 13.—Following close upon their moving to a new passenger station location at Oak and Santa Clara streets, the Pickwick Corporation has purchased the southwest corner of Meta and Oak streets, it was announced today. This property, with 100-foot frontage, was bought from John A. Walker, who used it as a home site. The price is reported to have been between $18,000 and $20,000. The corner was purchased by Pickwick with the intention of developing it as a passenger terminal, but the building plans will not be carried out for three years, it is said, because in the meantime the bus line has leased the Oak-Clara corner for a like period.

JOINT HIGHWAY DISTRICT URGED

Riverside Supervisors Vote for Negotiations

Two Counties May Join Hands to Build Road

Elsinore-to-Sea Route to Cost Half-Million

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 13.—Acting on a surprise motion by Supervisor J. E. McGregor, the County Board of Supervisors today voted to open negotiations with Orange county for formation of a proposed joint road district to finance the $500,000 Cortez Highway, known generally as the Elsinore-to-the-Sea Highway, on which Orange county now is spending more than $100,000.

Dist.-Atty. Ford was authorized to take whatever steps he deems needed to prepare the preliminaries to organization of the district and communicate with the board at its next meeting. It is understood Ford has a blank form on hand submitted by the Orange county group last year.

STATE MAY HELP

Before voting unanimously to open negotiations with the sister county, the Supervisors made pointed statements in which they criticised Elsinore severely for its "threatening" attitude and declared that there is no hope for turning funds to the project until possibly 1931 and that any action by the county will hinge on the extent of help the State and Forest Service, it is understood, may advance toward construction of the road. Boosters for the project assert that the State will give $150,000 and the Forestry Service $50,000, Chairman Jameson announced at the meeting.

McGregor said that the board's aim should be not so much to bind themselves to an organization, but to ascertain how much, if any, would be forthcoming from the outside funds should the district proceedings be completed.

COST $260,000

Jameson declared that Orange county is so anxious to bring the road undertaking to completion that she has agreed to allot to Riverside county her nominal share from the State and forestry funds. In short, she proposes to turn all outside money to Riverside county add impetus to the movement for improvement of the mountain route.

According to a preliminary survey made last year by County Surveyor Fulmore, it will cost $260,000, at least, to build the road from Elsinore Lake to the Orange county line, a distance of nearly twelve miles. There is an abandoned road over the mountains now, but the new route could follow the old course but a small portion of the way, it was brought out, and still maintain the high-gear characteristics needed for the modern-day travel.

Agreement on Border Entry Port Reported

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 13.—Factions which have delayed choice of a permanent gateway at San Ysidro border port of entry are on the verge of agreement, Supervisor E. A. Hornbeck announced to the Board of Supervisors today.

"Gate No. 1, the present portal, will be the one selected finally," Hornbeck foretold for the information of the board. "Additional land needed for customs houses will be obtained and the demands of those who hold leases will be satisfied."

Amicable settlement of the border port controversy, which has raged for months, was greeted by the board and by the gallery with approval. Hearing on an improvement plan, scheduled to develop a compromise site designated as No. 3 gate, was postponed by the board until the 26th inst. with prospect of abandonment at that date.

Escaped Maniac Free No Longer

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 13.—Antonio Rendon, alias Jesus Grilmalja, who several weeks ago was adjudged violently insane here and later escaped from Deputy Sheriffs H. H. Osmun and Ralph Kennedy while en route to the Napa Hospital for the criminal insane, today was captured in El Centro by M. L. Chaffin, border patrol inspector, according to reports received by Sheriff Ed Cooper.

Capture of Rendon was effected almost immediately after receipt of a circular from the County Jail here giving the man's description and record, it was stated. Several deputy sheriffs were dispatched to El Centro by Sheriff Cooper to bring Rendon here.

EMSCO DERRICK PROFITS HIGHER

Earnings for First Half of Year $2.15 Per Share

Sales of Oil Well Supplies Increase Sharply

Smith Leaves Soon to Visit British Subsidiary

Substantial improvement over the first half of 1928 was reported yesterday by the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company in the statement covering the first six months of this year ended June 30, last. Net earnings after all charges, including taxes, as released by E. M. Smith, president, amounted to $862,886, equivalent to $2.15 a share on the 400,000 shares outstanding.

In the first half of last year net earnings after all charges were $350,021, or 87 cents a share on 400,000 shares.

Earnings, as pointed out by Mr. Smith, are running at the annual rate of $4.30 a share, which compares with $1,404,539, or $3.51 a share in the twelve months of 1928. The stock is on an annual dividend basis of $1.60 a share.

Net sales for the first six months of this year, as shown in the report, totaled $5,030,458, which compares with $2,873,908 for the same period in 1928.

Current assets as of June 30, last, were $5,196,574, as contrasted with current liabilities of $1,124,881. The company reported cash on hand of $330,596.

Operations, according to Mr. Smith, are proceeding satisfactorily, and the outlook is good for the second half of the year. The plants are running two shifts, and the volume of business booked is increasing.

Business in the mid-continent section is demanding larger shipment of goods to the distributing centers, Mr. Smith said. The Emsco products are comparatively new in the middle-western oil fields, but the volume of sales has shown consistent growth.

Emsco's foreign subsidiary is nearly ready to start operations in its plant near London, and a party of executives, headed by Mr. Smith, will leave for England soon to complete details regarding the expansion of the British company's operations.

Directors of Emsco Derrick and Equipment are scheduled to hold their next dividend meeting on October 1. What action will be taken on the possibility of a higher rate has not been intimated by officers.

Clay Company Stockholders to Get Report

Pacific Clay Products is preparing a letter to its stockholders giving them a summary of the oil developments on land adjacent to the company's forty-nine-acre Los Nietos plant, W. R. Fawcett, secretary-treasurer, said yesterday. Mr. Fawcett said that while the company was still maintaining its policy of "watchful waiting," the officials were becoming more interested in the possibilities of the lower Clarke sand zone of Santa Fe Springs.

Several leasing propositions have been received by the company but the directors as yet have reached no decision as to what they will do, according to Mr. Fawcett.

The Associated Oil Company well which was brought in several days ago is beaned down and is flowing 2300 barrels of liquid a day, of which about 1600 barrels are oil of 34 deg. gravity, it was reported. This well, which is down 8100 feet, is near the Pacific Clay Products plant and close to leases held by Shell, Standard and Union oil companies.

OILS DISCOUNT GAS LAW

Hopes Raised for Effective Lowering of Crude Output Through Wastage Act; Operators Confer

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Improvement in the prices for oil shares in the last two days is traceable principally to the imminence of natural-gas conservation in California on the 30th inst. under the new State law. Most of the industry is still in the dark on just how the elimination of waste gas will be effectively handled, but at the same time there is a definite feeling among responsible oil men that the program will be successful.

More than likely it is this sentiment that accounts for the strong tone in the oil list, which was first evident about a month ago. Hopes of the oil stockholders have been raised again, but this time it seems that the East, instead of selling oils to the West, is behind most of the accumulation that has been under way.

MID-CONTINENT WAITS

How closely the whole petroleum industry is watching the California experiment is indicated by the report yesterday that a cut in the price of Mid-Continent crude oil has been postponed for forty-five days, supposedly to await the outcome of the California conservation program. The Mid-Continent undoubtedly hopes that sizeable reduction in California crude-oil output will follow the restriction of gas flow, thereby bringing the nation's petroleum structure into more healthy adjustment.

California oil men themselves express the opinion that the gas wastage law, if it is enforced effectively, will reduce crude oil output in the State from 150,000 to 200,000 barrels daily. The machinery to apply regulation is now being worked out in a series of conferences among oil operators and marketing agencies, one of which was held yesterday in San Francisco.

As tentatively outlined, it is understood that the companies with natural-gas marketing facilities are endeavoring to co-operate with those oil companies not possessing an adequate outlet for gas, the program involving a proration of production. Some companies now disposing of large amounts of natural gas will probably have to make way for others not having marketing facilities or sales contracts.

Obviously the working out of proration will not be done without encountering innumerable difficulties. The companies must agree, in co-operation with the State authorities, which wells are to be shut in and how much; what companies are to surrender natural-gas outlets, and to whom, and just what constitutes wastage and conservation of the gas flow.

SPRINGS OUTPUT OFF

At Santa Fe Springs, the seat of most of the reputed wastage of gas, crude-oil production in the past week dropped off 8000 barrels compared with the previous week. This is the field where most of the efforts to conserve gas will center, and where it is hoped that the curtailment of crude-oil output will be the greatest.

In the stock market, the optimistic speculators are already looking ahead far enough to groom the stocks which they think should be the leaders in any bull market for oils that should follow a sizeable reduction in California production. Standard of New Jersey, Texas Corporation, Standard of California, and a number of lower-priced favorites are named on the preferred list.

HAGUE MEETING REOPENS

Outcome of Deadlock at Today's Session of Great Importance to Business World

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—The Hague financial conference, after a few days' rest, gets down to business again this morning.

At the table will sit Aristide Briand, the French Premier, and his popular Finance Minister, Henri Cheron; Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the British Exchequer, and Arthur Henderson, Britain's easy-going but astute Foreign Secretary. Gustav Stresemann, Germany's Foreign Minister, will also be there as will Antonio Mosconi, the Italian Finance Minister. Italy's voice, however, will really be carried by Signor Grandi, officially Italy's Undersecretary for Foreign Affairs, in reality the close and very intimate representative of Mussolini.

Their job is to work out a plan if possible, for putting into operation the Young plan, which it is hoped will take the place of the Dawes plan on September 1, next.

Mr. Snowden's demand—backed by Premier Ramsay MacDonald and every shade of British political and business opinion—for tne allocation of a larger share of reparations to Great Britain before the Young plan is officially accepted caused an acrimonious discussion last week which nearly broke up the conference. France objected to Mr. Snowden's demand and so did Belgium. Italy remained neutral. Germany naturally took no side.

While the conference seemed on the verge of collapse when Mr. Snowden made his position clear, several postponements of the official session have served to bring about the hope that a way to surmount Great Britain's objections may yet be found.

This hope, coupled with an intimation that a plan for the evacuation of the Rhineland is in sight, makes today's session of the conference of world-wide importance.

It is particularly important to American business men, since continued prosperity in the United States is largely dependent upon the ability of Europe to absorb American goods. Should a stalemate develop at the last moment, business in the United States would feel it immediately.

However, the outlook for a settlement of the reparations problem is far better than it was last Saturday.

So much has been written in an optimistic vein of the possibilities of the St. Lawrence waterways—how it will help the great cities of Chicago, Duluth, Minneapolis, Cleveland and all other inland water ports which now have little access to the sea—that the study of Dr. Harold G. Moulton, head of the Institute of Economics at Washington, is worthy of very close study.

As against a cost of $250,000,000 estimated by the engineers, he estimates the figures at $712,000,000. This is for a twenty-seven-foot depth. But at that depth only 5 per cent of the tonnage of passenger-cargo ships now carrying America's foreign trade and only 38 per cent of the freight ships could get through.

The plan would not relieve railroad congestion because the St. Lawrence waterways would be closed to navigation during much of the peak traffic in winter. In order to effect a reduction of 4 cents a bushel in freight rates (the American farmer not getting all) the United States should have to pay out about 11 cents a bushel.

Stated in another way this Moulton survey shows that the annual expense of this project to the people of the United States and Canada, not covered by tolls and freight charges, would amount to at least $3.50 a ton for such tonnage as would use the route. This statement is a most important one.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Trading on the curb exchange today turned ragged after a strong opening, with the leaders in the utilities closing behind minus signs. The investment trusts and the air stocks worked higher, with new tops being established in the latter group. Wide gains were made by a few specialties.

Sales slipped off to slightly above a million and half shares. Trade news continued favorable with several companies, including investment trusts, reporting increased earnings. Money was easier, call loans renewing at 8 and dropping to 7 per cent with funds available nearly all day at 7 per cent in the outside market.

The sensation of the day was Crocker Wheeler, electrical supply stock, which shot up 60 points to a record high price for all time at 480, where it closed. The low price for this year is 127½. Electrification of industry has been bringing this company increased business. Bastian Blessing, manufacturer of soda fountain and dairy equipment, moved into new high ground above 60 on a rise of more than 5 points in anticipation of increased business as a result of the hot weather and purchase of stock in the company by dairy interests.

The early gains in the utility list were practically all wiped out before the close, with such issues as Electric Investors, American Superpower, Allied Power and Middle West Utilities closing 1 to more than 12 points lower. Electric Bond & Share retained a fraction of its early small gain, while Duke Power jumped 11½. Northern States Power "A" was strong. Nevada California Electric touched a new high at 93½, and then dropped to 85 for a net loss of 5.

Since the purchase of a stock interest in Aero Supply by John J. Raskob, the "B" shares have been successively making new highs. Today on a small gain the "B" reached 22¾. Dayton Airplane Engine again established a new peak. Air Investors, which reported earnings for the first six months of the year equal to 96 cents a share, slipped down a fraction to a new low. Curtiss Wright issues were firm on announcement of combined gross business of Wright Aeronautical and Curtiss Aeroplane, two subsidiaries, of $12,414,000 for the first six months of the year. This is an increase of $3,716,000 over the corresponding period last year.

New highs in the investment trust list were made by Tricontinental Corporation, American Phenix, and Mayflower Associates, on advances of 1 to nearly 3 points. National Investors shot up 20½ points to a record high at 197½, which compares to its price of 11¼ on July 1, last. Interstate Equity gained nearly a point and Goldman Sachs Trading nearly 3.

The oils improved in anticipation of lower California production after August 31 when the new State laws go into effect. Ohio advanced more than a point. The Standard Oils were firm. Gulf yielded a point.

The mining shares were quiet, moving fractionally higher.

Through errors in the Monday night stock tables, the Associated Press stated incorrectly that Dictaphone Corporation declined 48½ points to a new low at 16. The stock meant was Dictograph Products, which declined 3⅝ points to a new low at 16.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

30 Stock Dividends
34 Extra Cash Dividends
7 Valuable Rights

Investors who compute present yield of these stocks on the basis of current regular cash dividend rates, should not overlook the value of stock dividends, extras and "rights"—the cash value of which averages almost as much as the regular cash dividends. Holders of BASIC INDUSTRY SHARES receive the benefit of regular cash dividends plus all extras and stock dividends declared by these thirty great corporations. The shares are issued by the Equitable Trust Company of New York, Trustee, and disbursements are made to shareholders twice a year by coupon—like collecting interest on a bond. We recommend BASIC INDUSTRY SHARES for security of principal, generous income, appreciation in value, and ready marketability.

"As sure as Death and Taxes"

The certainty of taxes has been so universally accepted by mankind for many centuries as to gain a place among popular maxims.

This certainty is reflected in the high regard in which government, municipal and district bonds payable from taxes are held by investors everywhere.

California Improvement District Bonds are issued under an Act which provides that interest and serial maturities shall be paid from a special ad valorem tax levied upon all lands in the issuing district and collected with and as a part of general City and County taxes from which it cannot be separated.

Combined with this exceptional security is a liberal 5¼% to 6% yield completely exempt from all Federal Income Taxes and California Personal Property Taxes.

As specialists in California tax-lien bonds, we have available for your consideration carefully selected issues which offer these attractive features. Detailed circulars will be gladly furnished without obligation; the coupon below is for your convenience.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Further price recessions were liberally scattered through the investment bond list today. Selling of the rails was a little less pronounced than yesterday and first grade obligations in this group had a somewhat steadier tone, but the general tendency of the carriers, the backbone of the market, was again downward.

Uncertainty over the future of money rates has weakened sentiment toward the fixed-charge, low coupon securities. Time money, which has been see-sawing between 8¾ and 9 per cent for the past fortnight, was back at the higher figure today. The action of money, together with the sustained activity of the stock market, has reduced interest in bonds to the lowest ebb in years and many traders are still pessimistic over the outlook for the immediate future.

The usual number of new lows came out in the day's desultory trading. Armour & Co. 5½s went down to 87, off 1⅛. St. Paul 5s dipped 1½ to 87, Northern Pacific 4½s sold off 1 to 90 and Southern Pacific Refunding 4s dropped to 87, all new minimums. In addition, the Cuba cane sugar issues, which have been weak since the announcement of the reorganization plan, touched new lows, although they recovered fractionally on the appearance of speculative support.

Numerous standard rails moved higher. These included Atlantic Coast line 5s, Texas & Pacific 5s, Chesapeake & Ohio General 4½s, Missouri Pacific General 4s, New York Central 4s, and the St. Louis & San Francisco issues. Gains ran as high as a point. Behind minus signs were such representative carriers as Atchison General 4s, Baltimore & Ohio 6s, Rock Island 4s, Chicago Burlington & Quincy General 4s, Great Northern 4½s, Pennsylvania General 4s, Great Northern 4½s and Southern Railway General 4s. Declines averaged less than a point. The severest loss was in Seaboard Air Line Gold 5s, which dropped 8⅞ on the sale of a single bond, illustrating the extreme thinness of the current market.

Utilities were mixed. American Telephone Collateral 5s hopped up 1⅛, but New England Telephone 5s, New York Telephone General 4½s and Pacific Gas and Electric 5s sold off fractionally.

The industrial list also had an irregular appearance. American Writing Paper 6s and Gotham Silk Hosiery 6s gained a point or more. Steel company issues were steady.

Most of the convertibles finished in higher ground. The largest gains were in American Telephone 4½s, up 1⅛; American International 5½s, up 2⅛; Inter-General Public Service 5½s, up 4¼. Atchison 4½s closed slightly lower after selling within half a point of their record high.

Liberty bonds ruled steady, although only the fourth 4¼.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND (O.) Aug. 13. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says the sheet steel market retains surprising vitality for midsummer. Incoming business so far this month shows little decrease from the rate a month ago. A well sustained demand from other consuming industries is offsetting what decline has occurred in automotive requirements, although the latter tonnage still is seasonally heavy and unfavorable only when compared with the spring months. Plate demand continues to dominate the heavy finished steel market in the Chicago district. Freight car builders' specifications have undergone much less than the seasonal midsummer depression.

Copper is quiet but firm at 18.00c. Connecticut. Zinc is steady at 6.80c. East St. Louis. Lead is holding at 6.55c. East St. Louis, and 6.75c. New York. Spot straits tin is quoted at 46.37½c to 46.50c.

STEEL COMMON HITS FAST PACE

ment of 101 weekly reporting member banks showed a reduction of $80,000,000 in loans on securities in the week ended the 7th inst. Reserve borrowings, however, increased slightly.

The day's news was largely favorable, particularly the Department of Commerce foreign trade figures for the first half of the year, showing an increase in exports of 10 per cent, practically all of which was in manufactured goods. July copper statistics indicated a gain in refined stocks during July of about 14,500 tons. This gain was not regarded as particularly unsatisfactory, however, as large consumers were not in the market during that month. Crude-oil production figures showed another decline last week. The first half report of American Woolen was again unfavorable, showing a net loss of $2,499,159, as compared with a loss of $894,704 in the first half of 1928.

AVERAGES HIGHER

The Standard Statistics Co-Associated Press price indices of fifty leading industrials and twenty leading rails were carried substantially above their levels just previous to the Friday reaction, but the index of twenty utilities, moving up 4.2 points to 312.3, was still 2.7 points under last Thursday's close.

The market opened irregular, but price trends were soon turned upward until the last hour, when profit-taking was heavy. Commission house opinion as to the state of the market was sharply divided, some still advising their customers to prepare for a secondary reaction, while others found market conditions highly satisfactory.

Several steels were carried higher by the upturn in United States Steel. Bethlehem, Crucible and Inland reached new high ground in moderate gains. Union Pacific was a leader in the rails, rising 13 points to a new peak at 280. Chesapeake and Ohio sold up about 7 points, but lost much of its gain later.

Allied Chemical, Columbus Gas, Consolidated Gas, General Electric, Gillette Safety Razor, Simmons, Westinghouse Manufacturing, Westinghouse Air Brake, Simmons, Wright Aero and United Aircraft made sizeable gains. Peoples' Gas rallied 15 points, regaining much of yesterday's loss. American Telephone gained about 4 points, then reacted.

ATCHISON SOFTER

Atchison turned heavy in profit-taking, losing about 4 points. Radio sagged 3. Other soft spots were American Machine and Foundry, Detroit Edison, Macy, May Department Stores, Murray Corporation, Pittsburgh Coal and Southern Railway, all of which sagged 2 to 4 points.

Commodities generally moved in narrow ranges. Wheat held barely steady, but corn lost about 2 cents a bushel on favorable weather. Cotton moved up 85 cents to $1.25 a bale on covering prompted by bullish weather.

Foreign exchanges were fairly steady, although sterling cables sagged slightly to $4.84 25-32 cents. Renewed buying of gold in London for New York account was reported in private cables. Takings were said to amount to about $5,000,000, but as the Bank of England also bought gold in the London open market, its net loss will be small. The Canadian dollar sagged to 99 1-4 cents.

Home Hunting Made Easy Through Times Ads

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

Showings picked up in the System Oil Company's Bradley No. 1 wildcat on the southeast quarter of Section 36, 10-34, about four miles southeast of Santa Maria, are proving of much interest to operators in that area.

At about 4350 feet the drill went through a saturated sand, it is asserted by company officials, and then penetrated a shell formation about nine feet thick, having a rich coloring. Preparations are being made to set ten-inch casing to 4200 feet and to resume drilling within a few days.

The General Petroleum Corporation prospected in that general area about four years ago, failing to find sufficient showings. System later acquired approximately a section and a half of the Bradley ranch, and H. H. Bell, independent operator, is said to have leased 1500 acres near by.

About eight miles west of Santa Maria the Wildcat Oil and Royalty Company's Donovan No. 1 wildcat is coring ahead below 1426 feet and company officials state that between 1250 and 1280 feet considerable gas was in evidence and that showings of oil were found in the ditch.

The Donovan No. 1 is on a 389-acre lease about three miles northwest of the Shell Oil Company's Union Sugar test at Betteravia, which is drilling ahead below 1890 feet.

Nearing Completion

With the Santa Fe No. 232 flowing approximately 2400 barrels of oil per day from a depth of 7945 feet at Santa Fe Springs, the General Petroleum Corporation is preparing to bring in its Santa Fe No. 143. It is swabbing at 6839 feet.

The Santa Fe No. 145-B is cleaning out to bottom at 6818 feet, while Santa Fe No. 152-F, with bottom at 6820 feet, has started to flow, and indications are that both projects will be completed this week.

Work Progressing

The Standard Oil Company's seventy-mile pipe line, more than half built from its Kettleman Hills holdings to Estero Bay, will be equipped to load tankers from the end of a 3000-foot submerged sixteen-inch pipe line extending into the bay.

Capable of carrying 35,000 barrels of oil daily, the line will be the first to run directly from Kettleman Hills to Estero Bay. On Section 19, 22-17, about five miles southwest of the Milham Exploration Company's Elliott No. 1 discovery well, a pumping station will be installed, and reports are it will be completed for operation by October.

Completes Two

The Superior Oil Company has brought in its Guarantee No. 2 near the intersection of Placentia-Yorba Boulevard and Jefferson street in the Richfield field for approximately 154 barrels of 21-deg. gravity oil per day, from a depth of 4279 feet.

At Santa Fe Springs Superior's Wardman No. 6 was brought in for a daily yield of 5248 barrels of 34-deg. gravity oil, with bottom of the hole at 6836 feet.

Into Heavy Oil Sand

The Milham Exploration Company is reported to have picked up four feet of heavily saturated oil sand in its Kennedy No. 1 at Kettleman Hills, between 7186 and 7190 feet, and is drilling ahead. This project is nearing the producing depth of the Elliott No. 1 discovery well in that district.

To Recement

Failing to get a successful water shutoff, the Standard Oil Company will recement its No. 8 well on Section 1 at Kettleman Hills, one of several to be completed in that area to deplete the gas pressure of the Milham Exploration Company's Elliott No. 1. It will be recemented at about 6205 feet, and will be allowed to stand a few days before the plug is drilled out to resume.

Output of Standard's No. 81 on Section 11 remains steady at about 880 barrels of high-gravity oil per day, with bottom of hole at 6673 feet. Its entire gas output of approximately 20,000,000 cubic feet is being converted into casinghead gasoline. With the completion of additional projects near by the absorption plant will be enlarged, although at present it is capable of handling 40,000,000 cubic feet daily.

Swabbing for Test

George F. Getty, Inc., is reported to be swabbing its Leibert No. 4 well, in the Alamitos Heights district at Signal Hill, and is preparing to land four-and-three-quarter-inch tubing to 6083 feet, with bottom of the hole at about 6153 feet.

This project is one of a group in the town-lot area that is being watched with considerable interest, it is said. In that same general area the MacMillan Petroleum Corporation is rigging up to deepen its No. 5 well, near the intersection of State and Luder streets. Before being killed MacMillan's well was putting out approximately 105 barrels of oil per day with bottom of the hole at 6337 feet.

Into Oil Sand

The Elmer Oil Company's Woods No. 1 at Santa Fe Springs, in the extreme southeast end of the field, is asserted to have encountered a showing of shale and oil sand, with bottom at 7676 feet. This project is northeast of the Plymouth Oil Company's Roberts No. 1, which is preparing to deepen into the lower Clarke sand, ending a suspension of several months, due to failure to develop commercial production in the O'Connell sand.

About 2000 feet southwest of Plymouth's Roberts No. 1, L. P. Edwards's Meyer No. 1, idle for several months, resumed operations when the Rohde No. 1 of Rohde & McAdams came in about three months ago. It now is drilling ahead below 7848 feet in shale and oil sand, according to field reports.

To Kill Soon

The General Petroleum Corporation is preparing to kill its More No. 1 wildcat, three miles southeast of Elwood. Successful in landing six-inch tubing and directing a flow of approximately 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day through it until it now is yielding 35,000,000 cubic feet of gas through one-and-one-half-inch bean, preparations are being made to compel this project to sand up so that the hole may be straightened.

General's More No. 1 blew in suddenly more than a week ago from a depth of 4533 feet. In the event that it is not successfully killed, field reports state that an absorption plant may be constructed to make the gas output into casinghead gasoline.

To Try Summerland

The Padre Oil Company has just leased ten lots in the old Summerland field and will drill a well there in search of the shallow producing sand found by other operators in that area.

Padre's lease is near the State highway and extends to within a short block of the ocean. Reports are that construction of a derrick will start soon.

The Wiley No. 1 of the Padre Oil Company, northwest of Elwood, drilled to a depth of 4200 feet without picking up commercial production, has been idle for nearly a month.

Brings in One

The Western Gulf Oil Company has completed its K.C.L. No. 9-B in the Fruitvale field for an initial output of 600 barrels of 21-deg. gravity oil per day from a depth of 3973 feet.

This new completion is a short distance from Western Gulf's K.C.L. No. D-1, now standing cemented with bottom at 5260 feet. Reports are that a test will be made below the ten-inch casing set to 3739 feet.

On the Hollister ranch the Hollister No. 1 is drilling ahead below 3350 feet in hard sand.

Operations Start Soon

Although lease requirements do not call for drilling operations to start before ninety days, the Richfield Oil Company is reported to be preparing to make locations for wells to be drilled on its recently acquired 3000-acre tract about seven miles south of Coalinga.

The company is said to have paid a big bonus for this property because it is in the Kreyenhagen Hills. The lease is considered important as showings were picked up in core holes put down by the Thomas, Sump and Oceanside oil companies. Although shallow production was obtained, lack of pipe lines and storage facilities made it impossible at that time to develop continued commercial production, it is said.

This lease is reported to be the first important one handled by Richfield since acquiring the ten-acre Mayberry tract at Santa Fe Springs, where its Mayberry No. 1 is drilling ahead below 1300 feet.

Wheat Prices Slump After Early Upturn

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Broadening out of export demand for North American wheat, together with fresh complaints relative to the Southern Hemisphere crop outlook, sent wheat values climbing today. However, profit-taking on a large scale led afterward to price setbacks. It was estimated that 2,000,000 bushels of United States and Canadian wheat was bought today for shipment to Europe.

Closing quotations on wheat were irregular at ⅜c net decline to 1⅛c off, and provisions varying from 40c drop to a rise of 2c.

Emphasizing the market effect of big European purchases of domestic and Canadian wheat today were advices that Argentine rains had proved to be inadequate to afford complete relief from drought, and that a similar situation is apparent in Australia. Dispatches at hand said the provinces of Entre Rios, Cordoba and Santa Fe, Argentina, had received only showers, and that in Cordoba especially, wheat is suffering from drought. Other reports contained news that even with perfect weather from now on the three eastern provinces of Australia cannot raise more than half of a normal crop.

Advances of 1⅜ to 1⅝d a bushel for wheat at Liverpool received particular notice, too, as a stimulus toward higher prices here. The Liverpool market today having been expected to show a decline. Moreover, estimates were circulated which suggested 432,000,000 bushels net shrinkage of the world's wheat supply this season as compared with a year ago, indicating that importing countries this season will have trouble obtaining from exporting countries all of the wheat needed. On the other hand, the market for future deliveries here showed no immediate capacity for maintaining price bulges, especially as the domestic spring wheat movement is now increasing, with yields apparently turning out somewhat better than expected.

Corn prices declined sharply after an early advance. Weather conditions on the whole were rather auspicious for corn, and the crop in general was reported as making rapid progress. Kansas and Nebraska reports, however, were distinctly adverse. The oats market lacked a prop.

Stop loss selling on the part of scattered holders developed in the provision market, notably as to meats.

Soviet Business Executives Seek American Tie-up

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (Exclusive) With 200 soviet engineers and executives in this country "cementing contacts" there is now under way a vast tie-up between American and Russian enterprises. This became known today with the announcement that a delegation of about fifty soviet representatives had arrived within the last week to augment a force of about 150 that has been here for some time.

A close affiliation is being established between leading American companies and the soviet industrial groups. The American organizations with which relations already have been arranged include the Ford Motor Company, the International General Electric Company, E. I. Du Pont De Nemours & Co., and two large coal companies. Contracts are to be entered into with other American concerns.

B. Kuritzin, chairman of the Soviet State Machine Building Corporation; M. Nikiforov, chairman of the rubber trust; W. S. Matlin, vice-chairman of the electro-technical trust, and M. Levchnko, vice-chairman of Donugol coal trust, head the latest soviet delegation. Forty-five other soviet representatives made up the party.

NEWS MILLENNIUM HERE LINDBERGH CALLS PA

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, whose reticence has kept him busy eluding reporters for more than a year, voluntarily telephoned a newspaper today asking to be interviewed.

All morning long a reporter for the Cleveland News besieged the home of Mrs. Charles Long Cutter, grandmother of Mrs. Lindbergh, who was hostess to the flying pair since they dropped in unexpectedly yesterday. Finally the reporter pointed out the consideration his fellow-workers showed Mrs. Lindbergh when she visited here several months ago previous to her marriage.

A short time later the staff of The News was astonished by the information that Col. Lindbergh was on the telephone and wanted to talk with a reporter. Unbelievingly, routine questions were put to him and brought forth the information that he and his wife had Washington, dropped visit and intended day for some decided on yet.

have this serious ailment, many without knowledge of it. Doctors now urge this important preventative.

SIX out of ten past 40 have a kidney ailment in some form. Many without knowledge of it, for there are no warning symptoms.

Medical science has brought to light the cause: 75% of poisonous waste from the system is excreted by the kidneys, much in too concentrated form. Overburdened, delicate kidney cells "break down." Poisons which should be eliminated are harbored and turned back into the system, the forerunner of many serious ills.

Doctors now advise six glasses of Puritas mineral-free water each day. It acts to dilute poisonous waste, dissolves and washes it away, thus lightening the load of kidneys. Mineral-free, it leaves no deposits to add further to congestion.

Scientifically distilled and aerated, Puritas is mineral-free, impurity-free; water in its purest state. You will find its taste different at first, and each drink you'll increasingly enjoy.

EARLE LOVE PLEDGE PUT INTO RECORD

Woman's Deposition Says Exotic Artist Promised Huge Trust Fund for Her

Ferdinand Pinney Earle, exotic artist, agreed to create a $100,000 trust fund for her according to Dolores Salazar, who is suing Earle for $180,000 in a breach of promise complaint. This was revealed when a deposition was filed in Superior Court yesterday, by Attorneys Roger Marchetti for Miss Salazar and Sam Steelman representing the defendant.

Miss Salazar also testified that Earle promised to settle $15,000 cash on her and care for her until he would have a chance to marry her.

The actress asserts that Earle promised to marry her, took her to France and deserted her there.

"Mr. Earle promised to care for me because my father disowned me," Miss Salazar said.

The suit is set for trial September 20. Earle is in France, and will be represented only by counsel. He has previously denied the charges made by Miss Salazar.

Hospital Asks for Warrants in Insanity Cases

Refusal of Chief Surgeon Dodge of the Receiving Hospital to receive any more patients accused of insanity unless their committal is accompanied by a complaint signed before a magistrate yesterday resulted in the Police Commission passing a resolution asking the City Council to provide for a magistrate service for twenty-four hours a day.

Dodge based his action on a recent opinion by Jesse Stephens, former City Attorney, that it is illegal to detain an insane patient without the necessary warrant.

Chief Davis said that it presented a serious situation for the police department in the handling of insane patients when there was no judge available to authorize a commitment.

Dominguez Mass to be Conducted

A solemn high mass for all the members of the Dominguez family will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today at the Dominguez Memorial on the Dominguez ranch north of the harbor district.

The seminary is a memorial to Mrs. Dominguez del Amo's parents, Don Manuel Dominguez and Engracia Cota Dominguez, and is conducted by the fathers of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. They also have charge of the old Dominguez home, which will be preserved as a landmark.

French Manufacturers Now Seeking Plant Site

Farman Brothers Owners of Largest Factory Abroad

Seaplane Concern May Open Branch in City Also

Farman Brothers, French airplane manufacturers, will build a branch plant in Los Angeles, according to an announcement yesterday by Charles H. Payne, vice-president of the Aviation Business Bureau, Inc.

Mr. Payne, who arrived yesterday from New York, made the announcement following a conference with A. W. Poole, manager of the aviation department of the Chamber of Commerce.

NO OPTIONS TAKEN

The Aviation Business Bureau, Inc., which is acting as councillors for the French concern in the choice of a site for the plant, also is scouting for a California location for a branch plant of the Savoia-Marchetti Seaplane Company. Mr. Payne declared Los Angeles is among several cities being considered for the latter factory.

No options have been taken on property, Mr. Payne declared.

The size and other details of the plant to be built here are as yet undetermined, these announcements to follow a survey of the aviation industry on the Coast now being conducted by Farman Brothers.

Farman Brothers are declared to own the largest airplane manufacting plant in Europe. They also operate an extensive aerial transportation system.

MAKE LARGE PLANES

Principal production of the company is in large planes, one type being a twelve and another a twenty-five-passenger model. Tests are now being made on a model that will carry fifty passengers. All Farman planes are four motored or tandem motored.

It is declared that the Farmans plan no affiliation with any existing American aerial corporation and that the plant here will be financed privately.

TOURIST CAMPAIGN EXTOLLED

Senator Capper Declares All-Year Club Has Done Good Job of Advertising

The effective tourist campaign conducted by the All-Year Club of Southern California to bring visitors to the Southland has attracted nation-wide attention, according to Senator Capper of Kansas, a recent visitor to Los Angeles.

"I have been much interested during the past eight years in this co-operative endeavor of you people in Southern California in so intelligently uniting in a campaign to bring pleasure visitors to California," the Senator said.

"The high caliber of your All-Year Club advertising is a demonstration that such a co-operative endeavor can be maintained on a high plane. Our people of the Middle West are active prospects for California pleasure visits, but many of them do not possess a specific idea of the climate, scenery and recreational facilities available here, so of course they must be sold. I believe your experience has shown that your national advertising is the most effective and economical way to do your educational job. Judging from the large number of Kansans I have met here, I assume that your campaign is having gratifying results from that territory."

MRS. LOIS L. BOHAN TO BE BURIED TODAY

Mrs. Bohan was 33 years of age. She had been a resident of Los Angeles fourteen years. Besides her husband, she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols, and two sisters, Miss Marjorie Nichols and Mrs. Alma Nichols Fellows.

Mrs. Alexander Kerr has donated a $30,000 site at El Monte, where the sponsors purpose to build a new home. The present quarters at 3931 Compton avenue are totally inadequate, according to Mrs. Erwin P. Werner, general chairman of the campaign committee, with headquarters at Room 741, Title Insurance Building.

EMSCO SHIP STARTS NEW TEST TODAY

Monoplane Will Get in Air at Beach for Onslaught at Mark on One Fueling

Emory Bronte, member of the Smith-Bronte Hawaiian - Pacific Coast flight of 1927, and Jack Reid, chief pilot of the Emsco Aircraft Corporation, will take off this morning from Long Beach Municipal Airport in an Emsco single-motored cabin transport plane in an attempt to break the nonrefueling endurance record of sixty-five hours and twenty-five minutes.

The pilots believe they can remain in the air at least seventy-five hours with the 850 gallons of gasoline and thirty gallons of oil the monoplane will have aboard.

After a straight flight to San Diego the flyers will return to the Long Beach airdrome and circle it until forced down. The ship is powered by a 300-horsepower Wright Whirlwind motor and will weigh more than five tons at the takeoff, scheduled at 6 a.m.

Germany holds the present nonrefueling record. Joe Nikrent, official observer for the National Aeronautic Association, will time the flight and install a barograph in the ship a few minutes before it goes aloft.

The local plane will have to break the German mark by at least one hour to establish a new one.

ATHEISTS TO MEET

Charles T. Spradling, author and lecturer, will address the Atheist Society of Los Angeles on "Materialism" Friday at 8 p.m., in Room 218, 224 South Spring street.

MORE WOMEN IN AIR RACE

Phoebe Omlie, Margaret Perry and Ruth Nichols Will be Among Group Flying to Cleveland

Phoebe Omlie, Margaret Perry and Ruth Nichols yesterday were announced as officially having entered the National Women's Air Derby, scheduled to start from Clover Field, Santa Monica, next Sunday and finish in Cleveland, after eighteen stops, as the feature of the 1929 national air races. The entry blank of Thea Rasche, German aviatrix, is expected to be filed in Cleveland today.

Yesterday's entries brought the total to twelve, the others already entered being Marvel Crosson, Florence Lowe Barnes, Blanche Wilcox Noyes, Louise M. Thaden, Mary E. Von Mack, Amelia Earhart, Ruth Elder, Bobbie Trout and Gladys O'Donnell.

MRS. THADEN ARRIVES

Mrs. Thaden, former holder of the women's air endurance record, landed at Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport yesterday afternoon after a fifteen-hour flight from Wichita, Kan.

The aviatrix will be on the starting line in the air derby. She flew from Wichita in her entry, a new Travel Air speed wing biplane, equipped with a 220-horsepower Wright Whirlwind motor and a National Aeronautic Advisory Committee streamlined motor cowling.

H. B. Lippiatt, Southern California Travel Air distributor, will give Mrs. Thaden's ship a final grooming at Metropolitan before the race takeoff.

Mrs. Blanche Noyes, another derby entry, was en route here from Wichita last night in a ship identical to Mrs. Thaden's.

GUESTS TODAY

Four more are delaying the filing of their applications in order to keep secret until the last minute the type of plane and motor they will use. They are Claire Fahy, Edith Foltz, May Haizlys, Neva Paris and Vera Dawn Walker.

The women pilots will be guests of honor this morning at the Breakfast Club. The affair will be broadcast by radio, following which the motion - picture news weeklies will photograph the group.

PLANE OFFERED

The use of a Lockheed plane for transportation of the official delegation from Clover Field to Cleveland with the contestants yesterday was offered Managing Director Frank Copeland by James Work, vice-president of the Lockheed Aircraft Company of Burbank.

Wiley B. Post will pilot the ship and in the cabin will be Copeland, George S. Greene, National Exchange Club president, and J. Clark Sammons, president of the Santa Monica Bay District Exchange Club.

STUDENT MISSIONARY BURIED

Funeral rites were conducted at the White Memorial Hospital yesterday for Bryan D. Robison, student medical missionary of the Adventist Church, who died Sunday. Burial was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mr. Robison, who was 32 years of age, resided at 1400 Penn avenue. He had been completing his medical education since last December. He leaves his widow, a 3-year-old son and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Robison, all of Los Angeles.

MICHELSON LIGHT TEST POSTPONED

Noted Scientist to Watch Work on Vacuum Pipe and Try Experiment Later

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Aug. 13. (Exclusive) Dr. Albert A. Michelson, head of the University of Chicago physics department, today left here for Laguna, where he will complete his California summer at the Hotel Casa de Camina. This will be convenient to the Irvine ranch between Laguna and Santa Ana, where a mile-long vacuum pipe, three feet in diameter, is being constructed for Dr. Michelson's experiments in the velocity of light.

Before leaving the Hotel Maryland today he said that he will be unable to complete these experiments this summer, and that he will return next year for that purpose. The function of the long vacuum pipe is to provide a channel in which to check the distances used in his previous experiments.

"I found it will take longer than I expected to complete my experiments," said Dr. Michelson. "I will return to California next summer to finish these experiments with which I expect to round out my life work."

Dr. Michelson said he expects to stop at the Irvine ranch to note what progress the technicians have made in constructing the vacuum pipe. He expects to do some sketching along the coast near Laguna, being an artist as well as a scientist.

BLAST FATALITY INQUEST TODAY

Five Killed in Oil Refinery Plant Explosion

Only Other Survivor of Crew Also May Succumb

Men Sprayed With Liquid Fire as Pipe Breaks

An inquest will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon in Woods mortuary, 702 Broad avenue, Wilmington, over the bodies of five men who were burned to death yesterday when a six-inch steel tube connecting two cracking stills at the Shell Oil Company's refinery in Dominguez exploded and covered them with flaming oil.

One other man, burned, is lying in Seaside Hospital, Long Beach, and may die, according to investigating officers.

Those killed in the flaming oil were:

E. N. Ferguson, 35 years of age, pipefitter, 1431 Cruces street, Wilmington, killed instantly and burned beyond recognition. Identification was made by a signet ring worn on his finger.

Jeremiah Allen, 38, a still man's helper, of 1506 Roman street, Wilmington, died in Seaside Hospital, Long Beach.

L. J. Smith, 33, still man's helper, of 1036 Hellman street, Long Beach, died in Seaside Hospital.

J. A. Benere, 27, acting control man, of 1621 Frigate avenue, Wilmington, died in Seaside Hospital.

J. Y. Biddle, 34, pipefitter, of 2600 Pine street, Lomita, died in Seaside Hospital.

CAUSE OF FATALITY

Suffering from burns which hospital attendants fear will cause his death, J. J. Corbett, 25, of 102 North Irena street, Redondo, only surviving member of the crew working on the stills, is being cared for at the hospital where his fellow-workers died. He was the only unmarried man in the crew.

The explosion, which shook surrounding buildings, occurred shortly before the six men finished their eight-hour shift at 8 a.m. when they would have left the plant for the day.

A. W. Jurrisen, superintendent in charge of the plant, said that a large six-inch U tube linking two cracking stills gave way. The oil, heated to 700 deg. farenheit and under a pressure of more than 100 pounds to the square inch, ignited as soon as it came in contact with the oxygen in the air, spraying the men with liquid fire.

SECOND EXPLOSION

It is presumed by those who made the preliminary investigation for the oil company, that a flaw in the pipe, which had been installed last Saturday to replace an old fitting, caused it to burst and deal death to the crew of workmen.

Emergency crews from the refinery went to the rescue of the six men at once and soon succeeded in quenching the flames. Damage to the plant is estimated at approximately $10,000.

Another explosion caused by a bursting pipe in a separate section of the refinery a short time later resulted in no damage or injuries to workmen.

Harry C. Brewster, deputy Sheriff attached to the Sheriff's homicide investigation detail, and N. H. Burkhalter and J. L. Hayes of the Florence avenue substation of the Sheriff's office, investigated the case.

Dr. Emery Gets Post at Yale

Dr. E. Van Norman Emery of 400 South Orange Drive, who has been director of the Children's Guidance Clinic, has accepted a position as instructor in mental hygiene at Yale University and will leave here Friday with his family for New Haven, Ct. Prior to his five-year connection with the clinic, he was a member of the staff at the Norfolk State Hospital.

Last winter he took special clinic work in New York, at which time he visited Yale, with the resultant offer of an instructorship.

HARBOR TO BE THEME

"The Development of Los Angeles Harbor" will be discussed tonight by Lloyd V. Roberts of the Harbor Department at a regular meeting of the Western Statistical Association at the Windsor Tea Room on the twelfth floor of the Brack-Shops on West Seventh street. The address will be illustrated with four reels of film. Following Roberts's talk Guy E. Marion, president of the association, will lead a discussion of the port of Los Angeles.

by Harry Carr

IT WOULD be interesting to know how many real criminals gangsters and gunmen were rambling around loose in Santa Monica the day the police force made their raid on surf bathers suspected of the frightful crime of leaving the shoulder straps of their suits down.

WHOSE BUSINESS?

If she otherwise behaves herself and is unobtrusive about it, it would seem to be for the young lady to decide how much of her person she wishes to expose to the burning sun. If the police can't find anything more important to do than peek at bare shoulders Santa Monica had better reduce the number of policemen. Time must be hanging heavily on their hands.

"INDIAN MADE"

The Federal Trade Commission has stepped down hard on the fakers who advertise machine-made blankets as "Indian." It could well go a step farther and put a stop to the frauds of fakers who are putting out pretended Navajo jewelry and silver ornaments.

Much of the Navajo silver on the market is made by two concerns of imitators. One is located in Denver, the other in Massachusetts. Many asserted Navajo blankets are made in a factory in New Jersey.

A TOUGH STRUGGLE

There are two strong reasons why the government should put a stop to this fraud. The Navajo Indians have made a brave struggle for existence. They live on a reservation so poor and so barren that I don't see how a horned toad could make a living there—much less a nation of 60,000 people. Yet they have never complained or pleaded for help. One of the few ways they have of keeping starvation away is by the manufacture and sale of their beaten silver necklaces, concha belts, etc.

FLOODING A MARKET

It requires on their part slow, plodding work to beat out Mexican pesos into this beautiful art work. Its value lies partly in its comparative scarcity. If factories are allowed to pour it out like shingle nails—and disguise it as Indian made—it will soon be so common that women will turn away from all Navajo art work.

OUR ONE NATIVE ART

Another important reason is cultural.

Navajo beaten silver art is one of the few native arts of America. We have copied the Egyptian this and the Slavic that, and the Hindu something else; but the Navajo Indian is just about the only craftsman in America with brains enough to produce something absolutely unique and original.

You will notice—upon examination—that the factories imitating Navajo art are making little changes here and there. Although no Navajo ever found out there is such a thing as a cuff, "Navajo cuff links" are now appearing on the market.

The end is inevitable. The work of these crooks will destroy the one art of which we have any reason to be proud.

CHIROPRACTORS ELECT

Dr. S. J. Howell Chosen National Head Fourth Time; California Law Amendments Discussed

Dr. Samuel J. Howell of Sacramento last night was elected president of the National Progressive Chiropractors' Association at its convention in the Los Angeles College of Chiropractic. This will be the fourth term as president for Dr. Howell, who is secretary of the California State Board of Chiropractic Examiners. Dr. J. Ralph John, of Hollywood, formerly secretary of the Maryland State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, was elected vice-president. He also is president of the International Congress of Chiropractic Boards. Dr. Claude L. Fishback of Fresno was elected secretary, and Dr. George Shaefer of Phoenix, Ariz., was elected treasurer.

Proposed amendment of the California chiropractic laws was the leading topic at the convention yesterday.

The amendment as outlined by Dr. Fishback will raise the standard of education required of students and will advance professional requirements in chiropractic schools and colleges by increasing the minimum hours to 3600 upon the passage of the measure, and a further increase to 4000 hours, effective January 1, 1932. Minimum present requirements are 2400 hours.

The bill will also introduce electrical and physical therapeutics and additional hours of obstetrics and chemistry as requirements.

Additional powers for the board of examiners will be provided. The fee of a practitioner coming from another State will be increased from $25 to $100, and renewal of license will carry a fee of $5 instead of $2.

ATMOSPHERE ALL WET, SO WE PANT AND SWEAT

Relatively high humidity caused Angelenos to discard their coats yesterday afternoon under a maximum temperature of 85 deg.

The air carried 52 per cent humidity—more than half way to the maximum saturation point—during the warmest part of the day. Observers at the United States Weather Bureau here said this combination caused the otherwise normal temperature to seem oppressive.

Two more days of high humidity are predicted by the observers.

Redlands received the first of a possible series of thunder showers yesterday afternoon, which the Weather Bureau reported will not be unusual for surrounding territory under present meteorological conditions. The mercury reached 104 deg. in Redlands just before clouds let out .83 inches of rain, and then dropped suddenly to 89 deg.

A few drops of rain were reported from Hollywood at 6 a.m.

Local maximum temperatures have averaged about 3 deg. above the normal of 82 deg. for August, the Weather Bureau reported. The thermometer reached its lowest point for yesterday, 65 deg., at dawn, and climbed highest at 2 p.m.

HUGE BUILDING PROJECTED

Block-Long Height-Limit Structure for Garment Industry Will Cost $3,500,000

Plans for a $3,500,000, block-long, height-limit structure to be known as the California Needlecraft Building were announced yesterday by the W. Ross Campbell Company, Spring-street realty brokers.

The building, which will probably be erected this winter, is to be located in the area bounded by Seventh, Ninth, Los Angeles and Wall streets, the exact location being withheld pending closing of one of two options. The site will be 600 feet long, 100 feet wide at one end and seventy-five feet in width at the other.

Alec Curlett, architect, who prepared the plans, has designed a handsome structure of modified Spanish-Rennaisance type. The building, being long and narrow, permits light in every room, which is unique in light manufacturing units.

Centering of a great portion of the dress, piece goods, coat, suit, children's apparel, lingerie and millinery manufacturing business of Los Angeles in this building is forecast by Sam S. Silverstein, retired garment manufacturer of New York, who is now with W. Ross Campbell Company and who has been instrumental in the promotion of the plans.

Each individual industry will be segregated by floors for the convenience of buyers. Galleries will run around the interior of the building, opening off which will be show windows.

Two distinct departures in the architectural plans call for a roof-garden patio for holding style shows and elevator lobbies two stories in

COURT BATTLE STAGE ALL SET

Asserted Victim of Attack to Tell Story on Stand

Fitts Declares Her Account Remains Unshaken

Man Who Was Expected to Aid State Sought

With a search being conducted last night for an important witness who could not be located by District Attorney's investigators yesterday for questioning as to his knowledge of the asserted attack last Friday by Alexander Pantages, theater magnate, on 17-year-old Eunice Pringle, co-ed dancer, the stage was practically set for a dramatic court battle this afternoon when the theater man appears in Municipal Court.

Prosecutors admitted that the witness, from whom a sworn statement was taken following the asserted attack in Pantages's private office, could not be located last night.

The address the man gave police proved fictitious. Police are anxious to find him to use him as a State's witness.

CROWD EXPECTED

Dist.-Atty. Fitts and Chief Deputy District-Attorney Stewart, in charge of prosecution, declared last night that they are ready to carry their case to court and that after sworn statements have been taken during the past two days from every possible witness the Pringle girl's story of the asserted attack remains unbroken.

When Pantages appears in court today he will be accompanied by Attorneys W. I. Gilbert and Joseph Ford. The high point in the preliminary examination will come when Eunice Pringle takes the stand to tell her story, and her cross-examination is expected to be most exhaustive.

Expecting hundreds of persons to try to jam their way into Municipal Judge Wilson's courtroom on the seventh floor of the Hall of Records, where the hearing will be conducted, Presiding Judge Turney yesterday left instructions that an additional group of deputy sheriffs be assigned to keep order.

WITNESSES GUARDED

Throughout the day yesterday the District Attorney's office was busy completing the questioning of witnesses.

Late in the day Dist.-Atty. Fitts admitted that several of the more important are under special guard and that several threatening letters had been received. The contents of the letters were not made public, but it was stated that the writers advised those addressed to "be careful what you say," and some were told that "it would be a good idea if you get out of town."

Dr. Lewis A. Pringle, father of the complaining witness, reported to the District Attorney yesterday morning that he had been called over the telephone by an anonymous person and threatened if he insisted on pressing the prosecution of Pantages.

Witnesses in the case from whom statements were taken yesterday included A. L. Courtney, traffic officer stationed near the Pantages Theater; W. C. Hale, 1739 Sycamore street, and W. L. Gordon, 729 St. Andrews Place. These three witnesses arrived on the scene last Friday evening shortly after the Pringle girl's screams attracted attention.

GIRL REQUESTIONED

Eunice Pringle again was taken to the District Attorney's office, and again went over all of the facts in the case with Fitts and Stewart. The girl was accompanied by Policewoman Fairchild, who has stood guard over her in the Pringle home at 1116 North Mariposa street, for the past three days.

The first move of the District Attorney's office yesterday morning was to send Dep. Dist.-Atty. Harold Jones in command of a force of county draughtsmen and investigators to photograph and get the exact measurements of the box-like room on the mezzanine floor of the Pantages Theater Building, where the Pringle girl asserts Pantages lured her under the pretext of talking business and then violently attacked her.

The defendant theater man's preliminary hearing will be on two counts of criminal attack, both felonies, and on either of which he may be bound over to the Superior Court for trial if Judge Wilson considers the evidence sufficient. The State is expected to place approximately six witnesses on the stand. Whether the defense will present any evidence is problematical. No defense evidence is produced, usually, if, in the opinion of the defense attorneys, the State's evidence is strong enough to force a trial in Superior Court.

SEATTLE PASTOR PRAISES GIRL'S CHARACTER

SEATTLE, Aug. 13. (AP)—Rev. James E. Crowther, pastor of the University Methodist Church here, acknowledged today that he has telegraphed to authorities in Los Angeles that Eunice Pringle, who charged Alexander Pantages with attacking her, is "said by her Seattle friends to be a girl of fine moral character."

Dr. Crowther said he never knew the girl personally, and she has never been a member of his church, but that his knowledge of her character came from statements of friends.

"Had I known her personally I should have said a great deal more in her behalf," he said.

TRACK CHANGE FAVORED

Utilities Board Approves Franchise Request for Line on Grand Avenue Beyond Jefferson

Approval was given yesterday by the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation to the application of the Los Angeles Railway Company for a twenty-one-year franchise to double track Grand avenue for its electric line, from Jefferson street to Santa Barbara avenue, a distance of about seven blocks, instead of operating over its private right-of-way east of Grand avenue, as at present. The F, M and E cars would be affected by the proposed change, which will come before the City Council for action.

The board found several reasons for the change. Apartment-house owners, particularly on the east side of Grand avenue, would rather have the line fronting their property in the street, than to have it back of their property, also that the turnout from Grand avenue at Jefferson interferes with traffic, and traffic congestion at Santa Barbara and Grand is quite serious because the railway cuts diagonally across Santa Barbara.

The length of track to be laid under the proposed plan will be 3600 feet, in addition to the construction of a curve at Santa Barbara and a new crossing of the Pacific Electric at Exposition Boulevard.

It was explained to the board that the reason for the application at the present time is because of the opening and widening of Exposition Boulevard, which will entail the reconstruction of a number of spur tracks on the boulevard.

The franchise provisions provide that the work shall be complete two years from the date of the ordinance, when the City Council passes it.

RUMOR HAS WADLEIGH IN PORT POST

Announcement on Harbor Warden Shift Tomorrow, Says City Hall Report

Port Warden Terry, who has held that Harbor Department job for eight years under the administration of former Mayor Cryer, is slated for removal and the position is to be given to Frank Wadleigh, former grocer and camp foreman at the St. Francis Dam until shortly before the dam disaster, according to information circulating at the City Hall yesterday.

The position, which pays $350 monthly, is not under civil service and since the appointment of Terry was made by Mayor Cryer, it is understood the new administration regards it as one of the political plums to be given out.

When questioned on the subject, Mayor Porter denied any knowledge of a contemplated change, but admitted that he is well acquainted with Wadleigh.

President Allen, of the Harbor Board, admitted that a change is contemplated, but stated the matter is in the hands of General Manager Edwards.

Edwards also admitted that something is afoot and intimated that there will be an announcement probably tomorrow. It is reported that Wadleigh has called at the Harbor Department offices and introduced himself as the successor to Terry.

The port warden directs the harbor water-front guards, sees to it that shippers and steamship companies abide by harbor department rules and regulations, directs the cleaning up of harbor frontage and waters and has numerous other duties in the conduct of the port.

Cryer Portrait in New Position

The oil portrait of former Mayor Cryer, which was removed last week from the private office of Mayor Porter, was placed on the wall of the meeting room of the Municipal Art Commission yesterday. It was given a prominent place among the score or more of paintings which adorn the walls of the commission's room and not housed in the small chamber where the likenesses of many Los Angeles mayors of past days stare blankly over their ancient stocks.

The Cryer portrait was taken down from its former position directly facing Mayor Porter after, the latter stated, he gave in to the insistent requests of the Municipal Art Commission that the picture be placed in its art gallery.

JUDGE REVIEWS OFFER OF 'BRIBE'

Stafford Takes Stand in Newport Case

Notes Lacking on Talks Heard by Dictograph

Jurist Questioned on Trip to See Governor

Taking the stand in Superior Judge Doran's court as the first major witness in the prosecution of Robert D. Clarke and Fred P. Newport, accused of attempting to bribe Municipal Judge Stafford the jurist yesterday told the story of the asserted bribe offer attributed to Clarke and was still on the witness stand at adjournment last night, undergoing a withering fire of cross-examination by defense counsel.

MUNICIPAL JUDGE STAFFORD

Clarke, who formerly was a court clerk for Judge Stafford, and Newport, who is a wealthy real estate developer, are accused of conspiring to offer the Municipal Court judge $50,000 to alter his decision in a $1,000,000 suit against Newport so that it would favor the latter.

PRICE QUOTED BY JUDGE

In relating his story of the case Judge Stafford told of how Clarke spent much of his time in the court's chambers after the decision had been made in the Newport civil action, at first attempting to persuade him to change his decision.

Later, Judge Stafford said, Clarke suggested that it would be worth anywhere from $5000 to $50,000 for the judge to make a favorable decision.

The jurist then informed the District Attorney of the offer and arrangements were made to place a dictograph in his office to record future conversations of this nature, he stated.

At this point Lecompte Davis, who with William Neblett is defending Newport, demanded to see the dictograph notes asserted to have been made when Clarke made the asserted bribe offer. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Denison told the court that no notes were made by Robert Herron, District Attorney's stenographer.

STILL FRIEND OF CLARKE

During the closing hour of cross-examination of Judge Stafford by William Kendrick, Jr., attorney for Clarke, the jurist admitted that he had made a trip to Sacramento to speak to Gov. Young in favor of a pending bill which would increase the salaries of the Municipal Court judges. When pressed, with the question that he had met the Governor explicitly to seek an appointment as Superior Court Judge, Judge Stafford vigorously denied it.

Earlier in his testimony Judge Stafford had testified that Clarke had sought to influence his decision by saying that Newport could secure him an appointment to the Superior Court bench. He further averred that the former clerk had also offered him title to a lot in the Verdugo Hills district.

Testimony indicating that although Judge Stafford had obtained Clarke's arrest, they still remain friends also was brought out during cross-examination when the judge admitted that he had been swimming with the defendant since his arrest.

WILL RESUME STAND

Judge Stafford also admitted that he had dispatched Clarke to the office of Attorney Neblett, who represented Newport in the civil action, to verify or disprove reports that Neblett had told certain persons that he would "get Judge Stafford."

Clarke returned and told Judge Stafford that he had talked the matter over with Neblett and that the latter was friendly and had nothing personal against the jurist, Judge Stafford said.

The Municipal Court jurist is expected to resume the stand today and continue testimony under cross-examination. When he has finished his version of the case other witnesses will be called to corroborate his statements.

PROTESTS TURNED DOWN

Council yesterday denied protests against the improvement of Orlando avenue between Rosewood avenue and Beverly Boulevard, the improvement of Jordan avenue between Devonshire street and Craggy View street, and the improvement of M street between Wilmington Boulevard and Machado avenue. The hearing of protests against the improvement of Ninth avenue between Forty-eighth and Fifty-fourth streets was continued until August 14, 1930.

Arlyn Tibbits was an inveterate prevaricator, which made life extremely miserable for his wife, Mrs. Pauline S. Tibbits, she testified yesterday before Superior Judge Dehy when asking for a divorce.

Another thing about Tibbits which was a constant annoyance to Mrs. Tibbits, she declared, was his refusal to take a bath. She declared he somethimes went as long as two weeks without taking a bath.

The wife also accused the husband of being too attentive to other women.

A decree was granted.

Objection on the part of Newton L. Maryett to his wife riding in an automobile with another man resulted in Maryett being sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve twenty days in jail for disturbing the peace by Municipal Judge Thompson.

The husband is asserted to have struck at S. D. Niman, Mrs. Maryett's companion, but Niman, who is larger, in the subsequent fight bested Maryett and brought about his appearance in court. Two other persons were in the automobile at the time, according to testimony.

Constitutional Rights Com- it was informed by Miss Nora Sterry, principal of the Macy street school, that Julian Garcia and Louis Esquivel had been wrongfully held after defending themselves from an attack by a number of youths.

OTHER ARRESTS

The committee also drew attention to other cases of arrests, one of them in which J. M. Landess and Edward Carver were detained. According to the committee the men were held for battery and for drinking and in court had been acquitted of both charges. It was declared that officers in arresting Landess had knocked out two of his teeth.

W. H. Anderson, chairman of the committee, wrote the commission that "the time was now ripe for a thorough investigation by the commission of these arrests and that the officers, according to accounts, acted in a reprehensible manner." The officers were not named.

"I think it is high time," said President Thorpe, "that this high-handed work by the police be discontinued. I think the officers ought to be brought before this board and questioned. There has been so much of this going on and for a long time we have been trying to stop it. It is time these officers stopped thinking that they are a law unto themselves."

"I concur in those sentiments," stated Drake.

Pierce expressed the view that there should be hearings on the complaints.

Thorpe declared the men should be suspended.

Deputy Prosecutor McGann, in answer to the report that the city prosecutor had refused to issue complaints against the officers, said that the complainants usually come in and make wild statements without any corroboration that would make the cases stick in court.

Drake was appointed to investigate and report.

NEW LEGAL CLASH OVER WATER NEAR

City Prepares Suits Against Glendale and Burbank in Los Angeles River Row

In accordance with action taken recently by the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, the Department of Water and Power yesterday was completing its plans to file suit to enjoin the cities of Glendale and Burbank from drawing water from the underground channels of the Los Angeles River.

The city's legal right to retain ownership of all of the water in the Los Angeles River channel is being carried forward by Deputy City Attorney Hill in the Water and Power Department.

In its move to prevent, if possible, any further withdrawal of water from the Los Angeles River by Glendale and Burbank, the city contends that it has possessed sole rights to all of the water in that stream continuously since the establishment of Los Angeles as a Spanish pueblo in 1781. This right to all of the river's waters, Deputy City Attorney Hill declares, has been upheld by several State Supreme Court decisions and by the United States Supreme Court.

During the past several years, it is pointed out, Burbank and Glendale have been withdrawing water from the river for domestic use.

"There can be no doubt but that Los Angeles possesses absolute right to the water of the Los Angeles River," declared Hill yesterday.

"These rights, in fact date back to the original grant by the King of Spain to the Pueblo of Los Angeles—a grant which has been sustained in law continuously ever since.

"Furthermore, the right of the city to the water of the Los Angeles River has been upheld in several famous cases, notably the Pomeroy-Hooker case. This case, which was won by the city more than twenty-five years ago, was carried to the United States Supreme Court—and the city's rights to the waters of the river was established by this high court.

"The city charter of Los Angeles also specifically sets forth the city's rights in this stream. Furthermore, the charter provides that these rights are inalienable.

"All of the waters of the Los Angeles River now are needed by the city of Los Angeles due to the continuing growth of the city and the subnormal rainfall conditions that have prevailed during the past several years. We consider it the duty of the officials of Los Angeles to protect and safeguard this precious possession of the city. That is why we are taking such action as is deemed necessary as to prevent further loss of these waters."

YOUTHFUL DANCER'S BONDS CANCELED

TOO-YOUNG WIFE FREED BY DECREE

Husband Given Divorce in Ernst Case as Court Holds Spouse at Fault

Mrs. Frances Ernst, 17 years of age, formerly a juvenile stage dancer, is too young and temperamental to be married, in the belief of Superior Judge Rector, who late yesterday granted her husband, Clarence J. Ernst, a divorce on the grounds of mental cruelty. The ruling was made after a hearing lasting two days on the petition of Ernst and the cross-complaint of his young wife.

It was intimated at the close of the trial that Ernst will pay something toward the support of his ex-wife.

Ernst, 26, son of Jacob Ernst, commercial printer, brought suit for divorce after six months of married life. The petition was answered with a cross-complaint filed by Mrs. Ernst. Both complaints asserted cruelty.

Judge Rector, however, held that it was the temperament of Mrs. Ernst that caused the trouble in the home and gave the decree to the husband.

Wealthy Realty Woman Wins in Alimony Battle

Mrs. Blanche Roberts, wealthy real-estate operator, musician and short-story writer, was awarded $250 a month alimony and $750 for her attorney, when she appeared in Superior Judge Sproul's court on an alimony hearing yesterday, after she testified that her husband's income is more than $1250 a month.

MRS. BLANCHE ROBERTS

Mrs. Roberts is suing her husband, Frank S. Roberts, for divorce, naming Miss Madeline Morley as co-respondent. She asserted misconduct in several cities, on railroad trains.

"She doesn't want my money, she just wants to make a bum out of me and see me in the gutter," Roberts stated on the affidavit he made concerning his and his wife's resources.

Mrs. Roberts stated in her petition that her husband notified her that he had obtained a divorce from her in Nogales, Son., Mex., but she asserted this action is invalid.

Plans to organize the 131 Community Chest agencies into an effective working unit for the 1929 annual Chest fund-raising campaign will be formulated at this year's first Community Chest mass meeting this evening at Patriotic Hall under the auspices of the agency co-operation committee.

All trustees and directors of agencies in membership in the Community Chest, as well as members of the Chest board and social welfare workers, will be in attendance. The accomplishments of the Community Chest during the year and its further needs will be outlined by a group of speakers headed by Mayor Porter, who was captain of Division 4 on the downtown business districts in last year's Community Chest campaign. The other speakers will include J. A. H. Kerr, Chest campaign chairman; Mrs. George Herbert Clark, member of the Board of Education and president of the newly created Council of Social Agencies, and D. C. The mass meeting will be presided over by I. Irving Lipsitch, executive director of the Federation of Jewish Welfare Organizations, and chairman of the agency co-operation committee. A feature will be an exhibit displaying the scope of relief extended by Chest agencies.

If a plane flies too low or violates any State or city regulation, the policeman is to note all identifying marks in order to report them and to obtain a complaint from the City Prosecutor.

CITY HEALTH BETTER, SAY STATISTICS

Parrish's Report Shows Smallpox and Diphtheria Cases on Decline

That systematized vigilance can save a city from the ravages of typhoid, food poisoning, malaria, plague and other diseases is brought to light through statistics in the latest report of the Los Angeles City Health Department, issued yesterday and containing significant figures for the year ending June 30, last.

The active campaign carried on by Dr. George Parrish, Health Officer, against diphtheria is revealed by the report that there were only 752 cases of this dread disease during the year ending on that date, as against 1740 for the previous year and 2028 for the year ending June 30, 1927. Only fifty-one deaths resulted, as compared with eighty-five in 1928 and eighty-nine in 1927.

Smallpox, too, showed a reduction of cases, there having been only twenty-nine, as against fifty-nine and forty-nine for the two previous years, respectively. With a population of more than 1,000,000 there is less smallpox in Los Angeles today than ever before, according to Dr. Parrish.

Through the health officer's efforts all food establishments have been placed under a permit system; and this vigilance is reflected in the sickness rates. There were fewer cases of food poisoning during the year ending June 30, than ever before, only one death occurring as against five in 1928. Only eighty cases of typhoid were recorded during the year, compared with a yearly average of 119.4 for the five-year period ending June 30, 1927.

SPEAKER LEVEY DUE HERE TODAY

Assembly Leader Will Confer on Tax Commission

Carnahan Will Give Help in Naming Members

Improvement-Law Group Also to be Considered

Edgar C. Levey, speaker of the California Assembly, will arrive in Los Angeles today for a three-days' visit connected with legislative business. He will be guest of honor at noon at a luncheon given by the Bnai Brith at the Alexandria. On Friday Speaker Levey plans to hold a conference with Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan, at which time the several legislative committees and commissions are to be made up.

EDGAR C. LEVEY

The most important of these is the Legislative Tax Commission, to be composed of members of the Assembly and Senate. This commission will replace the commission appointed two years ago by Gov. Young.

Gov. Young's commission filed a lengthy report and spent $75,000, but aside from the bank and corporation tax and the intangibles levy emergency matters, the Legislature took no action on the report. The legislative commission is expected to work out a new system of State taxes during the next year. It is probable that Assemblyman Sewell of Whittier will be one of the members of this committee.

Speaker Levey and Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan also are expected to name the members of the legislative committee which is to work out changes in the State improvement laws, under which municipal projects are constructed and assessments levied. Among those under consideration as appointees to this committee are Senator Mueller of El Cajon, Assemblyman Little of Santa Monica and Assemblyman Woolwine of Los Angeles.

Today's Bible Text

He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loved me; and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. St. John xiv:21.

WHERE DID HE RAZOR?

HARD TO READ

What does a Chinese statesman do when he gets a note from Russia—or vice versa for that matter? Those boys can never be accused of reading each other's mail.

THEY ALL DO IT

Also Jim Watson of Indiana speaks facetiously of pasture pool—as he is pleased to call the game of golf. But the Senate leader needn't be so cocky. The links will get him yet. Few Senators have escaped—or cared to. Some of our finest political strategy is developed around the nineteenth hole.

EXPLANATIONS IN ORDER

What the doctors call the California disease is not what most folk would expect. It was the idea that the ailment was an insatiable longing for the climatic and other wonders of the Golden State. It might be an affection of the heart, but no other organs were suspected. The doctors will probably have to make further explanation.

MAKING PROGRESS

There are figures to prove that the fight against tuberculosis is being successfully waged. There is a slump of 10 per cent in the annual death rate from this ailment this year. This in spite of the fact that there is a slight increase in cases in the ranks of the flappers—due to their underdieting and their devotion to night life.

TO THE DAM SITE

The Union Pacific will build a bit of road from a point on their present system a few miles south of Las Vegas direct into Black Canyon, where the Colorado dam will be built. This is a distance of but twenty-three miles and will give the site of this great improvement instant freight connection with the wide, wide world. It will be one-way traffic for a time, but in the long run the stub will be as valuable as it is important at the outset.

THE FARM BOARD

Membership of the Federal Farm Board was completed when the name of former Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie of Nebraska was added as the representative of the grain interests. The board is admittedly a competent one and is made up wholly of experts and authorities. Not all of the members will remain with the organization indefinitely. They are worth more in their former fields. But they will cling long enough to prepare a program and get the official machinery under operation. The day may come when the plant will be able to operate under its own power. Then the politicians will have to dig up something else to worry about.

A BOON TO THE EARS

The 1929 Legislature will long be held in grateful remembrance if there is general observance of the law, effective today, which prohibits the use of automobile horns as a substitute for doorbells. From now on, those who sit in parked cars and cause raucous sounds for the purpose of attracting somebody's attention indoors, to save themselves a few steps of walking to the door, will be subject to arrest. The only lawful use of an automobile horn is as a warning signal, to be given only when necessary.

Honking in tunnels and setting off electric signals to clear a traffic jam is also illegal. The drivers who restrict their horn blasts in accordance with the new law will not only save their batteries, wear and tear on the horn mechanism and wear and tear on the eardrums of all with hearing, but they may save themselves from being fined.

Unfortunately the new law does not seek to prevent either unnecessary use of police sirens or unnecessary clanging of trolley-car gongs. There is too much of this oo-eeee business and too much of this whang-whang in the streets of Los Angeles. Traffic itself is productive of much annoying clatter, without adding to the din.

A FLOOD OF NEW LAWS

Citizens of California wake up today with a new set of obligations to their State—the duty of giving obedience to the 891 laws passed by the Legislature of 1929. Many, of course, concern the ordinary citizen not at all, but there are others, such as the changes in the motor-vehicle law, which affect nearly everybody. Of these the ones attracting the most notice are the requirement that automobile drivers' licenses must be renewed every two years and the semicompulsory liability insurance law, which has been compared to the supposed legal maxim giving a dog one bite before declaring him vicious.

Of considerable indirect effect may be the laws speeding up court procedure and establishing new courts. Much benefit is expected to result from the law making slander a crime, made necessary by the vast amount of objectionable matter broadcast from some radio stations.

Then there is the law regulating the shape of pears, which confirms what the Legislature conceived to be nature's intentions in the matter. An earlier generation would have left the shape of pears to providence, but this one will not be satisfied till it has regulated everything.

Though the Legislature was importuned to adopt a law requiring every automobile driver to carry insurance protecting the possible victims of accidents, such as is in effect in Massachusetts, it adopted instead an ingenious plan which it is believed will have the beneficial effects (if any) of the Massachusetts law without its disadvantages. Under this statute, no driver or car owner against whom a final judgment of more than $100 for personal injury or property damage is rendered, and who fails to satisfy the judgment within a short time, will be permitted to drive or have a car licensed until the judgment is paid and until he has made provision for compensating the victims of future accidents. This provision may be insurance of not less than $10,000 for death or injury and $1000 for property damage, or a surety bond of $15,000, or the deposit of $11,000 cash with the State.

Thus careful or financially responsible drivers may carry their own insurance if they wish. Since there are thousands of motorists who never have accidents and only a small proportion are ever involved in serious ones, the option thus given may be accepted by those who feel sure of their ability to keep out of trouble, to pay damages if they get into it, or who are willing to stop driving. The practical effect of the law is expected to be a large increase in the volume of insurance carried and this increase should, in the normal course, result in lower rates. It should also result in the elimination of some, at least, of the careless and irresponsible as operators of motor vehicles.

A rather silly amendment to the automobile law requires drivers to stop at railroad crossings when the wigwag signal is waving. There is, of course, no way to enforce this law except to station a traffic policeman at every crossing. Careful drivers already observe all the necessary caution and careless ones will pay no attention to the law, anyway. The statute seeks to impose a fine as a penalty for an infraction of a rule for which the present penalty is likely to be death or serious injury.

The only effect will be to reduce the civil liability of railroads for grade-crossing accidents and make them less anxious than they now are to eliminate grade crossings. They have been reluctant enough to do this in the past.

Under the "radio slander bill" victims of reckless and untruthful statements made over the air may get partial satisfaction by obtaining the prosecution of the offender. This has not been possible in the past, since slander has not been a crime in this State.

Some statistician with plenty of time on his hands might estimate the cost to the State of these 891 statutes, of which probably 75 per cent are useless or positively harmful. The State of Utah gets along with the enactment of an average of less than 100 laws at each legislative session, while only two laws were enacted by the Missouri Legislature this year. The Missouri precedent was set by a political deadlock, but there has been nothing in the news to indicate that the State is suffering.

SPANISH CALIFORNIA DAYS

A few side-line observers skeptical about our devotion to California's historical past or overimpressed by the attention we confer on modern commercial progress, foolishly imagine that the time will come when there will be nothing left in our California cities or along our California highways to perpetuate the romantic origins handed down to us from the days of the Dons and the Padres.

There are numerous signs in every part of the country from San Diego to San Francisco that in the rush of endless change, construction and development Californians are everywhere alert and vigilant to preserve the poetry and tradition and background of the California we inherited from the Spanish conquistadores and the Franciscan fathers.

Yet even if this reverent remembrance in which we hold our historic past were not so evident and so widespread, the enthusiasm, the zeal, the devotion of Santa Barbara and Monterey alone are sufficient to perpetuate the history of the part Spanish America once played in the evolution of California life and California achievement.

Through four colorful days of the present week the citizens of Santa Barbara will relive the old Spanish days in the fiesta they stage there every year, to demonstrate the spirit that built and still sustains this ideal California city of dreams-come-true, this veritable castle in Spain materialized on the shores of the blue Pacific.

Santa Barbara, every day of the year, exemplifies in its setting and its architecture its faithful adherence to the traditions it has preserved intact through the inevitable changes of time and customs. But in its four-day fiesta it actually becomes once more a chapter of Spanish-American history, true to facts and gorgeous in symbolism.

Neither are the old Californians of the Monterey Peninsula behind the burghers of Santa Barbara in paying tribute to our glorious past.

From Monterey over the cypress-clad hills to beautiful Carmel and thence to the hoary Carmel Mission, where repose the mortal remains of Fra Junipero Serra, a pageant pilgrimage will tread the beaten trails of the fathers to perform again the solemn rites on the old altar and to hear again the impressive roll call of the missions. Many of those taking part in this festival will be descendants of the Spanish and Mexican occupations.

President Hoover, speaking at Albuquerque last year, extolled the Spanish-American civilization of New Mexico which he found there at its best and which he hoped the people of New Mexico would always preserve, unspoiled and uncontaminated. We trust the President will find it in his heart to bracket his own State with that of New Mexico in view of what so many of our citizens are doing to deserve that honor. In Santa Barbara, Monterey and Carmel, at least, modern America and old Spain are still united.

HOW COCKTAILS ARE MADE

What goes into the average cocktail? This anteprandial aperitif contains more ingredients than the bitters, synthetic gin, ice and the cherry or olive. In it are gunpowder, bullets, blackjacks, human blood, rattling death gargles, a strong tincture of currency and sweat. That makes the cocktail more expensive than is visible at first sight.

Few hosts, hostesses or guests of the social 400 realize these outside ingredients. The festive board would be turned into a most distressing wake of horrified mourners if the blood-bespattered specters of bootleg victims could rise before the eyes of sippers of the cocktail. All the "good cheer" would vanish from the party and turn gentlemen and ladies at the private bar into conscience-stricken accomplices, could they but see their true selves of reflected guilt in the mirror.

The economic feature of the bootleg analysis is just as uninviting, if less ghastly. If the financial statistician begins to figure up the national expenditure on the law-enforcement personnel, prosecutions, prison maintenance, etc., the annual total will run high in the millions. Then divide the total by the number of cocktails served and the price of the little sip will equal a day's wage of the average clerk and employee. That ultimate cost of a cocktail does not protrude itself when "my bootlegger" knocks at your back door to exchange his quart for your $5 bill, but his call represents that composite amount nevertheless.

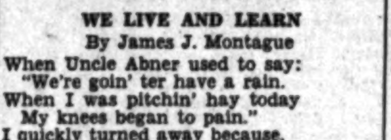
The clandestine intimacy with "my bootlegger" boils down to a costly, selfish indulgence on the part of the social host and his guests which is altogether out of proportion with the trivial enjoyment it affords. The ambition to be a good sport proves, therefore, a poor sport after all; especially so when you take into consideration that the bootlegger whom you don't want to "know socially" is the only beneficiary in the end.

STICKLERS IN LAW

Man who was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary is now demanding his absolute freedom on the ground that as he had twice previously been convicted of felony he had to be sentenced for life. This life term not having been applied the law has not been met and, therefore, he is free. So his argument goes. A wastrel who is as finicky as this should be accommodated. The judge should tell him he is perfectly welcome to his perpetual sentence.

SENATE GUERRILLAS

One of the passengers brought over on the Zeppelin was a young gorilla. Maybe he can grow up into a Senator. The correspondents tell of numbers of guerrillas in the Senate and of the brand of warfare they provide. What's the difference?



WE LIVE AND LEARN

By James J. Montague

When Uncle Abner used to say:
"We're goin' ter have a rain.
When I was pitchin' hay today
My knees began to pain."
I quickly turned away because,
Though I was young in years
I felt convinced my uncle was Too soft between the ears.

When Aunt Eliza would remark
In shrill prophetic tones:
"The snow'll be three foot deep by dark,
I feel it in my bones."
My head I smilingly inclined,
But did not deign to speak;
I thought that the old lady's mind
Was getting rather weak.

But now a scientist maintains—
And proves it, if you please—
That changing weather does cause pains
In people's arms and knees.
And when they say: "It's goin' to snow
Or mebbe sleet tonight,
My legs is achin', so I know,"
They usually are right.

Today I frequently deplore
My children's want of tact.
They've got to doubting, more and more,
That I state only fact.
But well those scientific chaps
Their work have gone about,
And in a few more years, perhaps,
My kids will just find out!

The LEE SIDE o' L·A

BY Lee Shippey

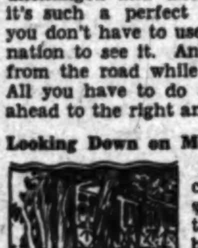
DEAR LEESIDE: Southern California has lost a lot of its thrilliest thrills. It used to be that when you drove up the Waterman Canyon road to Lake Arrowhead you thought every minute was going to be your last. But now there's a new road so that the only thrills one gets are those of beauty. There is no longer any thrill of danger, provided your engine and your brakes are all right. If they aren't you'd better take the electric line to San Berdoo and the bus from there.

But the new road is more beautiful than ever. Or maybe it's just because one isn't half scared to death and can look around at the scenery instead of just regretting his past life and wishing he was a bit more ready to meet his Maker.

Nature's Immortal Masterpiece

The first thrill you get as you drive up from San Bernardino is the arrowhead nature has carved on the mountainside near Arrowhead Springs. Long before the white men came the Indians agreed that arrowhead was the Great Spirit's mark for a place of healing, for there are about seventeen different kinds of mineral springs there and more mud baths than a man can get in politics. If you'd take all the baths and drink all the waters they'd cure you of nearly everything, including the prosperity habit. It is impressive to think that after all these centuries, during which winter rains and spring thaws have washed deep canyons through the mountains and occasional forest fires have destroyed vegetation, that arrowhead is unchanged and unchangeable. And it's such a perfect arrowhead that you don't have to use a ton of imagination to see it. Anybody can see it from the road while just driving by. All you have to do is keep looking ahead to the right and there it is.

Looking Down on Mountains



The next thrills come when you get up so high that you can look back on the road you have traveled half an hour before, winding and twisting below you and clear over the tops of mountains you thought were sky high when you were going up them. And when you drive along the edge of a high banked curve you are too thrilled for words. Because any words which might distract the driver's attention might make you fa' down and go Doom!

And then, less than three hours from Los Angeles, you're in the big trees hiding charming little camps along the edge of the "sky-blue water." For Lake Arrowhead is so clear you can look right down at the fish and in the midst of all those big green trees looks just like an 800-acre piece of deep blue sky turned upside down.

A Model Camp

Lake Arrowhead is all under one management, with result that it would be hard to find a lovelier or more delightful spot than the Lake Arrowhead Village and the Village Inn and the Lodge are just the sort of places we expected to find when we learned they are managed by that same remarkable woman who owns the Desert Inn at Palm Springs. As soon as I marry my millionaire I'm going to spend a lot of vacations there or at the North Shore Tavern. But on this trip we were looking for something very economical, so we decided to try one of the camps. We came to one so pretty that we were charmed at once and turned in. It had a lot of spick and span cabins and a lovely little clubhouse, with a good dancing floor and an interesting looking dining-room and we were for it like kids for candy. But we were doomed to disappointment. It was a private camp, owned by the Pacific Electric and operated for its employees. Honestly, they have everything—sightseeing busses, motor launches, boats, a private plunge, grounds for games and recreations and a man can take his whole family there for from $9 to $12 a week and buy his food supplies from a commissary operated by the company at cost. They say the company loses a good deal of money every year on that camp, but it surely did make me wish I was a conductor or a motorman.

But they wouldn't have us, so we drove on to the village for lunch—and how we did eat! There's something about real mountain air that makes you eat and sleep as if you were in an endurance contest. And it's real mountain air here, scented with pines and cooled by deep shadows. One tree is 187 feet tall, so you get some idea how deep the shadows are and the way the sunlight filters through the trees makes you wish you were an artist. In the top of one of the trees on the lake the forest rangers have a lookout. It must be pretty thrilly to sit up there in a little box, about fifty feet higher than a height-limit building in Los Angeles.

It was hot when we left the city, but up here we have to sleep under three blankets and a quilt. Think of that while you're mopping your brow these August days, Leeside, and come on up.

The Truth, the Whole Truth

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The articles you are printing on the prohibition question by Mrs. Willebrandt are certainly good.

In addition to being informative and instructive, her frankness in expressing her opinions of many who have had to do with the enforcement of this law makes them especially valuable in aiding others less well acquainted with the operation of this governmental department to form proper conclusions regarding a vexing problem.

You are rendering a most worthy service to the public by giving them the facts Mrs. Willebrandt possesses.

C. D. KIMBALL.

Honest Exposure

GLENDALE, Aug. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times:] This is just a word of appreciation for your printing those most able, constructive and certainly timely expositions of Mrs. Willebrandt.

We have not only read all of them so far but are saving and handing around among the neighbors.

Honest exposure will have a great effect, as few people really have any idea of the political corruption connected with it. Thanking you for bringing out this very timely series. I am

Same Old Trouble

LOS ANGELES, Aug 10.—[To the Editor of The Times:] This lamentable controversy, owing to the Equity, which has occasioned so much ill feeling and real distress—what can it possibly have accomplished if the most it ends in shall be some questionable compromise? That an association which is apparently borrowing its ethics from Chicago gunmen and which has so outrageously shown itself not amenable to reason, should continue to receive the consideration of recognition by producers, is to be regretted.

This association, which, in its greed for members, has succeeded in deluding so many poor, benighted extras into believing a rosy future awaits under the banner of a triumphant Equity—what are they likely to do? What evils are they likely to eradicate?

The only real existing trouble is the lack of work—the old "supply exceeding the demand"—and that will continue to exist as long as Hollywood is the mecca of the world. The producers are not to blame for that, certainly.

VIRGINIA TANGEN.

The Wrong Andrew

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A day or two ago you stated (clipping inclosed) in your paper, as a matter of news, that Andrew Jackson was a tailor. A historic blunder of this character is wholly inexcusable. Andrew Jackson was not a tailor. He was a Democrat and he never made a suit of clothes for anybody.

It may be you have reference to Andrew Johnson, who was Governor of Tennessee and afterwards President of the United States.

Do not let a historic blunder like this occur again. As a Democrat I protest against Jackson being classified by a modern Republican prohibitionist as a tailor.

JAMES DUNCAN.

No Union Depot

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Los Angeles, one of the most progressive cities in the world, has absolutely the most antiquated railroad facilities in the United States. Go to Spokane, Wash., also Seattle and see real railroad terminals. Do something and this community will rise up and call you great.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Beauty Culture?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

The last of October examinations for beauty operators will be held. In order to aid those in the trade who wish to pass these examinations the Frank Wiggins Trade Evening School, Venice Boulevard, between Hill street and Grand avenue, will hold free classes each Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. in the theory of beauty culture. The only expense to the student will be $1 enrollment fee.

This course begins September 10. Those wishing to assure themselves a place in the class should go in person to the Frank Wiggins school before or on August 16 between 1 and 9 p.m. and ask to have their names placed on the waiting list.

The State requires that all beauty operators pass this examination. Branches of study included are physiology, biology, chemistry and business practices. There is also sterilization, sanitation and the laboratory analyzing of creams, lotions and other cosmetics. Electrolysis is included and simple book-keeping and accounting, as well as the ethics of the trade.

A back yard may make a cozy retreat, but in most instances the mosquitoes get there first.

SUNSHINE CONSCIOUS

BY FAITH HOLMES HYERS

"It's taken us several centuries to begin to get sunshine-conscious," remarked Hi-Jinks, contemplatively, "even in this well-nigh perpetually sun-kissed land."

"What d'yu mean, 'sunshine-conscious'?" queried Lo-Jinks. "Able to take a punishing amount of hot sun on your baked bean without succumbing to the fatal sunstroke?"

"On the contrary," replied Hi-Jinks. "I mean it has taken us centuries to learn to profit by the beneficence of the sun-ray; to build up our advertising on sun-kissed oranges and sun-tanned bathing beauties; to place solar heaters on our roofs—and, in fact, to admit the sunbeam into our scheme of living—our hearts and homes, as it were!"

"Yeah! I get you!" grunted Lo-Jinks. "This sun-ray consciousness is beginning to get under the skin. The fashion complex demands cocoanut brown as a background for white summer wear. Those who haven't time and beach-club memberships enough to acquire it in the great, white, sandy way may apply it painlessly and promptly. But it looks to me as if the 1929 bathing suits are designed for a sunburn conscious!"

"It's in the bathing-suit mode that we are proving our good sense," approved Hi-Jinks. "We go bathing for healthful exercise and to acquire life-giving vitamines of violet sun-rays. Then why cover up the poor human frame that has so little freedom?"

"Why, indeed?" murmured Lo-Jinks, sotto voce, "except to avoid another pageant of nakedness?"

"Bathing-suit styles for men display the only gleam of common sense in the male styles," continued Hi-Jinks. "Civilized coverings for the superior sex have developed a highly uncomfortable and barbarous attire, essentially alike for all temperatures and all purposes. Dark suits, all wool and many yards wide, politely up-standing collars, binding ties and the conventional tight-fitting vest—all these we endure when the Fahrenheit records 90 deg. in the shade as well as when an eastern winter sends the thermo down to 18 deg. below zero! Meantime look at the women!"

"Yeah, I do," grinned Lo-Jinks. "Considerable of 'em showing up these summer days. High legs, long arms, tennis backs, all sun-tanned 'n' everything. Pretty satisfying to look at, if anybody should ask you!"

"They dress for the place and the season and for comfort," argued Hi-Jinks. "They look cool, act cool and keep cool. While we poor, male convention-mongers go about in sheep's clothing and feel as cross as bears!"

"Are you recommending a sleeveless, legless, backless garb for bankers?" chuckled Lo-Jinks.

"I suggest a Pacific Beach ensemble in tones suited to our complexions—light trousers of thinnest wool, sport shirts open at the throat and woven sandals for business; light, unlined coats for driving, golf suits for sports, and down with the dress shirts and tuxedos!"

"Nuff said!" agreed Lo-Jinks. "I'm with you in spirit and suffering body. All you need to do is to get 10,000 joiners who solemnly swear to follow the styles you set. We men never could endure to be different."

LIFE

And what is Life?
Asked the lowly worm
As it writhed through the loose, dark mold;
And slowly the thought became manifest
That Life is clinging cold.

And what is Life?
Peeped the little bird
As it gobbled a worm so good;
And the answer came in its mother's chirp,
"Why, darling, Life is food."

And what is Life?
Wailed the newborn babe
As it lay on its mother's breast;
And, lip to brow, the mother breathed,
"My baby, Life is blest."

And what is Life?
Asked the happy child
As it frolicked about all day;
And all of Nature made reply,
"For you, child, Life is play."

And what is Life?
Cried the gay, young blade
To his car, on a record run;
And, haply, the madly whirling wheels
Hummed, "Young sir, Life is fun."

And what is Life?
The young bride asked
Of the million stars above;
And from the lips of her new-wed lord
Came answer, "Life is love."

And what is Life?
Said the business man
As he gathered in millions amain;
In clinking tones the coins made known
The fact that Life is gain.

And what is Life?
The poet sighed
As he watched the flickering gleams
Of his burning logs and the thought came then
That Life is simply dreams.

And what is Life?
Cried my hungry soul
To a tree, with its roots in the sod,
And a million leafy voices sang
"Why, all of Life is God."

Prize Winner at Kellogg Ranch

Pomona Estate Soon to Contain Greatest Collection of Registered Arabian Horses in America

Looking forward to the service of preserving the pure lineage of Arabian horses for posterity and to conducting breeding operations on a larger scale at the W. K. Kellogg Arabian Horse Ranch near here, announcement was made yesterday that Mr. Kellogg has purchased fourteen more head of registered Arabians in the East and that the new horses elevate the Kellogg stable to the largest registered Arabian stable in the United States and probably the second largest in the world. The announcement was made by H. H. Reese, in charge of the Kellogg ranch, who returned Monday from the East where he and Mr. Kellogg bought the new horses during a tour of all Arabian stables east of the Mississippi River.

At all points, Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Reese found Arabian breeders doubling their efforts to build up their stables. It was explained by W. R. Brown, Berlin, N. H., president of the Registered Arabian Horse Association of America, that there are few good Arabian horses left in the desert of Arabia and that for the last fifteen years breeding operations of the Arabs have not been emphasized.

LARGEST IN AMERICA

When the new horses arrive from the East next week, Mr. Kellogg will have sixty-five head of registered Arabians on his ranch west of Pomona. In all, there will be more than 100 head of horses at the estate, including a few Kentucky saddle horses, Pinto ponies and others used on the ranch for purposes other than exhibition. The total of sixty-five of registered Arabians is about 20 per cent greater than any other Arabian stable in the United States, according to Mr. Reese.

Mr. Reese believes that there is only one stable of Arabians in the world which exceeds in size that of Mr. Kellogg. This is the Crabbet Park stud in England, owned by Lady Wentworth. Mr. Kellogg purchased several head of Arabians in the past from Lady Wentworth when he first started building up his stable. Lady Wentworth has about 110 registered Arabians. There are two other large stables, one in Egypt and the other in Poland, but Mr. Kellogg's stable is believed to be larger than these.

FEW CLOSE RIVALS

In America, the nearest approach to Mr. Kellogg's stable in numbers of Arabians are the forty-eight at Mr. Brown's stable in New Hampshire, and the forty-three owned by Albert W. Harris, Chicago, and stabled at his estate in Pomona Valley and near Chicago.

One of the new Arabian steeds is Hánad, bought by Mr. Kellogg for a large sum from Charles Jewett, Indianapolis, Arabian breeder and formerly Mayor of Indianapolis.

Hanad's half-brother, Shelif, a 3-year-old, is the other stallion purchased in the new group. Both Hanad and Shelif were sired by the same father, Deyr, which, it will be remembered, died in the ownership of Mr. Kellogg about a year ago, at the age of 26 years. The skeleton of the famous Deyr now reposes in the Los Angeles Museum.

RULING MAY FREE GROUP IN CITY JAIL

Granting of Habeas Corpus in Liquor Case Brings Up Unusual Situation

That numerous prisoners now confined in city jails are being held there illegally is considered a possibility following a ruling made yesterday by Superior Judge Aggeler in granting a writ of habeas corpus releasing Lauren C. Holland, former court clerk, from jail, where he had been serving a sentence on liquor charges.

Application for the writ was made by Paul H. Bruns and Irving M. Gilbert, attorneys for Holland, who pleaded guilty to liquor sale and possession in the court of Municipal Judge Ambrose on July 13, last. Holland was sentenced to serve fifteen days in jail and pay a fine of $150 with the alternative of an additional fifteen days in lieu of his failure to pay the fine.

Maintaining that the law provides that sentences cannot run consecutively unless both are jail sentences, Bruns and Gilbert declared in court that Holland was entitled to his freedom, although the fine remained unpaid.

In granting the writ, Judge Aggeler intimated he may be reversed with the establishment next month of the new division of Superior Court which will hear Municipal Court appeals.

OHIO SOCIETIES TO PICNIC

The annual midsummer picnic and reunion of all Ohio societies in Southern California will be held Saturday at Bixby Park, Long Beach, it was announced yesterday by William M. Fulton, in charge of arrangements. The address of welcome will be delivered by George Buck, City Manager of Long Beach and former Ohio resident. Following the basket lunch a program of entertainment and music will commence at 2 p.m.

TRAEGER OUSTS TWO AIDES

Another Pair Suspended for Asserted Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct in Cafe

Taking stringent action to uphold the reputation of his office, Sheriff Traeger yesterday summarily dismissed two deputies and suspended two others for thirty days for asserted drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Bert H. Luker, assigned as an investigator to the Belvedere substation, and A. J. Brown, an investigator on the robbery detail, were dismissed. W. J. Wiggington, also assigned to Substation No. 2, and J. L. McDermott, an investigator on the robbery detail, were suspended for thirty days.

According to Sheriff Traeger, the officers entered a cafe at 5609 West Adams street recently and Brown climbed onto the counter, walking its entire length while Luker fired several shots into the walls of the room spreading terror among the patrons.

As the party left, it is charged, a woman with Brown fell from the running board of his car. Witnesses spread an alarm believing that she had been the victim of a hit-and-run driver.

The Sheriff pointed out that his investigation showed that there was only one woman in the party and she accompanied Brown. McDermott and Wiggington were members of the party and attempted to quiet their companions and avert a public scene, Sheriff Traeger said.

FITTS FREES RICHARDSON IN CAR CASE

Former District Attorney Aide Declared Blameless in Death of Couple

Convinced that Howell Richardson, Los Angeles attorney and once a deputy District Attorney under Asa Keyes, is blameless for an automobile accident last Saturday evening in which two persons were killed, Dist.-Atty. Fitts yesterday ordered him released from jail. The attorney had been held since surrendering to the police shortly after the accident.

A Coroner's jury Monday exonerated Richardson of blame for the deaths.

The accident occurred on Rampart Boulevard near Fourth street, when Richardson's car ran down and killed Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Corry of 282 South Rampart Boulevard. Witnesses testified that the victims were walking across the street in the middle of the block and that the street lighting was so poor that the driver could not see them.

Ahepa President Will be Greeted Here Tomorrow

Dean Alfange, president of the Supreme Lodge of the Ahepa or American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association, will arrive in Los Angeles on the Golden State Limited at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow to visit officials and members of the Los Angeles chapter.

President Alfange, who will be a guest at the Biltmore, will be the honor guest at a banquet at that hotel at 8 p.m. tomorrow when Mayor Porter, Sheriff Traeger, Dist.-Atty. Fitts and other prominent citizens will be speakers. Mr. Alfange is a Legionnaire.

Presiding at the banquet will be P. J. Andrews, president of Hesperia (Los Angeles) chapter, No. 152. Dan Stathatos is chairman of the reception committee.

Mr. Alfange is touring the western States before going to Kansas City to attend the national convocation of the Ahepa, the 26th inst. Next Saturday he will be given a banquet at St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

The Ahepa, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., was organized July 26, 1922, at Atlanta, Ga. The order has a membership of nearly 100,000 and is said to be growing at the rate of 500 a day. The local chapter has a membership of 500.

Woodmen Give Foley Welcome

JOHN H. FOLEY

Local camps of the Woodmen of the World from San Diego to Santa Barbara were in attendance last evening at the reception tendered Head Manager John H. Foley in the Hall of LaFiesta camp. Dr. J. Parke Dougall was chairman of the meeting and seated on the platform with him were the twelve Head Camp delegates from the twelfth district. The address of welcome to the new head manager was made by Joe Hermann of Fremont camp. Mr. Foley, who has just returned from Denver, where his election took place, told the members of the progress made by the order since going on the legal reserve basis. Short talks were made by George H. Johnson, District Attorney of San Bernardino county, and others.

City Jail Meat Faces Inquiry

On motion of Commissioner Pierce, who stated that there has been considerable complaint about disposition of meat purchased for the City Jail, the quarterly request for steer chuck, mutton shoulders, corned beef and other meats, presented by Chief Jailer Shand, were held up by the Police Commission pending a report on use of meat already purchased.

Pierce held that it appears to have been the practice to ask for bids on various kinds of meat and to award the contract to the low bidder on steer chuck, who might possibly bid higher on the other cuts.

Shand will be requested to give details on what was purchased, the price, and what is used by the prisoners, under Pierce's resolution.

COST MAP SUBMITTED

The assessment district map for the installation of lighting appliances in Slauson avenue between Angeles Mesa Drive and Hillcrest Drive was submitted to Council yesterday by the Street Lighting Engineer and referred to the Traffic and Street Lighting Committee.

WIGMORE RITES SET FOR TODAY

Funeral of Nonagenarian Resident of City to be at St. John's Church

Last rites for Mrs. Harriette Wigmore, for more than forty years a resident of Los Angeles, who died last Saturday following a brief illness, will be conducted today at St. John's Episcopal Church at 11 a.m., after which the body will be cremated and the ashes taken to San Francisco for interment in the family plot there.

Mrs. Wigmore, who was 90 years of age, had for several years divided her time between this city and San Francisco. She was in this city when death occurred rather unexpectedly, due, according to members of her family, to her advanced years.

She was the widow of John Wigmore and during the early days of Los Angeles she played a prominent role in civic and social affairs of the city. One of her chief interests in those days was the Ruskin Art Club and she took much interest in church work throughout her life. She and her husband came here from England, making the trip by boat and overland across the Isthmus of Panama.

Mrs. Wigmore leaves four sons, John H. of Evanston, Ill., F. Marion of Washington, D. C., Cyril and George H. of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Joel Hunter (Beatrice Wigmore) of Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. Violet Denshan of San Francisco, with six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

DR. MAGNIN BACK FROM CONFERENCE

Dr. Edgar F. Magnin, rabbi of Temple B'nai B'rith, returned to Los Angeles yesterday from Detroit, where he attended the Central Conference of American Rabbis. Dr. Magnin was appointed a member of the committee of November tours under auspices of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Winter season services at the beautiful new Temple B'nai B'rith, Wilshire and Hobart Boulevards, will begin the first Friday evening of September and lectures will be given by Dr. Magnin every Friday evening and Saturday morning. Services this month are being conducted Fridays at 5:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:30 a.m.

JEANNE EAGELS'S HERO SELECTED

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

There will be no vacation between pictures for Clive Brook, and he will not be permitted to return to Hollywood as originally scheduled. Instead the actor will remain in New York and immediately after he completes his current role as the sleuth in "The Return of Sherlock Holmes," now being filmed at Paramount's Long Island studio, he will start work opposite Jeanne Eagels in the forthcoming all-talking production of "The Laughing Lady," according to an announcement made by studio executives yesterday.

Miss Eagels will appear in the part which Ethel Barrymore played in this Alfred Sutro drama when it was produced on the New York stage a few seasons ago. While one thinks of the hero of this play as a trifle younger than Brook, still Paramount officials seem to consider him exactly the right person.

Victor Schertzinger will direct the screen play. He has been in daily conference with Bartlett Cormack, who adapted the play to the screen.

MARY PHILBIN CAST IN GLEASON'S FILM

MARY PHILBIN

Whatever Mary Philbin's future professional fate is to be—and we hear that there is every chance in the world of her being signed again by Universal—it is true that young actress is certainly very busy these days.

Miss Philbin has just been signed for the delightful role of Tessie in "Shannons of Broadway," the James Gleason play in which Gleason and his wife, Lucille Webster Gleason, are starring for Universal.

Emmett Flynn is directing the feature, which is to be a talking version of this most amusing comedy.

Collier's First for Fox

William Collier, Sr.'s first work for Fox Films on the Movietone will be a featured role in "The New Orleans Frolic." This fact became known yesterday.

Norman Taurog is to direct the picture, which will be in the nature of a musical comedy revue.

Milton Charles With Corinne

MILTON CHARLES

If you look for Milton Charles at the Paramount Theater organ, or listen for his voice these days, you will not find him.

The young musician has turned actor in earnest. He has just been signed by First National for the juvenile role in Corinne Griffith's current picture, "Lilies of the Field."

Dorothy Gulliver with R.-K.-O.

DOROTHY GULLIVER

Dorothy Gulliver has received her first free-lance role since leaving Universal recently. She has been signed by R.-K.-O. for the featured feminine lead opposite Hugh Trevor in "Night Parade," which is adapted from the play, "Ringside."

Mal St. Clair is directing the feature.

Ever since Miss Gulliver began her screen career in 1925 she has worked for Universal. Her most recent and most successful work was in "The Collegians."

Ernest Torrence's Big Role

For the very first time in pictures Ernest Torrence is going to be allowed to appear as a representative of his own nationality and portray a Scotchman.

He has been assigned to play MacDonald, the Scottish legionnaire, in "The Bugle Sounds," George Hill's forthcoming production based on life with the French Foreign Legion, and part of which George Hill, who is to direct, filmed in Africa with the actual Legion in action. Torrence's role is one of the two chief roles in the feature.

Estelle Taylor Goes East

Having made up her mind to go into vaudeville, Estelle Taylor is all set, heart and soul, on that career.

ESTELLE TAYLOR

Willard Mack is writing a playlet for her, called tentatively by the crisply weird title "Murder," a title which, however, will be changed. Although needless to say, after announcing the title, it is a dramatic sketch.

Rehearsals are to be held as soon as Miss Taylor reaches the East. She is leaving on Tuesday. Willard Mack will personally have charge of rehearsals. A leading man will be chosen from the New York stage.

Duncan Musicians in Picture

When Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer signed the Duncan Sisters for a talking picture, they included in the agreement two other artists who have contributed greatly to the success of the noted vaudeville team.

Charles and Eva Kisco, the talented accompanists of the sisters, have been signed to play roles in "Cotton and Silk," the department-store comedy, which Sam Wood is directing as the first vocalized starring picture of the sisters.

The Kiscos are well known in vaudeville and are musicians and comedians of ability.

Sylvia Fields Goes East

That very charming and talented young actress, Sylvia Fields, is shaking the dust—if any—of Hollywood from her dainty sandals, and is leaving for New York tonight.

Miss Fields played the ingenue lead in "The Royal Family" in New York, as well as appearing in other noted roles. She signed with Fox, and, having fulfilled her contract, was called to the eastern metropolis for a role in a new play.

May McAvoy to Vaudeville

May McAvoy, bride or no bride, is planning a trip into vaudeville. The film star recently returned from her honeymoon trip through the Northwest with her husband, Maurice Cleary.

No sooner had she arrived than she received the vaudeville offer, and now she is considering taking a few weeks' flyer into the two-a-day, having obtained the consent of her husband to leave him for a few weeks.

Albert Gran Signs

No less engaging an actor than Albert Gran has been signed by R.-K.-O. for a nice role in "Tanned Legs," which Marshall Neilan will direct.

Gran really should lose flesh, the way he has been working this summer, having just completed three roles, one after the other.

TAXI TRANSFER APPROVED

The Board of Public Utilities yesterday gave formal approval to the transfer of the property and taxi stands of the Crown Cab Company to the General Cab Company. The board still is studying the facts brought out at the hearing in which the General Cab Company sought an additional twenty-two permits for taxicabs. A decision is expected shortly.

'PAGAN JOY' IS NOVELTY OF CONCERT

Difficult Composition Has Intelligent Reading at Hollywood Bowl

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

The bravely contrasted Mozart D major symphony and Koechlin's "Pagan Joy," the Bowl prize winner of 1929, were the center of interest on last night's program conducted by Eugene Goossens. It was the second concert of the week as a very special program was given on Monday night in which Elsa Alsen sang the Love-Death from "Tristan and Isolde" and the stirring battle cry of the "Valkyrie" with orchestra. Howard Hanson's symphonic poem, "North and West," was the novelty on that program.

There just must be a novelty on all of Goossens's programs, it seems. Nowhere in this world of conductors does one find one more amiable about new works than Eugene Goossens. The Bowl management obviously knows this and saves all the particularly difficult musical nuts for M. Goossens to crack. The "Pagan Poem" was one of the hardest but he managed to give the Bowl audience a pretty fair idea of its limitations. Prof. Koechlin of Paris, the composer who won the decision over fourteen other countries' entries, was present to receive the $1000 prize offered by Miss Katherine Yarnell for a symphonic suite.

The work is intricate, modern in its harshness, and primitive in its emotions. It has expressive and effective moments and if it were cut in half or less it would gain in interest. I am told that it is a masterpiece on paper. Unfortunately for this type of composer, we hear music and until movietone takes an upward turn, we cannot say truthfully that we see it.

Had Koechlin's "Pagan Joy" had the proper number of rehearsals by an orchestra in sympathy with its aims, the rhythmic basis of the work might have been apparent. The approval of Mr. Stokowski and Mr. Eichheim, two of the judges who were enthusiastic about the work, made one wish to hear the beauties which were hidden in the score. It was bewildering to the Bowl listeners.

Mozart's D major symphony was beautifully played by Mr. Goossens. It is aristocratic music and it suits Mr. Goossens. It is high praise to say that a man plays Mozart well. The master requires so much of the spirit, so much that is innate and more that must be the result of inclination plus cultivation. Goossens is at one with the courtly spirit of a Mozart.

The special concert of Monday night was of interest to a very large audience. Mme. Alsen sang the great Wagnerian aria from "Tristan and Isolde" with rare feeling. The battle cry from the Valkyrie rang out gloriously over the Bowl and had to be encored. This great dramatic soprano who has honored Southern California by making it her home, is now established as a great favorite and the long ovation which she received Monday night proved it beyond question.

Pangborn Will Act in Comedy at Vine-street

Shrieks of terror will be succeeded by gales of gay laughter this week-end at the Vine-street Theater, when the melodrama of the Orient, "The Jade God," will give way to Rachel Crothers' farce of a young tooth paste king's loves, "Expressing Willie." "The Jade God" will close its run at the Vine-street Saturday night and "Expressing Willie" will begin its reign of gayety with a grand opening Sunday night.

Rachel Crothers, who wrote "Let Us Be Gay," achieved her greatest success with "Expressing Willie," which recently closed a lengthy run in New York City. Miss Crothers is believed by many to be the greatest dialogue writer living and the lines of "Expressing Willie" are said to sparkle with wit and humor so that with no plot at all the play would be exhilarating.

Franklin Pangborn will return to the Vine-street stage to interpret the role of the young tooth paste magnate. An all-star cast, including the Tell sisters, Olive and Alma, Theodor Von Eltz, Frankie Raymond, Warburton Guilbert and Lurene Tuttle, will support the popular comedian.

"Salute" Opens New Season at Loew's State

Greater Movie Season officially opens tomorrow at Loew's State with "Salute," the Fox all-dialogue comedy and the first football story with cheering, singing and other campus sounds added to the general appeal.

Stepin Fetchit, who has a role in the picture, will appear on the stage in person as a special added attraction. Several months ago, Stepin's salary on the Loew's State stage was $100 per week. This engagement will cost the theater over $1000, attesting to the fast rise in popularity of the colored comedian. George O'Brien, Helen Chandler, Joyce Compton and William Janney head the picture's cast.

"AUGUST FROLICS" IS HIT

"August Frolics," the latest burlesque offering to hold down the stage of the Burbank Theater, is a musical and terpsichorean treat; a blues chaser and something out of the ordinary run of burlesque entertainment. In "August Frolics," the youthful ladies of the ensemble are seen in an array of new and refreshing costumes, a series of fast dance numbers and are much in evidence throughout the production. The scenic and electrical effects merit special mention, as they are of a unique and novel design, making an extraordinary showing. The comedy in the hands of Charlie Fritcher and Leo Leonard, is laugh provoking and the two are seen at their best. Clever dance specialties are done by Fay Norman and June Rhoads, with "Curls" Mason startling in her "Dance Grotesque." June Hazelton offers a number of old-time songs.

PREMIERE PLANS BRIGHT

One of the most brilliant premieres ever accorded a picture is promised for tonight by the United Artists Theater when Ronald Colman in his first talking picture, "Bulldog Drummond," starts its engagement.

The major portion of the house has been completely sold out for the past week, it is said, the celebrities of Hollywood outnumbering those outside of the industry in the purchase of tickets. Samuel Goldwyn has had his entire studio force working for the past two weeks in selling tickets.

Ronald Colman is scheduled to make the first personal appearance of his screen career. Sid Grauman, pioneer master showman, will introduce him to the audience. He will also present Joan Bennett, Montagu Love, Lilyan Tashman, Lawrence Grant and the other members of the cast.

Dr. Hugo Reisenfeld's brilliant short subject, "Tschaikowsky's Overture of 1812," will have its world premiere showing on tonight's program. At a recent showing of the film to newspaper reviewers it was widely acclaimed as a beautiful and tasteful piece of work. It is a perfect addition to the light comedy of "Bulldog Drummond."

Fox Production Marks Talking Debut of Pair

The Criterion Theater announces that it will start Greater Movie Season on the 21st inst., with the William Fox production, "Lucky Star," which brings together again Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, the stars of "Seventh Heaven" and "Street Angel." "Showboat," current talking-singing romance based on Edna Ferber's novel, ends its run at the Criterion on the 20th inst.

More than ordinary interest is being centered upon "Lucky Star," which will succeed "Showboat," owing to the fact that all Hollywood is said to be intrigued at the prospect of hearing and seeing the Gaynor-Farrell combination speak for the first time on the screen.

Frank Borzage, who so successfully directed Gaynor and Farrell in "Seventh Heaven" and "Street Angel" was greatly pleased this week to receive a telegram from the Roxy Theater in New York announcing that "Lucky Star" had broken his previous "Street Angel" record at that theater. The latter record had stood for a long time at the Roxy.

Opening Date of Play Set Ahead

"Kibitzer," the New York comedy hit, will start at the Mason Theater on the 29th inst., according to an announcement made today by H. S. Kraft, producer of the play, instead of September 1 as originally scheduled.

"Kibitzer" comes here after nine months of crowded houses at the Royal Theater, New York. Gregory Ratoff, well-known on Broadway for his performances in "Blossom Time," "Castles in the Air" and "Tenth Avenue," is the featured player of an all-New York cast.

"NOAH'S ARK" PLAYS AT TOWER THEATER

One of the most interesting scenes ever filmed, it is said, is the great flood which sweeps away the Temple of Jaghut in Warner Brothers' spectacular film, "Noah's Ark," which is now at the Tower Theater. Over 14,000 tons of water were used to make this scene realistic. Great tanks of concrete were erected in the hills above the studio and, at a flash from Director Curtiz, the flood gates were opened. This is but one impressive scene that Warner Brothers have incorporated in "Noah's Ark." Dolores Costello heads a cast supported by George O'Brien, Louise Fazenda, Guinn Williams and Paul McAllister.

"QUEENS" ENTERTAIN

"Radium Queens," with a group of attractive leading ladies and two effective comedians, is the current show at the Follies Theater. The burlesque does not lag or become tedious during the two hours that the show holds the stage. Probably the most attractive young lady to grace the platform at the Follies is Nellie Ryder, a slender blond. Another young lady who aids in the performance is Evelyn Ramsay, a red-headed, peppy soubrette. Foster and Semon handle the comedy roles, their antics and dialect calling forth many laughs. Others who deserve mention are Beatrice Franklin Nelita Capucetti, Hal Ford and Mack White. The work of the chorus—forty girls—is particularly attractive in this week's burlesque. The numbers are beautifully costumed and the musical score is interpreted with a movement that is invigorating.

RHYTHMICS OF FAR EAST DELIGHT EYE

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

A splash of bright color and rhythmic movement traced in delicate and intricate patterns—this, perhaps, was the impression carried away by a casual observer of the Michio Ito presentation, Monday evening, on the rostrum of the cup-shaped Argus Bowl in the Eagle Rock Hills, of a series of dance compositions.

A number of very lovely things were to be seen, and to Ito's credit it must be said that they represented not only his own distinctly stylistic work, but the interpretative efforts of other representative moderns of Los Angeles.

Far eastern in mood, costuming and rhythm was the first part of the program. I found it decidedly the most interesting and refreshing of the whole. There were color and charm and the mystic spell of faraway lands exerted.

Perhaps the introductory number, a Japanese spring dance, descriptive of the season of falling rains, delightfully danced by Ito and the Misses Anne Douglas and Lillian Powell, helped to set the mood for the things to follow. Of this first group, Ito's individualistic solo efforts, a Javanese dance by Xenia Zarina, the Danse Arab by Miss Powell and the Burmese umbrella number by Miss Douglas, were the most refreshingly unusual, and colorful in appeal.

Gayety and warmth characterized the Java dance, a rich sensuous quality and exceptional technique revealed themselves in Miss Powell's own creation of a wanton Arabian girl, while the frivolous parasol dance of the British East Indies won rounds of applause. Misses Cecilia Mae Fisher and Rosemary Bedford, also counted on the program, did ambitious work.

The second group of dances, lyrical in pattern and content, struck not so keen a popular note, although again Ito's musical visualizations, Caresse Dansee and tone poems, as well as Miss Powell's gracefully executed balloon dance, exemplification of exceptional virtuosity of balance, and Miss Douglas's scarf number were well liked. For all of these and the preceding compositions, Maude Howard proved a sympathetic accompanist.

A brief playlet, "At the Hawk's Well," enacted by dancers, was remarkable for its diffuseness. Perhaps, after study of its lines and content, one might glean an inkling of what it was all about, but as presented it failed even in emotional appeal, save for a weirdly grotesque dance performed by Lester Horton.

Boulevard Will Present Greta Garbo Picture

Because of the tremendous, record-breaking week at Loew's State Theater, Greta Garbo in her latest film, "The Single Standard," will continue its first run at the Boulevard Theater for one week starting tomorrow. "The Single Standard," an adaptation of Adela Rogers St. Johns's novel of the same name, is said to be the best of all Garbo pictures.

"The Single Standard" is the story of a young girl who tires of the social hypocracies and has the courage to live her life as she sees fit regardless of convention or public opinion. Nils Asther, John Mack Brown, Dorothy Sebastian and others make up the supporting cast.

"SAP" WILL APPEAR AT PRESIDENT

Taylor Holmes Signs With Henry Duffy for Leading Comedy Role

Henry Duffy has added another guest star to his list by signing Taylor Holmes, the noted comedian, who will make his first appearance here with the Henry Duffy Players at the President. Starting with the matinee on the 25th inst., Holmes will be seen in the title role of "The Sap," a comedy by William Grew, which was produced with much success in New York.

Few comedians occupy as distinguished a place on the American stage as Taylor Holmes, it is said. He has starred on Broadway in numerous farces and musical comedies; has appeared on the Coast in "No No, Nanette," "The Whole Town's Talking" and "The Great Necker," and has headlined vaudeville bills. He was a Shakespearean actor at the start of his career, and for two years starred in motion pictures.

Among the plays in which he has won success are "His Majesty Bunker Bean," "The Million," "The Third Party," "Not So Fast," "The Nervous Wreck" and others. On the screen he has appeared in a score of stories.

In "The Sap" Holmes will have one of his favorite idler roles, that of William Small, a lovable ne'er-do-well and visionary idler, whose opinions and ideas are ridiculed by the other members of the household in which he lives. The cast is now being selected and rehearsals will start at once under the direction of Edwin H. Curtis. Walker Whiteside, now appearing in "The Arabian," is in the final fortnight of his engagement at the President.

Noted Juvenile in "Bad Babies" Cast at Mayan

MERVIN WILLIAMS

Mervin Williams, a Los Angeles boy, who played on the New York stage for a year as leading man in "The Squall," and who was headed for stardom when an accident interrupted, will portray the leading role in "Bad Babies," the new play at the Mayan Theater, starting Saturday night.

Williams is a romantic juvenile type and has taken part in "Pelleas and Melisande," "L'Aiglon" and "Liliom." He will essay the role of Paul in "Bad Babies." Other members of the cast are Jobyna Ralston, Marjorie Montgomery, Arthur Rankin, Elinor Flynn, Norman Peck, Annette Westby, Dario Shindell and Fritz Feld. The play was written by George Scarborough and Frederic Burt is directing.

Dramatic Star Headlines New Orpheum Show

Nance O'Neil, internationally noted dramatic star, was engaged yesterday to appear at the Orpheum Theater next week, presenting a condensed version of David Belasco's production, "The Lily," in which she scored one of her greatest successes. Alfred Hickman will head the supporting cast.

Miss O'Neil recently completed two feature dramatic talkies at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios here. Her stage triumphs have been numerous, including among other productions "The House of Women," by Louis Bromfield and John Galsworthy's "Silver Cord." "The Lily" is one of the most discussed of her popular vehicles.

On the same program will be Harry Richman, musical comedy and night club favorite, whose engagement was previously announced.

BROWN MOVES TO R.-K.-O. STUDIOS

Rumored information that R.-K.-O. had an option on the services of Mel Brown, prominent director, has been confirmed, coincident with the announcement that immediately following the completion of his Paramount all-talking picture "The Love Doctor," starring Richard Dix, Brown moved to the R.-K.-O. studios.

It is now reported that Paramount executives are so enthused over the Dix pictures that negotiations have been started with the Myron Selznick, Frank Joyce, Inc., organization, the director's personal representatives, to have Brown affix his signature to a long-term contract with the Lasky company, immediately upon finishing his initial effort for R.-K.-O. The latter organization has assigned Brown to direct "Jazz Heaven."

LION IN TALKIES

Numa, veteran lion film star, will make his debut in sound pictures in the release of the next Paramount sound news, showing him acting before the microphone at the christening of his two youngest sons, Marshal Foch and Gen. Pershing. This short subject was filmed and recorded at Gay's Lion Farm, El Monte, by Joseph Johnson and Sam Greenwald of Paramount, and it also includes brief addresses by M. Henri Didot, local French Consul, and Maj. Klyde Young, Mayor of El Monte. Numa has appeared with Charlie Chaplin, Gloria Swanson, Charlie Murray, Bebe Daniels, Douglas MacLean, Norma Shearer, Johnny Hines, Vilma Banky and other stars, but this marks his first appearance in the talkies.

WESTLAKE PROGRAM

"Jed's Vacation," an all-talking Christie film, is being shown at the Westlake as a special attraction. Clara Bow is seen and heard in "Dangerous Curves," her latest all-dialogue picture for Paramount, in which Richard Arlen takes the leading male role. "Dangerous Curves" is a colorful story of circus life. Starting Friday, the Fox Westlake will show "the Last of Mrs. Cheyney," M.-G.-M.'s all-talking picturization of the stage play, starring Norma Shearer.

The magnetism of this perfect all-talking miracle is sweeping Los Angeles like electric wildfire. The demand for tickets has exceeded every previous record. SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

American girls are the most beautiful in the world. Also the most pagan. And they are more polygamous than the men.

This slightly shocking impression of our most popular institution was delivered recently by Vicomte Alain de Leche, young French novelist and poet, who has just returned from a long visit to America.

The Vicomte did not state this opinion as if he were voicing a criticism. In fact, he spoke as if he liked girls to be beautiful, pagan and polygamous, for he professed to have a great admiration for the American girl.

"American women are without question the most beautiful in the world," he said. "They are also the most conquesting type. Everywhere they are successful—in love and in business.

"They want to make so much out of their lives and get everything they can from life. In America women are thoroughly modern. In Europe women may appear outwardly modern—in Berlin, for example. But the American girl is modern at heart. She is pagan."

Asked what he thinks of American men, M. De Leche dismissed the subject by saying that they are too occupied with business to make good lovers.

Despite his modern theories, the Vicomte has no prejudice against marriage. He thinks it is an "honorable institution" if handled reasonably. In fact, he sailed for America last winter with the avowed purpose of falling in love and getting married, but somehaw it didn't work out.

Rita Weiman, the American writer, agrees with Vicomte Alain de Leche that "marriage is a perfectly acceptable sort of institution provided, of course, that it be based upon "compatibility" rather than "combatability."

"There have been far too many hasty and thoughtless divorces recently for which there is no excuse," Miss Weiman, who in private life is Mrs. Maurice Marks, adds.

Judge Joseph Sabath, Chicago divorce judge, is of the same opinion, and he has come to Europe to spend his vacation studying ways and means of perfecting a reconciliation court as a step toward reducing the number of divorces in the United States.

Then Ralph Barton, the caricaturist and humorist, was told what the Vicomte de Leche, Rita Weiman and Judge Sabath had said.

"Why not marry an American?" he was asked.

"I hadn't thought of it," Mr. Barton replied. Then he reflected. "Perhaps I haven't because they are too spoiled. The American wife is the darling of the gods."

Mr Barton has had four wives, one Irish, one Dutch, one Danish and the present one is French.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb-sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

ONE METHOD OF MAKING SPOON AND CUP FAMILIAR

Mrs. F.E.S. writes: "I wonder if my method of teaching my baby to eat with a spoon would be helpful to anyone else? I had never given him anything but a bottle until he was 6 months of age, when he started solid food. He fought wildly against the spoon. So I gave him a tiny spoon to play with for two days—a coffee spoon. Then I resumed the feedings with that spoon. At that time I gave him a larger spoon to play with, slightly larger than the other. Within a week he was eating happily with that spoon. In the same way I got him a small-sized tin cup and let him play with that before I offered him anything to drink out of it. Now he grabs the handle and the opposite side of the cup while I steady it for him to drink.

"However, in this line I have trouble, too. He will not accept water or orange juice from a cup and takes but very little milk that way. I want him to give up the bottle entirely but don't know how to manage it. Is it safe to deprive him of his bottle altogether and make him understand that he can have milk only from a cup? I have contemplated trying that but have a little more time before he is a year, and thought I would wait before trying anything so drastic. You have answered a great many of my questions for me in your daily articles and have strengthened some of my vague ideas. I think such columns as you conduct are of vast help to us who so want to do the right thing."

Answer: I sincerely appreciate your letter and hope the leaflets I sent you helped. Your method of teaching is just right. Babies do not take kindly to new methods of eating. Having taken the bottle for six long months, as in your case, it would be strange if they did accept a cup, which for the time is so much less satisfactory because it not only changes the taste of the milk but makes them drink and not suck, a method to which they have become habited. If the mother takes things easy and allows the child to enjoy his meals in this new way, instead of making him feel by her attitude and her forcing that it is some kind of punishment, he will accept it, try it, and inevitably like it. Babies, being exceedingly imitative at this time, will be encouraged to try cup drinking just because they see others drinking in this manner.

It is better to give the early morning feeding by bottle and all the rest of the daytime feedings by cup, even if the child doesn't drink as much milk by cup as he had formerly by bottle. He will drink more of it in time and temporarily most of his milk can be given in his solid food rather than by bottle. Use two or three ounces at a time, and if baby drains his tiny cup, fill it up again. In fact, if he likes to pour milk from a small pitcher into a small cup, or from a tiny doll teapot, he will consume much more milk in play than he would if faced with a full eight ounces and told to drink it. Your other answer was included in the letter.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

By Dr Frank McCoy

author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Dr. McCoy will answer personal questions on health and diet, addressed to him care of the Los Angeles Times. Inclose stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

ST. VITUS DANCE

The medical word for this disorder is "Chorea," which comes from the Greek and means dancing. It is the name given to disordered, incoordinated, spasmodic and involuntary movements. "Chorea Sancti Viti" was the name given in the Middle Ages to an epidemic of dancing mania which attacked people under the influence of great religious excitement, and led to pilgrimages to the chapel of St. Vitus in the hope of being cured.

This disorder occurs most often in early childhood and adolescence, more than three-fourths of the cases developing between the fifth and fifteenth years. It is singular in that it occurs more often among girls, and among the offspring of the poorer classes. The peak of the cases during the year occurs in January. This is undoubtedly due to the fact that many cases are precipitated into a crisis through the toxemia generated from holiday feasting.

The school child who has been made nervous by overwork at school is a fit subject for chorea and, in fact, for many other disorders when the toxins from injudicious holiday stuffing add their burden to the child's irritated, nervous system.

The disordered and jerky movements are the first symptoms. The child may be restless, mentally disturbed, easily upset and break into fits of crying or temper. The jerky movements are usually noticed first on the face and arms. The face will twist into a series of contorted grimaces, in which the eyes may shut and suddenly shoot open. The angle of the mouth may change quickly, or the whole head may flop from side to side. There may be a specific and involuntary working of the hands and arms, and if the patient tries to grasp anything he is inclined to grab for it and may close his hand before he reaches the object. As the disorder progresses the child's body may twitch in various places almost continually during the entire day. Usually the movements either disappear or decrease during sleep.

I have never seen a case of chorea which could not be cured, and usually in a very short time. The toxic condition which is always present must first be corrected. Here again the fast is of great value and should be used for several days even with very young children. They should be kept away from all studies and taught to play games which are not overly exciting. The best diet after the fast is usually a course of milk diet treatment, taking three or four quarts daily, according to the age, for as long as three or four weeks. After this, the diet should be well balanced with special attention to complete bowel elimination.

The child will always be greatly helped through osteopathic or chiropractic treatments, which tend to quiet and soothe the nervous system.

The quickest results, of course, come in those cases where an early diagnosis is made and treatment started at once. Naturally the time necessary to effect a cure is materially lengthened in those cases which have been permitted to go to advanced stages before treatment is started.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Always Could "Eat Everything")

Question: H. K. writes: "I can't digest my food and I feel nauseated all the time. The doctor said it was my gall bladder and gave me some medicine. I do all right as long as I take a dose before eating, but can't take this medicine the rest of my life. I have always been able to eat everything. Now when I have a bad spell I can't eat anything for a few days."

Answer: It is because you have "eaten everything" that you are now not able to eat anything. Just give nature a chance by taking a fast and allowing the gall bladder and liver to empty out and catch up with their work. If medicines relieve you, it is a sure thing that a fast will cure you. After that, regulate your diet scientifically, and stop "eating everything."

((Mastoiditis)

Q.: Mrs. H. P. J. writes: "I had a mastoid operation which for several months relieved the pain and terrible fullness and dizziness, but I am now suffering with these same symptoms. The doctor says this trouble I now have is probably due to my teeth. I don't think so, as it is exactly what I had before the operation. Can you suggest any relief?"

A.: It is unwise for me to make a guess about your trouble which has been guessed about enough already. Have a good diagnosis made and thus ascertain the real cause of your symptoms. If you are then not helped, write me the result of the diagnosis and I will advise you again, either through this column or directly by mail if you will inclose a self-addressed envelope the next time you write.

Pigeon Popping Police Patrol Project Passe

Selection of a police detail to rid the city of pigeons, suggested by Commissioner Pierce, was not adopted by the Police Commission, on the advice of Deputy City Attorney McGann, who said that the city would be liable for damage which might be based on shooting pet pigeons or injuring somebody during the shooting.

The suggestion followed requests for permits to shoot pigeons from persons who asserted the birds are a nuisance and make so much noise on houses that the occupants cannot sleep. It is declared that the pigeon nuisance has reached such a point that it no longer can be controlled.

Permits are being granted where shooting is not liable to injure lives or property of neighbors, as a partial solution of the problem.

REALTY CLASS TO OPEN

Hunting Death Inquiry Closed After Inquest

Sheriff Traeger yesterday closed an investigation into the death of Charles Smith, Palmdale youth, who died in a Long Beach hospital Saturday following an eighty-mile ambulance ride. The youth had been wounded earlier in the day when he was shot accidentally by Lloyd Tutor, 13 years of age, while hunting.

The decision to close the inquiry was reached by the Sheriff when a Coroner's jury after hearing all witnesses in the case declined to blame anyone for Smith's death.

REALTY TESTS PLANNED

The California Real Estate Commission will hold two examinations a week for prospective real-estate salesmen at university college, downtown division of the University of Southern California, Transportation Building, Seventh and Los Angeles streets, starting today.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD

PLAYING SICK

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

We all are familiar with the lady who produces a sick headache whenever she is faced with an unpleasant obligation.

Usually she gives excellent reasons for her illness and is herself entirely convinced that the indisposition necessitates complete rest and seclusion. She is too ill to lift her head and an adoring friend or relative waits upon her with affectionate concern. It is a wonderful system and works as long as service and devotion are at hand.

Children who use the same dodge are generally far less self-deceived. They employ the method in the most obvious ways. Jane has an earache until after it is time for school. Johnny never feels eye strain until he must sit down to do his arithmetic. Their bluffs soon are called.

But occasionally even young children play sick with an unconscious skill which is baffling. Betty, Joan and Elsie had been playmates for a week or more when Betty and Joan decided they would stand no more of Elsie's domination. They declared their independence and left Elsie to join them on their own terms.

This was too much for Elsie. She began to "feel sick all over," retired to bed, and actually developed a slight temperature. There were no other symptoms of illness. Her mother gave her a book and told her to lie quietly.

Next day her two little friends, who missed her in their play, came to call on her. At once Elsie was her laughing, energetic self again, clamoring to dress and go out to play.

Don't let your child play sick and get away with it. Treat the illness which is not a real illness in a businesslike way; let there be neither love nor glory in it for the sick one.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Will Keep Better

It is wise to wipe off all fruit with a damp cloth when it comes from the market, not only to clean it from dust, but to check any rot from infected fruit with which it may have come in contact.

If It "Tastes" a Bit

Butter which has become flavored with something else in the refrigerator can be made as pleasing as ever if soaked for two hours in cold water in which a pinch of bicarbonate of soda has been dissolved.

On the Picnic

If you are planning a real picnic in the woods, with a camp fire and hot meals, take the corn popper along with you. It will hold frankfurters and any other small article you wish to cook over the fire. The long handle protects you from the blaze and the lid of the popper holds the food securely.

Patching Wall Paper

When the need for patching comes around we usually find the new wall paper so conspicuously bright that it is impossible to use it. Take the new piece and spread it in the bright sun, leaving it there until it is faded enough to match the present walls. Tear it irregularly and paste it over the bad place. Ragged edges will show far less than if the patch were cut exactly square. Even if figures must be matched, tear the edges irregularly.

Maj. Hanson to Plan Reserve Officers' Meet

Maj. Ernest F. Hanson, State president of the Reserve Officers' Association, yesterday was appointed general chairman for the national convention of the association, to be held here next April. Lieut. Karl W. Marks, State secretary, was appointed general secretary. The convention, which attracts ranking officers of the War Department and civic leaders from all sections of the country, will be the first one of the association ever held west of the Mississippi.

Chapters of the Reserve Officers in all parts of California will join in arrangements for the convention and present plans are to route the delegates through San Francisco for an inspection of the Presidio of San Francisco and Ninth Corps Area headquarters.

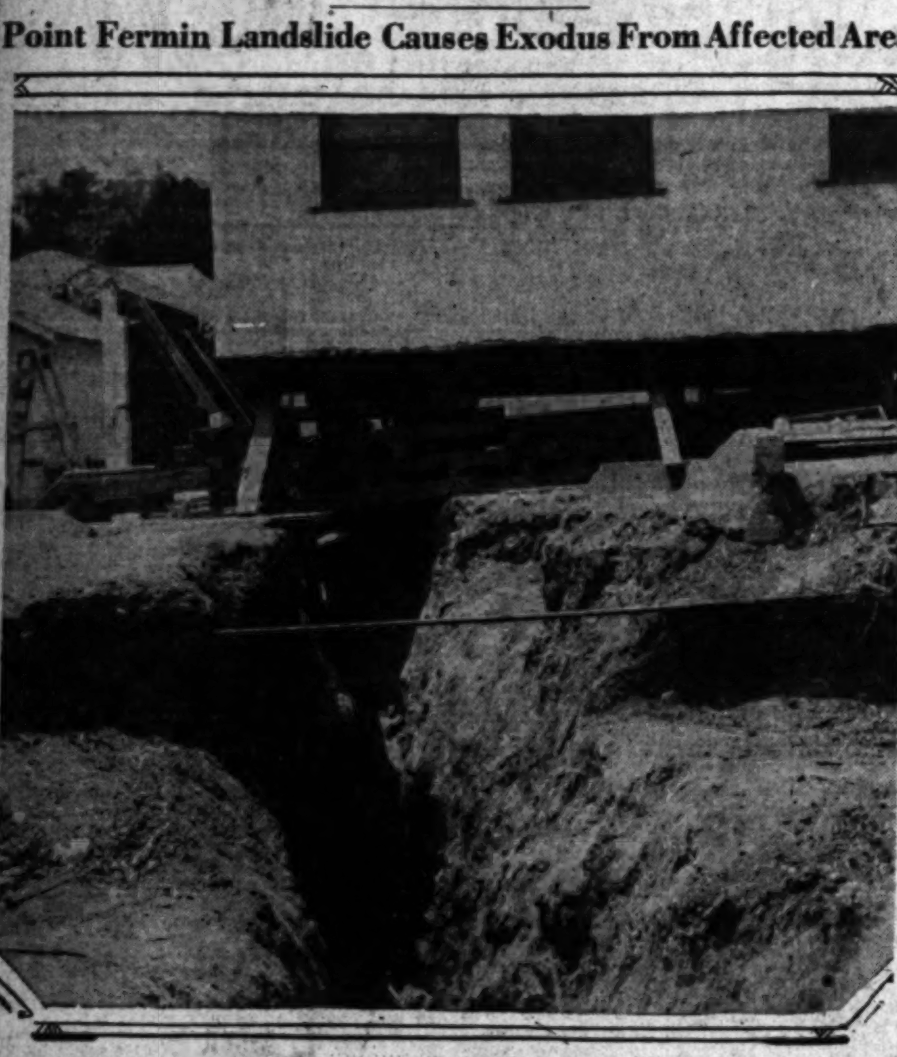
HOUSES MOVED WHEN EARTH CRACKS

Point Fermin Landslide Causes Exodus From Affected Area



Where Homes "Flee" With Owners
Moving a residence from the imperiled area; the widening fissure can be seen beneath the house.

WHILE city and Federal engineers are rallying to investigate the giant earth slide at Point Fermin, several acres of land are slipping steadily toward the ocean at the rate of three inches a day and householders are shoving their home back to safe land.

The phenomenon already has opened a crevice several feet wide, believed to be 3000 feet deep across the finger of populated land which juts into the ocean near San Pedro.

A plan of action intended to stem the earth movement is scheduled on the 22nd inst., Councilman Henning told the City Council yesterday. Those slated to confer on the problem are the Federal district engineer; H. A. Van Norman of the Water and Power Department; City Engineer Shaw and Harbor Engineer Nicholson.

Ropes will bar future automobile traffic along the streets affected by the widening pit, it was announced yesterday by the Board of Public Works.

Although it is reported two small business houses will have to close their doors on account of traffic curtailment, it has been deemed necessary to close the streets as a safety precaution.

A request will be made today of the City Council for the employment of three geologists to make a further survey of the situation, Councilman Henning announced. He will request $1000 for their employment, he said.

BOYS ALONE WILL GIVE PLAYGROUND PROGRAM

Featuring the regular weekly matinee programs by Los Angeles playground children at the Little Lattice Playhouse at Barnsdall Playground, an all-boys' program will be offered tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to the announcement of Emelie E. Hollington, supervisor of dramatics in the Playground and Recreation Department. Echo Playground boys will present two plays, "Pirate Percy of the Slovenly Sloop" and "Sofapillio." Barnsdall Playground youngsters will put on the playlet "Little John and the Miller Join Robin Hood's Band." Boys from other recreation centers will put on acrobatic stunts, pyramid building, musical numbers and other features.

OFFICER REINSTATED

Patrolman Fred R. Wallace, recently tried and acquitted of the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, was restored to police duty by the Police Commission yesterday on the advice of Deputy Attorney McGann, who held that the charter provides that when an officer is suspended for any cause and the charge is not sustained, the board is compelled to make the reinstatement.

OWNER SUES FOR DEATH OF DOG

Animal With Pedigree Going Back 200 Years Has Value of $5000

Charged with maliciously killing a Russian wolf hound with a pedigree going back 200 years, H. E. Burns was named defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages filed yesterday in Superior Court by Herbert Reents, owner of the dog.

According to the complaint, the dog was Bojar Von Nordseestrand, a great grandson of a dog said to have been owned by the former German Kaiser. Reents declares the dog was killed July 18, last, following a dispute between Reents and Burns.

Reents, who asserts Burns struck the dog and broke the animal's back, declares there was no provocation for the alleged attack on the dog. In his complaint, Reents says he valued the dog at $5000 and he asks an additional $5000 as punitive damages.

POLICE BOARD TAKES TIME

All Permits and Renewals on Amusements Held Up Pending Completion of Porter Personnel

Formation of a new policy by the Police Commission on all amusements for which it issues permits in Los Angeles is in prospect, according to action taken by the board at its meeting yesterday. On motion of Commissioner Drake, recently appointed by Mayor Porter, the board deferred action on all applications or renewals for pool rooms, dance halls, cabaret dancing, skating rinks, games of skill and science and other permits until there is a full membership of the board.

This move by the commission, which caused complaint from a number of applicants who stated they will lose money by delay in granting their permits, is interpreted to mean that certain views of Mayor Porter in regulating amusements in the city are to be carried out through the Mayor's appointees. Another Porter appointee, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Commissioner Gilmore, is expected shortly. Commissioner Schweitzer, who has been out of the city for several weeks, is expected to return and sit on the board again next week.

THORPE CO-OPERATES

President Thorpe, thus far, has shown every indication of co-operating with Drake in the commission's program and with another Porter appointee on the board the Mayor is practically assured of a majority to carry out his wishes. Commissioner Pierce yesterday seconded Drake's motion to defer action on amusement permits until a full board is present.

The action to grant no more permits until the new policies are adopted by the full board was extended to include massage parlors, employment agencies, street-speaking permits, requests for new equipment and employees in the police department. No action was taken in regard to Main-street shows because they fall under the classification of theaters, over which the police have no jurisdiction through permits.

Mrs. Julia C. Van Winkle, who first was turned down when she applied for a permit to operate a massage parlor for women at 228 West Fourth street, argued the board into granting her a permit without waiting for the new policies, by declaring it was an injustice to expect her to wait in view of the fact that it would cause her considerable loss in a business with which she had expected to support herself.

Drake insisted that it was merely a delay and not an injustice, but Mrs. Van Winkle insisted that a delay without cause is an injustice.

COMPLAINT HEARD

The board heard a complaint from F. H. Eckerson, secretary of the Federated Voters' League, composed of cameramen and others affiliated with the Los Angeles Amusement Organization, and J. W. Buzzell, secretary and treasurer of the Central Labor Council, aimed against Commissioner Schweitzer. They demanded an investigation of the lifting of a ban against two motion-picture theaters which had been closed by the police because the operators had failed to get licenses from the city electrician.

Deputy Prosecutor McGann revealed that he made a full investigation of the case and that the identity of the men who worked picture machines without licenses has yet to be ascertained, but that they will be prosecuted. He stated that the ban on the theaters was lifted by order of Schweitzer on the promise that licensed operators would be used. This has been done, he said.

Eckerson and Buzzell wanted to know what right the commissioner had to instruct the police to "lay off" the theaters.

"That is what I'd like to know," said Thorpe. "I don't see what right a member of this board has to stop enforcement of the law."

Drake, a union labor man, listened closely, but made no statement. Pierce said Schweitzer will be at next Tuesday's meeting. The complainants were told to be present at the next meeting.

CAR FOR ITS USE

A communication was read from Chief Davis, stating that a large sedan has been allocated for use of the Police Commission. This action was commended by Thorpe, who said it would be available for use of the commissioners for investigation purposes and to "drive the women commissioners expected on the board from and to their homes when attending meetings."

Drake remarked that there are only newspaper reports to indicate women are going to be on the board. His recommendation that acceptance of the automobile for such use also be deferred pending the action of a full membership of the commission was adopted.

WITNESSES TO BEATING MOLESTED

Police Say Intimidation Attempted by Attorney for Accused Slugger

Charges that an attempt is being made to intimidate and terrify witnesses in the case of Frank Goddard, studio worker who is asserted to have been beaten by a gang of men in front of the Warner Brothers studio last Thursday, were made by Detective-Lieutenant William Hynes yesterday. Hynes prepared to lay the case before the District Attorney following the visit of an attorney to the bedside of Goddard on Saturday.

According to Hynes, an attorney, accompanied by the wife of one of the men under arrest in connection with the beating, visited Goddard's bedside under the pretext of having police authority. They are asserted to have intimidated Goddard into signing a statement absolving several of the accused men of the attack.

Goddard was attacked by a number of asserted Actors' Equity members when he started to enter the Warner Brothers gates. Several men who went to his rescue also were severely beaten. Four men, who were identified by Goddard were arrested. They gave their names as George Wilson, Sam Cummings, Harvey Perry and Edward Welsh.

According to an affidavit made by Goddard yesterday, the man and woman who visited him at the hospital "offered to compensate him for his injuries if he would drop the charges."

ZINK FUNERAL TODAY

Last Rites for Crash Victim Will Be Conducted at 2 p.m.

The funeral services for Miss Rosella Zink, 20 years of age, victim of an automobile accident, will be conducted today at 2 p.m. from Edward Brothers' mortuary, 936 Venice Boulevard. The body will be placed in Inglewood Park Cemetery receiving vault.

W6XN TO MAKE ITS DEBUT SOON

Short Wave Station Ready for Official Opening

Oakland Apparatus Housed in Metal Building

Tests Have Proved Range of Wireless Marvel

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

Next Tuesday, the 20th inst., at 7:30 p.m. W6XN will be opened officially in Oakland and the Coast will dedicate its most important short-wave station.

It will be operated in conjunction with KGO. The present assigned frequency is 23.35 meters, with a power of 40,000 watts. The new station is to be largely experimental in character. The main point at this time is to determine and demonstrate the usefulness of short waves for communication over long distances, as well as to develop methods and apparatus.

The findings of W6XN will be checked with those of the Schenectady station, which also is owned by the same company.

METAL INCLOSED

The new Oakland outfit is housed in a metal building. The set is crystal controlled; with the crystal inclosed in a small box and maintained at a constant temperature.

The antenna is a directive type and consists of a number of sections. It is supported by two wooden poles eighty feet high and spaced 150 feet apart.

Four stages of amplification are used preceding the power stage. A water-cooled vacuum tube is used for the fourth stage. This drives two water-cooled vacuum tubes in the output stage, which feed into the antenna by means of a transmission line.

HEARD FAR AWAY

As a matter of fact, W6XN has been on the air with curtailed power for some time in an experimental way. It already has found that conditions of wave propagation over the Pacific Ocean are notably different from those on the Atlantic Ocean. They seem to prove, on the whole, to be much easier.

Despite the fact that these preliminaries were carried on with a transmitter but one-eighth the power of the new one, and the fact that the broadcasts were unheralded, the station has been heard with clarity in Mexico, Chile, Venezuela, Argentina, South Africa, the Hawaiian Islands, New Zealand, Australia and a score or more points north and east of the bay district.

REGULAR BROADCASTS

The preliminary tests now will be supplanted with a regular series of transmissions.

Programs are to be fed to W6XN over a direct telephone line from the KGO power house. Arrangements are under way to have WGY, Schenectady, rebroadcast the new Oakland station each Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 10:45 a.m., Pacific time, beginning next week, according to officials of the station.

The formal dedication next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. incidentally will call attention to the sixth annual radio show in San Francisco, which is scheduled from the 17th to 24th inst., inclusive.

COUNTY SALARY BOOST FOUGHT

Battle Will Wage Today at Budget Hearing

Civil Service Chairman Will Present Protest

Ranking Officials Seek Large Increases

Protest against rises in the salaries of county officials, included in the preliminary county budget, will be made this morning at the public budget hearing of the County Board of Supervisors by A. C. Malone of Long Beach, chairman of the County Civil Service and Efficiency Commission.

Although Malone refused to state yesterday exactly what his resolution will contain, he said that it will follow in a general way the resolution he introduced last week which stated that the Board of Supervisors did not have the power to increase salaries without consent of the efficiency commission. "My resolution tomorrow will be much more explicit," Malone said, "and will specify in more exact terms my legal position. It would not be fair to all concerned if I disclosed the contents of the resolution before it is presented to the Board of Supervisors."

Only three members of the board will be present at the session today; Supervisors McClellan, Wright and Shaw. Supervisors Beaty and Graves will arrive in Los Angeles from Honolulu on Saturday.

The 1929-30 county budget calls for the expenditure of a salary fund of $18,387,267. Last year the county spent in salaries $14,463,756. The resultant $3,923,511 increase is what brings Commissioner Malone's objection. He says it is out of proportion to the increase in other county expenditures.

Examples of salary rises that Commissioner Malone thinks are excessive are: County Counsel Mattoon from $9000 to $12,000; Secretary Chappell of Civil Service Commission, $6000 to $7200; Coroner Nance, $6000 to $7200; Undersheriff Wright, $6000 to $8000; Chief Criminal Deputy Dewar, $4800 to $6700; County Auditor Payne, $9000 to $10,000; Public Defender Vercoe and County Administrator Bryson, $6000 to $7200, and Purchasing Agent Russell, $5700 to $6600.

'VICTIM' WHO TOLD KIDNAP STORY HELD

Wife Says Man Recounting Theft of Child in Canyon Beat Her Up and Fled

Lee A. Kennedy, known to police as Alfred L. Kennedy, who early yesterday was held for questioning in connection with a shooting on May 18, was turned over to Glendale police last night to face an assault complaint filed against him yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Mae Kennedy, of 702 East Colorado Boulevard, Glendale.

In the complaint the wife asserted Kennedy met her while driving his automobile on Ellen avenue, Glendale, Monday, and after beating her took her 4-year-old boy and sped away in the machine.

Kennedy came to police attention some hours later, when he reported to Burbank officers he had been held up by two men on Dark Canyon Road, near Cahuenga Pass, and robbed of $14 and his car, in which they drove his son away from the scene. Later, while reporting in detail at the Burbank division, Detective Lieutenants Chitwood and Long entered on another mission. They recognized Kennedy, they charge, as one they had been wanting to question in connection with the shooting of a Japanese in a grocery store at Maple avenue and Twenty-third street, May 18, last; so they detained him on suspicion of robbery.

Later a forest ranger found Kennedy's child alone in the automobile near the spot Kennedy said he had been held up and robbed.

Charged with vagrancy, Charles Meeker, executive of a local mail-order concern, yesterday pleaded not guilty before Municipal Judge Bogue and was ordered held for trial on the 29th inst. Bail was set at $1000. Meeker was arraigned last Saturday before Municipal Judge Ambrose and is accused of annoying two young girls at Exposition Park. The case is being prosecuted by Deputy City Prosecutors Jack and Eberhard.

LITTLE GIRLS SEEKING ADVENTURE SENT HOME

Two missing little girls yesterday were returned to their homes by the police after their precocious desires for adventure had caused city-wide searches.

Mary E. Senander, 10 years of age, disapperade Monday afternoon from the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bradley, 10821 Otsego street, North Hollywood, where she is visiting. Her home is in Minneapolis. When she failed to appear at supper, her relatives notified the police and deputy sheriffs, who scrutinized all automobiles in that part of the city. Mary merely remained out of sight of home in order to sleep under a pepper tree a block from the Bradley house. Shortly after dawn, Policeman Scott identified her selling papers to motorists at Cahuenga and Lankershim Boulevards.

Thelma McCandless, 11, of 1100 Marisal street, was escorted home yesterday by Detective Lieutenant Hanson of the juvenile bureau. Her father, William McCandless, reported her missing from home on the 9th inst. A woman motorist picked up the girl on the streets, and told Hanson that Thelma related that she had run away from her home "in the East." The woman notified the juvenile bureau, and Hanson promptly identified Thelma, and took her home.

HEARING SET FOR YOUTHS IN ASSAULT

Five Held on $10,000 Bail Following Arraignment on Girl's Charges

Involving charges of kidnaping, robbery and five counts each of criminal assault, five young men, all under 25 years of age, were arraigned yesterday before Municipal Judge Ballard and held for preliminary hearing at 2 p.m. next Monday, under bail of $10,000 each.

According to charges against them, the young men attacked Ruth Manske, 17 years of age, daughter of Mrs. Flora J. Manske, of 425 South Fremont street, early last Sunday morning after kidnaping her from in front of her home and taking her in an automobile to an outlying district. The girl's screams drew Police Officer Melton to the scene and resulted in the capture of one of the asserted assailants. The others were taken into custody by police.

Those accused are Henry J. Dapper, Jr., 22 years of age, of 4619 Avalon Boulevard; Carl I. Bright, 23, of 812 Stewart street; Robert Warner, 23, of the same address; Louis E. Burton, 17, 1112 East Seventh street, and Anselmo Alvarado, 25, of 632 Baily street.

BANK THEFT CHARGED TO EMPLOYEE

Assistant Manager of California Branch Faces Embezzlement Complaint

A complaint charging grand theft was issued yesterday against Harry R. Kellum of 3803 West Eighth street by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Jones, accusing Kellum of embezzling approximately $18,000 from the California Bank branch at Eighth street and Central avenue during the last five years while serving as assistant manager of the institution.

The complaint was issued upon evidence produced by C. T. Rule, Burns agent, who was brought into the case by bank executives.

According to officers, Kellum admitted being responsible for the shortage.

Widow Named in Divorce and Love-Balm Suits

Charging a widow with stealing the affections of her husband, Mrs. Maud E. Jaynes of Ocean Park yesterday filed suit in Superior Court for $100,000 damages against Mrs. Rebecca J. Meadows.

Alfred T. Jaynes is the husband in the case. According to Mrs. Jaynes, she and her husband were married in 1904 and lived happily together until 1918, when Mrs. Meadows is asserted to have appeared on the scene. The asserted alienation culminated in 1927, the complaint asserts.

Mrs. Jaynes also filed suit for divorce against her husband, setting up his asserted friendliness for Mrs. Meadows as cruelty.

Chiropractic Leader Held

Asserted to have accepted $125 from Mrs. Anna Carlson of 1717 Vincent Place, Santa Monica, for a massage diploma, Dr. Charles A. Cale, president of the Cale Chiropractic College of 1406 West Seventh street yesterday was named in a complaint issued by the office of City Prosecutor Nix charging petty theft.

Cale, who was arrested last month on a "diploma mill" charge, is asserted by Bert Humason to have accepted the money for a diploma entitling Mrs. Carlson to work as a massage operator.

The chiropractor now is awaiting trial on the first charge, involving the asserted sale of a chiropractic diploma to a woman for $200.

Drago Fined for Slapping Youth

Harry Drago, motion-picture actor, of 1954 Argyle avenue, yesterday was convicted of a charge of battery and sentenced by Municipal Judge Thompson to pay a fine of $100 or serve twenty days in jail.

According to evidence of the prosecution, conducted by Deputy City Prosecutor Smith, Drago slapped Early Deane, Jr., 11 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Early Deane, of 1938 Argyle avenue, following an altercation between the Deane boy and his son, Tommy, 7.

AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

LONGSHOREMEN SHOW LOYALTY

Report on Benefits Made by Harbor Group

Members Contribute Fees to Promote Work

Port Safety Code Helps to Reduce Accidents

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Loyalty of Los Angeles longshoremen to each other and their families in distress is attested in a report closing the group's third fiscal year of co-operation.

It is known as the Employees' Mutual Benefit Club of the Marine Service Bureau, and while fostered by the latter, is officered and conducted by the men themselves.

Organized August 1, 1926, the club has gathered momentum steadily and today numbers perhaps 85 per cent of the 1700 to 1800 longshoremen engaged at the harbor, according to Edwin Nichols, manager of the Marine Service Bureau.

From the fees regularly contributed by members, $42,272 has been paid out since the club was formed. During the fiscal year just closed benefits paid reached $16,610, of which $15,560 was for injuries, $1050 in death benefits.

The institution is strictly beneficiary, but its good will in furthering safety practices inaugurated by the Marine Service Bureau is credited with materially lessening casualties in this hazardous work.

The benefits are exclusive of those received by the injured member through application of the Federal Compensation Act, which became a fact two years ago.

A new safety code evolved here, which has served as a coast model and now is influencing the drafting of a national safety code, also has helped reduce accidents materially. Los Angeles Harbor now leads the Coast in freedom of accidents, and this Coast long has excelled the Atlantic and Gulf in safety work.

CARGO RECORD WILL GO BY BOARDS

Another outbound cargo record for Los Angeles will go into the discard Saturday when American Hawaiian Line's O. & O. steamer Golden Dragon sails for South China with 7400 tons of Southern California products.

The previous record load was 7000 tons taken to China a month ago by the Golden Forest of the same line.

The Golden Dragon's cargo will comprise mainly 120,000 cases of gasoline and kerosene, 3000 drums of distillate, and 900 tons of gypsum and old newspapers.

Since the O. & O. ships were taken over from the Shipping Board by the American Hawaiian and Matson lines a year or so ago, the outbound movement of Los Angeles cargo has more than doubled.

France's first tank motorship, and one of that country's largest tankers, the Monique, arrived yesterday from Bordeaux under command of Capt. Joseph Ollivier, thirty years a master with the Compagnie des Marais. The vessel will load 80,000 barrels of gasoline from the Union Oil Company's terminals for France, according to Felician Landier, local agent.

McCormick's steamer West Ira, which sailed from here for Buenos Aires July 17, is reported to have put into Talcahuano, Chile, due to shifting of cargo, according to advices received here. No details were received.

Cooling-devices installed on the Texas Company tanker Illinois, have eliminated practically all evaporation of the highly volatile casing-head gasoline while being transported from here to the Atlantic coast, according to Capt. Sverre Petersen. The Illinois arrived from Providence, R. I. yesterday, and after inspection will load and return Friday. Before the sprinklers and other devices were installed five months ago, evaporation approximated 20 per cent of the cargo. A sister tanker, the Lightburn, Capt. N. Mathisen, also arrived from Providence yesterday and will sail back today with 72,000 barrels of gasoline.

Williams Line now is operating on its revised schedule with a westward sailing every eleventh day, according to J. C. Hammerberg, local manager. The schedule started last week with the sailing of the Wilkeno with 9000 tons for the Pacific Coast. Eight ships comprise the fleet.

The Italian steamer Fianona is due today for bunkers en route from the Northwest with a full cargo of lumber for South Africa under time charter to J. J. Moore & Co., according to Capt. A. R. Paulsen, agent.

One Maddux plane will assist in transporting sixty-five members of the Los Angeles Marine Service Bureau tomorrow to San Diego for the annual banquet and meeting of the Coast organization. They will be guests of Gov. Rodriguez at Agua Caliente before returning Friday.

Cafe Imports Expert Cooks

Culinary experts of New York and London arrived here yesterday to take charge of the Town House Restaurant on Wilshire Boulevard at Commonwealth avenue, facing Lafayette Park. In preparation for its opening in the immediate future, the United Pacific Securities Corporation had Ernest of New York's famous Colony restaurant select leading culinary department heads to assure the Town House a place in the forefront as the rendezvous of connoisseurs.

The newly arrived department heads include Eduard Alexandre in charge of the catering department of the United Pacific Securities Corporation's Savoy-Plaza, New York; Henri, maitre d'hotel, from the Carlton, London, and Agazzoni, chef, also from the Carlton.

Henri, the new maitre d'hotel, is enthusiastic over the beauty and accommodations of the Town House dining rooms. These include the Wedgewood or main dining-room, seating 400 diners, the exquisite Queen Ann ballroom, accommodating 300, the sunken garden, balcony, green and oak rooms, and the Bride-Room. The not distant opening of Town House will be an invitation affair.

Negro Boy Dies in Row Over Car

Wounded in a quarrel over the sale and possession of an automobile, Jerry Moore, a negro, 17 years of age, died on the operating table at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital last night, and detectives began a search on Central avenue for the assailant, known to them only as "Scotty."

In a dying statement the negro youth, who lived at 1129 East Twenty-fifth street, said he purchased a car from the man he knew as "Scotty" and was several months behind in payments. Last night the latter attempted to repossess the machine, provoking an argument in which Moore received a fatal wound.

Angela Springs Surprise at Santa Barbara

BY FRANK ROCHE
("Times" Staff Representative)

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 13.—Owen Churchill's King of Spain eight-meter trophy winner, the Babe, certainly does not need any help from the weather man when she wants to win yacht races. She proved that here today by romping off with the eight-meter event in the lightest kind of sailing weather which marked the opening of the ninth annual Southern California championship regatta. The Babe, winner of most of her races in heavy going in the past, showed she was just as good in a light blow by leading Stuart Haldron's Monidah of the St. Francis Yacht Club of San Francisco all the way over the twelve-mile triangular course to cop the first of a series of three races for the Southland eight-meter championship.

OWEN CHURCHILL

Ted Conant again handled Churchill's trim little sea ghost in masterful fashion. Conant eased the Babe's sheets at the start and came up on the lee side of the Monidah, which was skippered by Charles Langlais, to take an early lead which the Babe increased until the boats were stretched about a mile apart. The sailing of Conant and the victory of the Babe was considered the big feature of the opening day of the regatta which zoomed away to a colorful start with the largest field in west coast sailing history competing for the yachting prizes.

DOEG WINS MATCH IN RYE PLAY

Youthful Santa Monica Tennis Star Advances to Third Round

RYE (N. Y.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter, first two ranking American stars, continued their mediocre play in the eastern grass court tennis championships today, both losing a set before downing players not listed among the country's first twenty.

JOHNNY DOEG

Tilden twice was within two points of defeat in his third round match with Donald Cram, of Nashville, Tenn., but rallied to eke out a hard fought victory, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5. Hunter dropped the opening set of his match with Phil Neer but tightened up to take the match, from the Portland (Or.) player.

Tilden's victory put him in the fourth round along with Berkeley Bell of Dallas, who trounced C. C. Hubbell, Jr., of Forest Hills, 6-2, 6-1.

Hunter's triumph placed him in the third round where he was joined by H. W. (Bunny) Austin

AN ANTI-RED

Which is a title quite fitting for Augie Walsh, star Angel hurler, who knocked the Mission Reds out of first place yesterday by beating them, 6 to 4. The victory was Walsh's eighteenth of the season and he is the first pitcher in the league to turn in that many wins.

BRAVES LOSE TO CHICAGO

Pacemaking Cubs Increase Lead as Pirates Are Idle in Brooklyn

BOSTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—While the runner-up Pirates were idle in Brooklyn through having played today's game in advance of the regularly scheduled date, the pacemaking Cubs rallied here today to defeat the Braves, 4 to 2, in the final clash of the series. The victory gave the Cubs the series by three games to one and stretched their margin over the Buccaneers to eight and one-half games.

HAL CARLSON

Harold Carlson held the home team to six hits to win his sixth straight. The Braves gave him trouble only in the fifth when half of the local hits were put together for two runs and a 2-to-0 lead. The Cubs retrieved this margin for Carlson in the next three innings, and established one for themselves.

The Cubs departed on an early evening train for New York to open a series with Brooklyn tomorrow. Guy Bush, the Chicago ace, is due to start. The score:

Seven-Run Rally Puts Skids Under San Francisco

Walter Kinney Pitches Vitt Crew to First Place

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Hollywood tramped all over the prostrate forms of the Seals today and moved into first place in the Coast League. The score was 18 to 9 and it took pretty much all afternoon to play. The Seals were beaten so badly that Smead Jolley had to pitch the ninth inning to get the game over. Smead did not have to warm up, for he had made so many throws from the outfield that his arm was in good shape.

WALTER KINNEY

Walter Kinney pitched the whole game for the Hollywood bunch. Runs enough were made off him to win a couple of ordinary games, but his mates scored so many times that the bulky left-hander was never in trouble after the sixth inning.

For the first five innings it was a snappy game, with the Seals picking up a lead of two runs in the second inning only to have Hollywood tie in the fifth. The Seals forged to the front again by scoring two more in the last of the fifth and then came the sixth and demoralization of the Seals. Seven Stars romped across the plate in this round and nine more runs were added by Hollywood during the last three innings.

A pass to Donovan and a home run by Jolley gave the Seals a start in the second inning. Cleo Carlyle got one of those runs back with a home run in the fourth and the second run scored in the fifth on Crosetti's error. In the last of the fifth Pinelli was passed and Jerry Donovan hit a homer, and once more the Seals were out in front.

Then Davis blew up in the sixth, when Hollywood made eight hits

BY BOB RAY

Augie Walsh, who pitches with his arm, his head and his nerve, turned back the Red menace at Wrigley Field in yesterday's series opener, which was won by the Angels, 6 to 4, after as thrilling a struggle as you could ever want to see. It was one of those rare battles that keep you on edge throughout a nerve-wracking clash that kept you wondering what was coming next.

IKE BOONE

It was Walsh's eighteenth victory of the season and the triumph moved the men of Jack Lelivelt to within a game and a half of first place, which is today occupied by Hollywood by virtue of its win off the Seals while the Angels were knocking off the Missions. The Seraphs are still in fourth place, a game behind the Seals and Reds, but the race is tied up tighter than the wall paper in Scotch apartments and it looks like a torrid seven weeks coming up for Coast League fans.

Big Ike Boone, the Alabama slammer, did his best to put over the Killefer cause by hitting two home runs and a lucky single in four times at bat. Fortunately for Walsh, both of Boone's clouts arrived when the bases were empty.

LONGEST LOCAL CLOUT

While on the subject of Boone's homers, let it here be mentioned that Big Ike's first four-base clout was the longest ever hit at Wrigley Field, and there have been some pretty fair country drives in the local ball yard's almost five years of existence. Boone got his long one in the first inning and the ball traveled on a line past the flagpole, which is a little more than 411 feet from home plate, and was still rising as it cleared the bleacher ticket office. It landed somewhere in Thirty-ninth street and was good for more than 500 feet if it went

MISS WILLS TOPS DRAW

Betty Nuthall Expected to Meet Berkeley Star in Semifinals of National Women's Play

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Helen Wills and her 18-year-old English rival, Betty Nuthall, landed in the same half of the draw today when the names of the sixty-four entries for the national women's tennis championship next week at Forest Hills were taken from a hat in the office of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

If both come through the early rounds according to schedule, the prospective battle royal between the champion and the English girl who forced her to play two hard deuced sets to win in the Wightman Cup series last week will be waged in the semifinals a week from Friday.

HELEN WILLS

Miss Nuthall headed the foreign seeded group with Mrs. Phoebe Watson, Mrs. Peggy Saunders Mitchell, Mrs. B. C. Covell and Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd-Barron, her Wightman Cup team-mates, next in line, and Miss Olive Wade of Toronto, Canadian champion, bringing up the rear.

The players expected to dispute Miss Nuthall's progress toward the semifinals are the American veterans, Mrs. Bundy and Mrs. Mallory, both of whom are old enough to be her mother. In the same quarter with Miss Wills the most formidable players are Miss Wade, Miss Gladman and Mrs. Mitchell.

In the lower half of the bracket, America's second ranking star, Miss Jacobs, and Mrs. Watson, the English woman who beat her in the Wightman Cup play, stand out as favorites to reach the semifinals.

Mrs. Covell, Miss Greef and Mrs. Shepherd-Barron are in the same quarter with Miss Jacobs, while Mrs. Watson's principal competition is expected to come from the San Francisco players, Miss Cross and Mrs. Harper.

None of the seeded entrants faces particularly dangerous opposition in the opening round except Miss

Vines, Gledhill, McArthur Reach Quarter-Finals

CULVER (Ind.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Eight youths, representing every section of the country, today pounded their way into the quarter-final round of the national junior tennis championships on the Culver Military Academy courts.

California dominated the list, three Coast players surviving the stiff competition to take places in the select eight. Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara, the favorite; Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, seeded number two, and Hugh McArthur of Los Angeles, seeded fifth, will battle for California tomorrow.

The Middle West has two hopes in Junior Boehmer of St. Louis and Earl Bossong of Cincinnati, while

Mrs. Pressler on Eastern Invasion

Mrs. Leona Pressler of the San Gabriel Country Club leaves tomorrow for Cleveland where she will defend her Western Women's championship. Mrs. Pressler goes east again after a most brilliant year. In the past twelve months she has won her second consecutive western women's title, the California State, Southern California, and Del Monte women's championships. Following the western, Mrs. Pressler will compete in the national women's championship at the Oakland Hills Country Club, Michigan, in October, and is rated as a foremost contender for the title. Mrs. Gregg Lifur of Riviera will also play in the championships.

Carnegie Report on State of Amateurism in Collegiate Football May Cause Sc

IOWA NOT ONLY CODE OFFENDER

Other 'Big Ten' Schools May Come in for Razzing

Alumni Press Gangs Likely to Enmesh Wisconsin

Innocence of Some Schools Surprising to Pegler

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The report of the Carnegie foundation on the state of amateurism in collegiate football, and other aspects of the athletic situation in the colleges is now in page proofs and will be released in a few weeks. When it is released there probably will be a mild scandal because the investigators are very thorough fact finders and being such they must have found many instances in which the practice of amateurism did not jibe with the definitions which have been solemnly adopted.

Possibly the University of Iowa will be cited among the interesting examples of inconsistency between amateur theory and fact, but having no political motives nor any personal attachments, the investigators may also present equally interesting facts regarding similar departures from the regulations at other Big Ten institutions. During the hearing of Iowa's appeal from the Big Ten's order of expulsion in Chicago in June it was rather freely conceded that only two members of this great verein actually had been living up to the adopted conception of amateurism and eligibility, and one of those two was charged with a notorious past.

But this institution's athletic prestige declined with its renunciation of the old practice of shanghaiing high school and prep school athletes with alumni press-gangs. As the coach and college got religion, the teams got licked by teams from other schools where the authorities took their amateurism in moderation. I's recent record was no ad for cover-to-cover amateurism.

If the Carnegie report goes into minute details regarding the amateurism of all the colleges investigated, as compared with the nice definition to which they subscribe by formal compacts, executed like international treaties, the result will be one of three. The institutions thus denounced will adjust their methods to the rules, or the rules to the methods practiced by the greatest number, or they will all continue to indorse the laws on paper and flout them in practice, as heretofore. It is anticipating the future, but I think they will retain the rules which have somehow become confused with religion and righteousness, and continue to subsidize athletics in a quiet way. Big Ten authorities at the time of the Iowa trial seemed to regard their rule of amateurism as another noble experiment and Iowa as an unfortunate sister who had been caught brewing a mess of hops in the cellar.

Tom K. Showalter of Crawfordsville, Ind., sends me a page from a publication called the Cumberland Alumnus, being the alumni bulletin of Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn., which indicates that there are still some institutions which have not yet been taught the ways of deceit and pretense by the missionaries. In an article by Robert Adams, '29, A. B., the Cumberland Alumnus says:

"The personnel of the baseball squad includes players of note. March, the University of Florida star, holds down the brut of the pitching, ably assisted by Houser, late of the University of Tennessee. On first we have Glass, who formerly played in the Lone Star League. Pritchard, a West Point man, handles the second sack. Smith, of the University of Texas, covers centerfield like a carpet and Bob Adams, in left field, is making his fourth letter on the baseball team. Coach MacDaniel has rounded out one of the best baseball teams that has represented the university in years."

The innocence of this account is a sufficient defense of the crimes suggested. There are four transfer students in Cumberland's baseball team, another man is playing his fourth year and another is a former member of the Lone Star League. It is still ethical to eat one's enemies in certain regions of the world and perhaps neither Robert Adams, '29, A. B., nor Cumberland University realizes that the faculty committee would have the law on them for what they are doing if they were caught doing such things in the Big Ten. But of course, they would have to be caught.

Somewhat less innocent is the suggestion contained in a clipping forwarded from Dubuque, Iowa. This one, under the date line of Darlington, Wis., reports that Dale (Snort) Norton, veteran tackle and guard of the Darlington High School football team and captain of the "1928 grid machine" will wear the Cardinal colors of the University of Wisconsin this year.

"Norton had been asked to go to Marquette and later decided to enter Platteville State Teachers' College," says the account, "but was persuaded to enter the University of Wisconsin."

Of course, there is nothing in the Big Ten's fundamentalist code of amateurism to forbid a boy's friends from persuading him to enter one university or another. But this item, dispatched from a promising young tackle's home town, describes a triangular competition for him which one of the Big Ten schools finally won.

I do not suggest that it was wrong of the young man's friends to proselyte him for Wisconsin. But it does not consist with the Big Ten's rule covering this sort of thing. To be consistent, the Big Ten should investigate, and if the facts are found to be as presented in the item from the boy's home town, obviously they should kick him out of college and award him back to either Marquette or Platteville State Teachers' College, regardless of his personal preferences.

BOBBY TO SING FOR SCRIBES

Southern Songs Feature $50 Banquet

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

ROBERT TYRE JONES, JR., amateur golf champion of the United States, national open champion, etc., is a man of many accomplishments. It is well known that Bobbie can wield a mashie with any golfer in the world, and hold his own in a court of law, but few know that Bob also warbles a mean note.

JACK NEVILLE.

We have the above information from none other than D. Scott Chisholm, sponsor of the exhibition match between Jones, Charles (Chick) Evans, George Von Elm and Jack Neville, which will be played over the north course of the Los Angeles Country Club, Saturday, the 24th inst.

Scotty writes as follows:

"When Bobby Jones sits in the chair of honor at the invitation banquet being tendered him by the California Golf Writers' Association at the Los Angeles Biltmore on Friday evening, the 23rd inst., he has promised not only to make a few remarks pertaining to his California trip, but also has informed his pal, O. B. Keeler of the Atlanta Journal, he will sing a couple of old southern melodies for the edification of those present.

"Between you and me," writes Keeler, who knows Jones more intimately than any other newspaper man in America, "Bobby only was heard singing once in his life and that was in the rest room of the Royal and Ancient Club at staid St. Andrews the time Jess Sweetser won the British amateur. He didn't sing very long at that as the husky voices of Jess Guilford and Walter Hagen, who happened to be present, soon drowned the Atlanta lad's efforts," concluded Keeler in a letter.

Mayor John C. Porter has accepted an invitation to attend the banquet, the chief dish of which will be corned beef and cabbage with apple pie and cheese. Others expected include Al Jolson, Will Rogers, Gus Edwards, Duke Kahanamoku, Peter De Paolo, Georges Carpentier, Cosmo Bellew, Ben Frank, J. Ben Fahy, James Talbot, Jr., C. M. Fuller, Norman Macbeth and Everett H. Seaver.

If Bobby can sing the way he can play golf, that corn beef and cabbage will be worth fifty bucks a plate—and then some!

Lewis M. Thomas, chairman of the membership committee of the Lakeside Country Club, may soon retire. Thomas plays golf 'most every day at Lakeside with Neal Burns and other Lakeside regulars, and pointed out the fact yesterday that the Lakeside roster is short just forty members of being full. The club is limited to 400 members, and of the forty open there are thirty applications now being considered. That is an excellent indication.

L. Perry Ferguson, secretary of the Southern California Golf Association, yesterday announced the names of the chairman and members of the various committees of the national tournament committee of the California Golf Association. The national committee will function at Pebble Beach next month during the United States amateur championship.

Many Southern California golfers have been honored by being appointed to the committee. Here they are:

Admission and information—H. J. Borde, chairman, and John G. Levison.

Publicity and press committee—J. F. Neville, chairman; L. Perry Ferguson and Victor Girard.

Caddies and scoring committee—C. S. Loday, chairman, and R. M. Eyre.

Gallery committee—Edwin M. Eddy, chairman, and George Cline.

Willie Low, Lakeside professional, has developed several fine women golfers, and the North Hollywood club promises to have a strong team in the women's team matches this fall.

Mrs. E. S. (Eddie) Browne, Lakeside women's champion, is one of the most improved women golfers in the Southland. Eddie has to watch his step when he gives away strokes to his wife these days. Mrs. Browne shot an 83 over the Lakeside links a few weeks ago, and is playing consistently in the low 80's. Eddie, incidentally, plays to an eight handicap, and gets licked now and then.

Bobby Jones

Gibson Dunlap of the Riviera Country Club, Southern California amateur champion, will play in the $1000 Spreckels Cup tournament at the Coronado Country Club next week. Jack Gaines of Girard will defend the title he won a year ago, assuring a strong field.

Fay Coleman, Los Angeles city champion, David Martin, and Nick Shaefer are playing a practice round over the California Country Club today. Coleman and Martin are busy tuning up their games for the national amateur, while Nick hopes to be playing to a two handicap soon instead of a four.

Rancho is enjoying considerable activity these days. Mrs. Ike Wentworth won the women's tourney yesterday with a gross score of 95. Mrs. Robert Maclain was winner of low net with 103-16—87. Second low net went to Mrs. Conway Tearle, 105-14—91.

Leon Keller, secretary of the Rancho club, announced a mixed-foursome invitation tourney for Saturday. Rancho will provide partners for all feminine golfers, and members of the women's auxiliary are requested to call Rancho if they have no partners and wish to play.

The tournament will be followed by a dinner-dance.

Arthur Clarkson, professional at Rancho, asked us the other day if we considered the game of golf to be easier or harder than it was twenty years ago. No answer forthcoming, Art then went on to say that the game was simpler because of one outstanding fact, i.e., that all shots played today, with few exceptions, are full shots from the niblick on up with a club for practically every distance, and that all a golfer has to do nowadays is to groove his swing.

In the old days, Art pointed out that a golfer was limited to four or five clubs, and was forced by necessity to learn intricate half-shots, quarter-shots and three-quarter shots with all degrees in between. Clarkson, by the way, is a master when it comes to short irons and pitches.

Milo Thompson, manager of the Griffith Park golf courses, reported yesterday that M. J. Hebor bagged a hole-in-one on the fifteenth hole of the Woodrow Wilson course.

Players who tied in the blind bogey tournament which was played over the Sunset Fields public courses as a part of the celebration at the time of the opening of Angeles Mesa Drive from Jefferson to West Vernon avenue, were to play off their tie this week. Those tied are Mitzi Dockeray, F. R. Dougherty, H. W. Hjorth and R. V. Hammell. Marshall Morrison, of the California Country Club and Billy Halter divided low-gross honors, both turning in 74's. Roy Drachman of Phoenix won the special trophy given for the least number of putts.

LASALLE TO TAKE DUNHAM TONIGHT

Bobby LaSalle holds down the spotlight at Wilmington tonight when he makes his second consecutive appearance in eight days. LaSalle meets "Bang" Dunham, young middleweight threat from San Bernardino. Dunham drew with Charley Long not long ago and polished off Oscar (Red) Rankins in four rounds to become an overnight attraction at the harbor.

The six-round semifinal shows Bobby's kid brother, Kenny LaSalle, in an attempt to erase his only defeat by winning over Kid Bruno, Denver 130-pounder. They waged a fast fight a month ago and figure to repeat tonight.

Bolo-Boy Mission and Joe Lewis, Arizona negro, are down for the six-round special. The fours are Jimmy Benway vs. Joe Jennette and Young Peter Jackson vs. Herb Yates.

GOODRICH FACES STETSON

BUFFALO (N. Y.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Jimmy Goodrich, former lightweight champion, today forwarded articles to Promoter Frank Schuler at San Francisco calling for a ten-round bout there with Frankie Stetson. He will leave Buffalo on the 23rd inst.

ANGLER LOSES FIGHT TO GIANT SWORDFISH

According to Capt. Max Watt at Santa Monica, a game but losing battle against a huge broadbill swordfish was put up early this week off the beach city from a small boat by Pat Hartigan. Having the fish near the boat several times, Hartigan, after fighting for three hours and thirty minutes, lost the fish when his line parted.

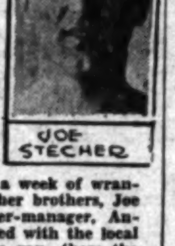
STECHER SIGNS FOR LUTZE GO

Lou Daro Gets Signature for Olympic Bout

Battle Will be to Finish Instead of Limited

Youthful Nick Has Chance to Beat ex-Champ

"Carnation" Lou Daro, local wrestling promoter, yesterday signed Joe Stecher, the great body-scissors expert, to meet Nick Lutze, local mat idol, in a best-two-out-of-three-fall match at the Olympic next Wednesday night that will mark the second round of the wrestling tournament being staged here to obtain a suitable opponent for Champion Gus Sonnenberg.



JOE STECHER

After nearly a week of wrangling, the Stecher brothers, Joe and his brother-manager, Anton, compromised with the local promoter. Daro gave them the added percentage of the gate they demanded for the bout, while the Stechers yesterday agreed to a finish bout instead of a two-hour match.

Daro refused point-blank to hold a two-hour time-limit match in any of the tournament matches, especially any in which Stecher competes. The powerful Nebraskan, although one of the greatest wrestlers in the game, is known as about the best defensive wrestler ever seen in action here.

Stecher has proven many times in the past that he can keep from being tossed in two hours and earn himself a draw, if necessary. With the time limit removed, however, Stecher is expected to show the same aggressiveness that he did against Ed (Strangler) Lewis here May 1, last. The Nebraskan had Lewis on the defense throughout the match that night. He both outroughed and outwrestled the headlock expert, in the opinion of mat critics.

Although this is but the second round of Daro's tournament, there have been no other worthy grapplers asking to compete, it is reported. Unless some of the other stars come forward within the next week, it is considered possible that the winner of the Lutze-Stecher match will be sent against the champion here early next month.

Young Jack Jacobs pitched the eighth and he let loose three wild heaves, hit a batsman and walked another, another quartet of runs scoring, and finally Jolley pitched the last inning and held the visitors to one run. That was quite a feat, considering the way things went today. The score:

Dempsey's Bid for License Held Up

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Boxing and wrestling in Illinois went under new management today, with indications of strict enforcement of ironclad rules governing the sports.

Without any formality, Gen. John V. Clinnin and George F. Getz, two of the newly appointed members of the State Athletic Commission, took over the affairs of the commission. The third member, Frederick Gardner, Chicago banker, was ill at home and could not attend.

After a few minutes of private discussion with Walter George, secretary of the retiring commission, the new commissioners took up the status of Jack Dempsey, who intends to promote boxing in the Coliseum starting in October.

Secretary George informed the commission the license was being held up pending the approval of Dempsey's bond. There was some doubt in Mr. Getz's mind whether the former world's heavyweight champion could qualify under the law as a matchmaker, but he was assured that the Attorney-General had made a ruling favorable to the "Manassa mauler."

RABBIT PUNCHES

BIG TIME STUFF

BOBBY JONES and then the football season. That's the sport world line-up if you deal in major league statistics.

Bobby Jones and the national amateur championship at Del Monte early in September are the biggest things in a golf sense that ever came to California.

As for football we always have a bigger and better season than the one which went before.

The national amateur without Jones would be just a great tournament.

With him in the lists it will be an epic.

The colorful Georgian has twice won the British open, the national open three times and the national amateur four times.

When you talk of golfers there is no one with whom to compare him.

He is Bobby Jones, the incomparable.

In spite of bad breaks, elements that deter others and fickle fates—and there is no game in which the fates can be more fickle than golf—Mr. Robert Tyre Jones of Georgia goes trudging on successfully.

Our former Mr. George Von Elm is rated as a very good golfer, but our Mr. Von Elm never was feared by the majority as is Mr. Robert Tyre Jones.

Mr. Jones is the only amateur in the world who can enter our national open, for example, and be trembled at by every pro in the lists.

And he is the only amateur who consistently will be up at the top.

It is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Jones will be the favorite to lick the field at Del Monte.

NIGHT FOOTBALL

THERE seems to be some belief that Southern California and U.C.L.A. are going to pry off the lid of the collegiate football season this year.

This does not happen to be the case, the varsities representing Occidental College and Arizona having consented to beat the boys of the Pacific Coast Conference to it by a day—or rather a night.

The Tigers are going to give the natives their first whirl at night football in several years by playing at the Rose Bowl on Friday night.

In fact the Tigers are going to play three games at night time this fall, thereby affording the cash customers a great opportunity to bask in the cool of the evening as they follow their favorite sport.

It is quite a novel idea, and if the arrangement is successful from a "gate" standpoint there is no doubt but what the Coliseum will follow suit and stick in a lighting system.

A HOME-TOWN MISS

MAYOR PORTER must have been reading some of the home-town literature from other parts when he made a speech of welcome in honor of Jackie Fields at the Biltmore the other night.

He referred to our new welterweight champion as a visitor—a sojourner in our midst.

Perhaps it wasn't coy for the toastmasters to correct the Mayor, but it has always been my belief that Jackie is a resident of this city, despite the fact that he was born in Chicago.

Although the conductor of this column also first saw the light of day in Chicago he never betrays the fact except under pressure. He is a native of this city and he feels Los Angeles is so far ahead of Chicago there is no comparison. All exceptions to this statement will be submitted to Harry Carr for cutting returns.

MAX, THE BLUFFER

IS remarkable the speed with which Max Schmeling has suddenly discovered he can fight Phil Scott after all.

When he was trying to bluff the New York Boxing Commission a few weeks ago he positively refused ever to box Scott.

Now that he is on the suspended list he can see so much better he wants to be a good boy.

COAST JUNIORS TAKE MATCHES

the East and South will depend on one each. Fred Roll of Philadelphia is the lone easterner and Robert Bryan, Atlanta, is the sole survivor from the South. Karl Kamrath of Austin, Tex., will represent the Southwest.

William Schommer, Milwaukee southpaw, sixth seeded player, defeated G. H. Hartford of Newport, R. I., but was humbled in his next encounter by Robert Bryan, the Atlanta star, in three stiff sets, 6-4, 5-7, 6-1. William O'Loughlin of Pittsburgh, eliminated Kendall Cram of Nashville, Tenn., and then bowed to Earl Bossong of Cincinnati, whose play has been the sensation of the tournament, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Junior Boehmer had trouble with Doo Barr of Dallas, Tex., but managed to pull through in three sets, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1.

Vines, the tall Coast star, dropped a set to Donald Frame of New York, but won by 6-2, 5-7, 6-1. Nate Ganger of Cleveland, also was one of Vines's victims, falling in straight sets, 6-2, 7-5.

Gledhill continued his swift pace, eliminating Emmett Lowery of Indianapolis, 6-0, 6-2.

The two leading boys' stars, R. K. Hebard, White Plains, N. Y., defending champion, and Jay Cohn, Santa Monica (Cal.) sensation, won easily. Hebard trounced Edward Donnell of Indianapolis, 6-3, 6-3, while Cohn hammered out a quick 6-2, 6-0 victory over H. H. Lott of Pittsburgh.

AL SINGER KAYOES CHARLES IN SECOND

Fields Sought as Opponent for Jones

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Elated by the impressive showing of "Gorilla" Jones, negro welterweight of Akron, O., in stopping Pete Meyers, tough San Franciscan, here last night, Promoter Ancil Hoffman of the Monarch Club announced today he was seeking a topnotch opponent to meet Jones in the near future. Hoffman said he intended to go to Los Angeles in an effort to sign Jackie Fields, welterweight champion, to meet Jones in a non-title fight. Failing in this, he will try to line up either Young Corbett, Fresno southpaw, or Eddie Roberts, Tacoma slugger.

BABE CAPTURES YACHT FEATURE

Cup winner defeated a classy field in copping the six-meter event. Arthur Rousseau, one of San Francisco's leading racing skippers, finished in second place with his Maybee. Doc Wilson's Clio took third honors and Al Rogers's Synnove was fourth. The Synnove did not like the light going very much and was never in it with the others.

ANGELA SURPRISES

One of the real surprises of the day came in the R class, which was taken by Commodore Joe Jessop's Angela. Owen Churchill's Friendship, which he skippered himself, was the favorite to cop this race, but after Owen and his crew got through experimenting with a geona jib, the best they could get was third place. The Angela, a real light-weather boat, had a fine afternoon. She jumped into an early lead and held it throughout. She did the same thing during the midwinter regatta on the opening day last March. Maribel, sailed by Linn Brawner of the San Diego Yacht Club, took second place. The Aloha was in fourth position and the Zephyr of the San Diego Yacht Club was a bad fifth. The Harpoon, which started five minutes later in the six-meter class, passed the Zephyr.

Walton Hubbard and his Gold Star Tempe III captured the opening event in that class. The Plumb boys, Preston and Ed, who copped the recent Newport Harbor elimination series, skippered their West Wind into second place. Flying Cloud took third and the Sirius fourth. The rest of the twenty-two starters were strung out along every few yards.

Mist II actually crossed the line first in the star boat race but she was disqualified by the officials in charge for hitting a marker. She was sailed by Johnson and Childs. B. Rey Schauer's Movie Star II, one of the favorites, finished ninth far in the wake of the leaders.

Al Christie's Highlander sailed to victory in the M and FN and G class. Clem Stose's Teva, winner of the last Honolulu race, was second and the Wetona, which belongs to Charles Reynolds, was third. Syl Spaulding's big schooner, the Westward, sailed a beautiful race but was disqualified for failure to keep to the correct course.

ALERT TRIUMPHS

The VWX and Y class sailing battle was taken by the Alert as expected. William Watson's Wilits gave her quite a race for the honors during the run home. Wyman and Mitchell's Wymitch was third and Smith and Angelman's Ocean Waif, fourth.

First place in the skimmer race, which was staged on the tail end of the program, went to the Patricia. Bobby was second. The Barbara was third.

Outboard pilots burst into the regatta picture here Thursday morning when the first of a series in Class B and C are staged. The eight-meter sloops Babe and Monidah will resume their duel tomorrow and the R's and six-meters will do likewise. The larger sailing boats in the M and F, N and G, P and X and Q and Y classes will battle it out in their finals tomorrow.

KLINE STOPS FERGUSON

Campolo Gets Test Against Heeney Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—The fitness of Victorio Campolo, giant Argentinean, to carry on in the heavyweight footsteps of Luis Angel Firpo, will be definitely tested tomorrow night in the Ebbets Field ring at Brooklyn. Campolo will face Tom Heeney, the Australian hard rock Gene Tunney softened last summer, in the main ten-round bout.

In a ten-round preliminary, Angus Snyder of Dodge City, (Kan.) heavyweight, will tackle Jack Roper of California.

SOX SOCK SOX

CHICAGO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Big Ed Morris stopped the White Sox today and Boston won the final of the series, 8 to 2, to take three out of four and five of the last seven with the Comiskey team. The Chicago team made eight hits off Morris, who allowed three of them in the ninth.

Bob Weiland started for the losers, but blew up in the third inning when the Red Sox counted four runs. Grady Adkins relieved Weiland and allowed three hits during the remaining seven innings. The score:

REDS RAMPANT

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Fred Fitzsimmons's mastery of the Reds was ended here today when the Cincinnati team won by 3 to 1, to take the odd decision in five. Fitzsimmons had defeated the Reds five times this season, four of the games being won by the shut-out route.

Eppa Rixey was touched for ten hits, one more than the Reds made, but scattered them intelligently, and bore down in such pinches as arose. Sukeforth led the assault upon Fitzsimmons and his relief, Jack Scott, with three hits which drove in two runs. The score:

ANGELS TOPPLE MISSIONS

Walsh Registers Eighteenth Victory as Seraphs Cop, 6-4; Boone Clouts Two Home Runs

Wilbur Hubbell, who until yesterday rated as the league's leading pitcher, lasted less than two innings against the Seraph sluggers. Hubbell, after getting by the first round without a run scoring because of a perfect throw that caught Jigger Statz at the plate, was bumped for five solid safeties in the second, which, with a walk, produced a quintet of Cherub counters. Ernie Nevers replaced Hubbell and blanked the Angels until the eighth, when Gus Sandberg lined out a double that scored Ray Jacobs with a very welcome run to the Angel rooters.

Boone's record homer put the Reds off to a one-run start in the opening inning and in the second the Missions added another to make it look dark for the home guards. After Christensen had been retired Slade and Hofmann punched doubles to left for the second Red run. Statz made a nice running catch of Hubbell's liner and then Walsh whiffed Rodda to end the round.

ANGELS ROUT HUBBELL

Whereupon the Angels began firing in their half of the second. Hubbell fanned Tolson, but walked Jacobs to begin excavation for his burial ground. Jones punched a single to right and Jacobs pulled up at third. A wild pitch moved Bobby to second, but Jacobs was forced to hold third. Sandberg hit the ball back at Hubbell and Jacobs was trapped between third and home. Sandberg went to second and both Jacobs and Jones were perched on third when Hofmann got there with the ball. Hofmann tagged Jones out, leaving Jacobs and Sandberg on third and second. Walsh aided his own cause with a slashing single to center that scored both runners and knotted the count. Haney's smash over second was knocked down by Finn for an infield hit. Statz plastered the next pitch to left for another hit and Walsh legged it home. Earl Webb found one to his liking and sizzled it down the right-field line for two bases, both Haney and Statz scoring before Boone could catch up with the ball, which billiarded around in the right-field corner. That was all for Hubbell, who was given a razzing by the fans as he left the field because of his crybaby tactics on the mound. Nevers retired Berger on a loft to Hufft for the third out.

The score remained 5 to 2, until the sixth, when Boone lifted his second homer into the bleachers. Hufft and Christensen also got hits in this round, but Walsh made a nice stop of Slade's slow roller and tossed him out at third to end the inning.

The Reds were presented with a gift run in the seventh through a mental lapse on the part of Jacobs. After Hofmann and Nevers had gone out, Rodda walked and Finn singled, which brought the dangerous Boone up to the plate. Both Walsh and Boone were nervous, each stepping out of the box a couple of times after the count had reached 2 and 2. Walsh finally forced Big Ike to hit a slow grounder to Haney, but Jacobs failed to cover second and Boone beat Haney's throw to first, Rodda scoring. That made the situation one of those productive of cold beads of perspiration on the brow, what with Fuzzy Hufft coming up, runners on first and second and the score, 5 to 4. But Augie worked hard on Hufft and got out of the inning without anything further happening from Jake's blunder by retiring Fuzzy, Jacobs to Tolson.

A snappy double play retired the Reds in the eighth to further reduce the chances of Boone's coming to bat again, which was a relief. Christensen, after doing a lot of clowning at the plate, singled with one out, but Slade lined one directly at Tolson, who snagged the speeding pellet and stepped on first to retire the side.

ANGELS SCORE ANOTHER

After Tolson went out to open the Angel eighth, Jacobs singled between Slade and Rodda. Jones followed with another hit to center, sending Jake to third. Jones, however, was out trying to taking second on Christensen's throw to third, which Slade cut off and relayed to Finn. Sandberg, however, came through with a long double off the base of the center field bleachers and Jacobs trotted home with a run that caused numerous sighs of relief to go up among the Angel rooters.

Jones made a brilliant pick-up of Hofmann's slow roller and tossed out the Red catcher for the first out in the ninth. Bert Cole, batting for Nevers, watched a third strike float over the plate and then Rodda lined to Haney for the final out. Score:

PORTLAND HAMMERS INDIANS TO WIN, 8-2

SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Portland hammered two Seattle hurlers for twelve safeties and, assisted by four Seattle bobbles, beat the Indians in a baseball game today by a score of 8 to 2. Wade, Seattle center fielder, smacked a circuit clout in the first inning with one on. Score:

Foul Tips

Wrigley Field is heaven for Ike Boone. Ike always hits 'em hard in the local park, bagging seven home runs down here one week. He started off the current series with the Angels in great fashion yesterday by poling two out of the lot.

Boone's first homer yesterday was the longest ever hit at Wrigley Field. Lou Gehrig hit one past the flag pole on his exhibition out here with Ruth, and Dave Barbee also clouted a long one over the center field wall this year, but both of those swats have to step aside for the mighty wallop of the Albama Bammer.

Either Clyde Barfoot or Deacon Flitt will pitch for Los Angeles today, while Mert Nelson is expected to get the assignment from Killefer.

Wilbur Hubbell moaned so much over Umpire Cady's decision on balls and strikes that he sounded like the wind blowing through the poplars on a breezy night. Hofmann also did a lot of crying over the arbiter's rulings, and between the two of them they shed enough tears to be called a wet battery. (pun?)

Line drives to infielders with men on base resulted in three double plays in yesterday's game.

Bobby Jones's return to hitting form makes the Angel's pennant chances look a lot better. Bobby got two hits yesterday and Sherlock robbed him of another.

SOLONS NOSED OUT BY OAKLAND OUTFIT

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13. —A pitchers' battle between relief hurlers Kasich and Gang ended in the ninth inning of a nip-and-tuck battle here today opening the series between Oakland and Sacramento when the Oaks scored three runs after two were out. Hits by Vergez, Arlett and Carlyle turned the trick. Arlett and Vergez had hit homers early in the game off Vinci. McEvoy was chased in the fifth. The final was 7 to 5, the Sacs getting to Hurst for a tally in their half of the ninth. Kasich won the game. Score:

Elbow Action in Iron Play

YOU GO THROUGH ON THIS ARC
AND A SLICE RESULTS

BY SOL METZGER

Some say the right elbow tucked in at the right side idea is all bosh because Bobby Jones's isn't when he drives. True enough. But his right forearm point down at the ground at his right side. His elbow merely has been lifted from his side, due to Bobby's hands being so high.

The way to tuck the right elbow in is to get a firm right-hand grip that actually presses the heel of that hand upon the left thumb that is down the shaft. That will make it behave, as will holding it in close as you go back. When it pokes itself out at an angle, it forces the clubhead out around the ball and makes you cut across it with a resulting slice that is as discouraging as any golf result. Tomorrow—how far back with the irons.

Add yardage and accuracy to your drive by writing Sol Metzger, care of The Times, for his free leaflet on driving. Inclose stamped, addressed envelope.

HUFFT STILL LEADING COAST LOOP BATTERS

Fuzzy Hufft, one of Red Killefer's slugging Mission outfielders, again leads the Coast League batting averages, as the twenty-first week of play starts. Last week Hufft, Smead Jolley, San Francisco, and Bill Rumler of Hollywood were all closely bunched for first place, but both Jolley and Rumler fell during the last week. Jolley is three points behind Hufft, while Rumler is in a tie for fifth with Gussie Suhr of San Francisco.

DILL RUMLER

Hufft's grand average is .394, two points higher than it was last week, while Jolley fell one point to .391. "Buzz" Arlett strengthened his hold on third place by raising his average to .387. Ike Boone of the Mission Reds is in fourth place with .382, while Suhr and Rumler are tied for fifth with .376.

Suhr still leads the home-run kings with thirty-three to his credit, while Fred Haney tops the stolen bases with thirty-nine pilfered sacks.

MAXIE WANTS TO BOX SCOTT

Herr Schmeling Changes Mind on New York Go

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Max Schmeling, the much-troubled German heavyweight, has had a change of mind and is willing to fight Phil Scott of England, Humbert Fugazy, boxing promoter, told the New York State Athletic Commission today.

Fugazy said that the date had been set tentatively for September 11 at Ebbets Field. The commission, however, refused to make any comment, stating it would reserve definite action awaiting further developments.

Schmeling, who was suspended by the New York commission until such time as he has fulfilled his contract to fight Scott for Fugazy, has repeatedly refused to go through with the match because the contract was signed by Arthur Buelow, his repudiated German manager.

ROY MAHAFFEY LEADS IRON MAN PITCHERS

Roy Mahaffey of the Portland pitching staff has been a demon for hard work all season. His name has appeared in about thirty-five box scores. He has pitched nineteen complete games, served in the relief role in eleven contests, and has twirled a total of 248 innings, which is equivalent to about twenty-eight full games. Mahaffey's record is twelve wins and twenty defeats.

OVER 200-HIT MARK

Four Coast League players, Smead Jolley, Fuzzy Hufft, Ike Boone and Gus Suhr, all batted out more than 200 safe hits in the first twenty weeks of the season. "Buzz" Arlett came within two of reaching the 200 mark in safe hits. The five leading manufacturers of safe hits are all listed in the "select five" circle of batsmen.

WET-TOPING CONGRESS

Mrs. Willebrand Traffic in Cap of Drunken

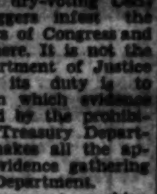
The only reply I can make [illegible] enforce the law, and enforce it regardless of my own disgust w[illegible] politicians who vote dry.

I have not lived in Washington all these years without becoming well acquainted with the fact that many Congressmen and Senators who vote for bills designed to aid prohibition enforcement are persistent violators of the Volstead law. Senators and Representatives have appeared on the floor of the Senate and House in a drunken condition. During the closing days of the recent session of Congress, one Senator objected to and prevented the passage of important legislation while in such a condition of intoxication that he had to hold to his desk to keep himself upright. Colleagues argued with him in an effort to persuade him to leave the chamber, but he refused. His condition was apparent to every member of the Senate and to hundreds of people in the galleries.



MRS. MABEL WILLEBRANDT

BOOTLEGGERS IN CAPITOL

I think that probably nothing has done more to disgust and alienate honest men and women who originally strongly favored the prohibition amendment and its strict enforcement than the hypocrisy of the wet-drinking, dry-voting Congressmen. Bootleggers infest the halls and corridors of Congress and ply their trade there. It is not the duty of the Department of Justice to "make cases;" its duty is to prosecute cases in which evidence has been gathered by the prohibition unit of the Treasury Department. Congress makes all the appropriations for evidence gathering to the Treasury Department.

So I have had no agents working under my direction whom I could command to gather the evidence. But I have urged that the Treasury Department direct agents to investigate a case thoroughly, even though it may lead into the halls of Congress, and if real evidence is obtained, I have guaranteed that the Department of Justice would prosecute the case just like any other, either by United States attorneys or men from my office.
